The Author’s Introduction

All praise to Allah, the Almighty for His open and concealed bounties, which He bestows at all times. May the peace and blessings of Allah be upon His final Messenger, his family and companions and all those who strive in the path of Allah until the Day of Judgment, as well as their followers who inherited their knowledge for indeed the scholars (Ulamá') are the heirs of the Prophets! May Allah, the Almighty bless them all and their followers.

This is a concise book comprising of Hadith, which are sources of the Shariah. I have made a meticulous compilation so that the one who memorizes it will excel among his peers. It may assist the beginner and the learned person who is seeking more knowledge.

I have indicated at the end of every Hadith the Imam who collected it. I used the following abbreviations:

The seven Imáms refers to: Ahmad¹, Al-Bukhári², Muslim³, Abú Dawúd⁴, At-Tirmidhí⁵, An-Nasá’i⁶ and Ibn Májah⁷.

Translator's Introduction

All praise is due to Allâh, the Lord of the Universe. We praise Him, seek His help, and ask His forgiveness. We seek refuge in Allâh from the evil of our souls, and the adverse consequences of our deeds. Whosoever Allâh guides, there is none that can misguide him, and whosoever He misguides, none can guide him.

I bear witness and testify that there is no deity that is worthy of worship except for Allâh, who is alone having no partners. I bear witness and testify that Muhammad ﷺ is His perfect slave and Messenger.

_Bulûgh al-Marām_ is a book, which was written by Imâm Ibn Hajar (773 H - 852 H) with the objective of compiling many of the _Ahâdîth_ particularly related to the _Ahkâm_ (judgments) of Islâmic Shari'ah, i.e. those related to worship, business transactions, laws of marriage and divorce, legal punishments etc. This illustrates the importance of this book for the Muslim reader, who is always in need to know the judgments of Shari’ah related to the essential elements of his life.

Due to the importance of this book, Imâm As-San’âni wrote a very good interpretation of the _Ahâdîth_ in _Bulûgh al-Marâm_ in his famous book 'Subûl as-Salâm.’ Needless to say that reading the _Ahâdîth_ on their own as they are organized in 'Bulûgh al-Marâm,’ may be confusing sometimes as the reader may find that some of these _Ahâdîth_ appear to be contradictory even though they may be of the same grade of authenticity. Therefore, we made use of some of the commentary of Imâm As-San’âni, plus referring to some other books, which are relevant to the interpretation of Hadîth, in order to clarify any ambiguity that may arise. Hopefully these footnotes will make it easy for the reader to comprehend the essence of these _Ahkâm_ in Islâmic Shari’ah and how they are deduced from the combination of these _Ahâdîth_ and the relevant Qur’ânic verses.

A glossary has been included to clarify the meaning of some of the terminology used throughout it. Needless to say that this terminology is specifically related to Islâmic concepts of which there is no synonym in English. For this reason they were used in Arabic Transliteration so that the non-Arabic speaking Muslim reader will become familiar with them, and hopefully such words and expressions will be adopted into everyday speech. One English word could never convey the whole concept and depth of the Arabic term.

Bulugh al-Marâm was previously translated, with good effort by Dâr al-Fikr in Syria, but the language of the book required some refining plus there is a need for explanatory footnotes to help in the comprehension and understanding of the Ahâdîth as mentioned earlier.

I am deeply grateful to Dr. al-Khushû’î Muhammad al-Khushû’î, who is a scholar of Hadith and its sciences at Al-Azhar University, Faculty of ‘Usûl ad-Din’, for his great help with the commentaries included in this edition and his valuable guidance throughout the whole work.

I would like to express my deep gratitude and appreciation to my editor sister Selma Cook, as she is not just a language editor, she reads with the eye and heart of a Muslim who tries to understand, analyze and comment on what she is reading. Her valuable discussions over the content of the book are always a source of inspiration for more valuable additions in explanatory footnotes and in the Hadith text itself. This is very important for editors of such specialized books that could not be edited by someone who does not have a good background in Islamic knowledge and the interest and desire to understand what they are not familiar with.

Finally, I must say that this remains a human effort which can never achieve perfection, and any comments from the reader will be much appreciated and will be considered Inshâ’ Allâh in coming editions. I would like to thank all who helped to publish this book. I pray that Allah, the Almighty accepts our efforts, as sincere deeds are done solely for His sake.

Indeed, any deeds performed without sincerity in Allah’s cause are lost and have no value. May Allah guide and keep us all on His straight path.

1. Abū Hurairah (RAA), narrated that the Prophet ﷺ said, "Concerning the sea, its (the sea) water is pure (suitable for performing ablution) and its dead (animals) are lawful (Halāl to eat, without any prescribed slaughtering). It is related by the four Imāms and Ibn Abi Shaibah (the text mentioned above is his). Ibn Khuzaimah and at-Tirmidhi graded it as Sahih (authentic) [it was also reported by Mālik, Shāfi‘ī and Ahmad].

2. Abū Sā'īb al-Khudrī (RAA), narrated that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, "Water is Tahūr (i.e. pure in itself and it purifies other things) and nothing defiles it." Related by the three Imāms, and Ahmad graded it as Sahih (authentic).

10. What is meant by the water in the Hadith is running water such as that of a river, or spring. It is considered pure, unless its smell, color or taste change by having had something thrown into it, as clarified in the following Hadith.

4. Imām al-Baihaqī reported (through his chain of narrators): “Water is Tahur except when its smell, taste or odor is changed by a Najāsah, which affects it.”

5. ‘Abdullāh Ibn ‘Umar (RAA), narrated that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “None of you should wash in stagnant water when he is Unless this Najāsah affects the color, taste or odor of the water. 12

6. Abū Hurairah (RAA), narrated that the Prophet ﷺ said, “None of you should wash in stagnant water when he is

12. This Hadith is considered weak by most Hadith scholars.
Junub (a state of major ritual impurity due to coitus). Reported by Imám Muslim.

7. In another narration by al-Bukhári (of the previous Hadith): The Prophet ﷺ said, “None of you should urinate into stagnant (water that is not flowing), then wash in the same water.”

8. In another narration by Imám Muslim and Abú Dáwûd (of the same Hadith) the Prophet ﷺ said, “And should not wash in it because of being in a state of Janábah (major impurity due to sexual relations).

9. A man who accompanied the Prophet ﷺ narrated, “The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ forbade that a woman should wash with the water left over by the man or that the man should wash with the water left over by the woman; and they should use the water (scoop it from the same vessel) together (i.e. at the same time).” Reported by Abú-Dáwûd and an-Nasâ‘î with a sound chain of narrators.

11. The authors of the Sunan transmitted that one of the wives of the Prophet washed from a bowl, and when the Prophet came to wash from it (perform ablution or ghusl) she said, “I was junub (sexually impure).” He replied: “Water does not become impure.” At-Tirmidhi and Ibn Khuzaimah graded it as Sahih.

12. Abu Hurairah (RAA), narrated that the Prophet said, “If a dog laps the water from the utensil of anyone, purify it...”

14. The authors of the Sunan are: at-Tirmidhi, Abû-Dawûd, an-Nasâ’i, and Ibn-Majah. (Trans.)

15. Imam ad-Darqûtî reported her to be Maimûnah (RAA).

16. Most scholars of Fiqh, are of the opinion that it is permissible for the men to use the water left over by a woman and vice versa whether for wudu’ (ablution) or ghusl, as both al-Bukhârî and Muslim reported on the authority of ‘A’ishah: “I used to wash with the Prophet from the same bowl,” and also for the Hadîth reported above (no. 11). This is also supported by the Hadîth reported by Muslim that the Prophet used to wash with the water left over by Maimûnah (no. 10). As for Hadîth no. 9 forbidding this act, the scholars said that it is not as strong as the other Ahâdîth, and even if they are equal in authenticity, it does not really indicate a strict prohibition. Imam Khattâbî said that what is meant is forbidding men from using the water that she already used and not what is left over (i.e. clean), and some said that it is only preferable not to use what is left over and not actually prohibited, and Allah knows best. (Trans.)
(the vessel) by washing it seven times, using earth\(^{17}\) for the first washing”. Reported by Muslim, with the addition: “He must spill it\(^{18}\)” Imām at-Tirmidhi also related it with the addition: “The first or the last (washing).”

18. i.e. the water in the vessel.

15. Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Two types of dead animals and two types of blood have been made lawful for us. 23. Narrated Maimūnah (RAA): The Prophet ṣṣa passed by a dead sheep being dragged along by (some people). Thereupon he said to them, “Why didn’t you make use of its skin?” They told him, “It is a dead animal (i.e. had died a natural death, without being slaughtered).” He said to them ṣṣa, “Water and the leaves of mimosa flava purify it.” Related by Abū Dawūd and an-Nasa’ī.

Muslim reported it with the words: “and he wiped his head with water other than that left over after washing his hands (i.e. new water).”

34 A measure of approximately 2/3 of a kilo.
35 It is permissible to wash the ears with the water used for the head, or to use new water for them. This is deduced from all the relevant Ṣaḥiḥ, which were reported concerning this issue.
49. Narrated Abū Hurairah (RAA): The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “My nation will come on the Day of Resurrection with bright streaks of light on their foreheads, arms and legs due to the traces of ablution. So, if any of you can lengthen his streaks of light, he should do so.” Related by al-Bukhārī and Muslim and the wording is Muslim’s.

56. At-Tirmidhî reported a similar narration on the authority of Sa‘îd Ibn Zaid, and Abû Sa‘îd, but Ahmad said that it is not authentic.

57. Narrated Talhah bin Muşrif through his father, on the authority of his grandfather37 (RAA): "I saw the Messenger of Allah distinguish between rinsing his mouth and sniffing water up his nose (i.e. doing one after the other).” Related by Abū Dawūd with a weak chain of narrators.

58. Narrated ‘Alî (RAA): regarding the ablution of the Prophet ﷺ, “He rinsed his mouth and sniffed water up his nostrils and blew it out three times, rinsing his mouth and clearing the nose with the very same palm by which he had taken water.” Related by Abū Dawūd and an-Nasa’î.

59. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin Zaid (RAA): regarding ablution, “Then he inserted his hand (into the bowl), rinsed his mouth and sniffed water up his nostrils using one handful of water, doing this three times.” Agreed upon.

Reported by Muslim and at-Tirmidhi.

Chapter V: Wiping over the Socks (Khuff)

63. Al-Mughirah bin Shu'bah (RAA) said: "I was with the Prophet ﷺ (during an expedition). He started to perform ablution and I was about to remove his socks (the khuff), when he said,

38. One Sā' = 4 Mudds, i.e. approximately 3 kg.
39. The "Khuff" is leather foot-wear, which covers the ankles. They used to walk in it, with nothing worn on top of it. They also used to pray in this khuff after rubbing it in the earth (as will be mentioned in the chapter about prayer).
“Leave them, for I put them on while I was in a state of purity,” and he wiped over them.” Agreed upon.

64. The four Imāms, excluding an-Nasā’ī, reported on the authority of al-Mughirah bin Shu‘bah (RAA), that the Prophet ﷺ wiped over the top and the bottom of his socks. There is a weakness in this chain of narrators.

65. ‘Alī (RAA) observed, “If religion was based on opinion, the bottom of the socks would take preference for being wiped to the top of the socks (khuff), but I saw Allah’s Messenger ﷺ wiping over the top of his socks.” Related by Abū Dawūd with a good (Hasan) chain of narrators.

66. Narrated Safwān bin ‘Assāl: ‘The Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to command us, when we were travelling, not to take off our socks for three days and nights. 42- Al-Bukhârî said, “There is nothing more authentic than this Hadîth, concerning the duration of wiping over the khuff.”

43- Hadîth Mawqûf is that which the companion does not connect to the Prophet ﷺ, so the narration is restricted to the companion alone.

he so wishes, except in the case of (Janâbah).” Related by ad-Dârquqî and al-Hâkim graded it as Sahîh.

70. 71. Narrated Abû bin Imârah (RAA): that he asked Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ, ‘O Messenger of Allâh, may we wipe over our socks (khuff)?’ He replied, “Yes.” He asked, ‘For one day?’ He replied ﷺ, “Yes.” He again asked, ‘For two days?’ He replied, ‘Yes.’ He again asked, ‘For three days?’ He replied, “Yes and as long as you wish.” Abû Dawûd narrated it saying that it is not a strong Hadîth.

Chapter VI: Nullification of Ablution

72. Narrated Anas Ibn Malik (RAA): ‘The companions of the Prophet in his lifetime, used to wait for the Ishâ (night) prayer until their heads began to nod (from drowsiness). They would then pray without performing ablution. Related by Abû Dawûd. Ad-Dârquṭnî authenticated it and its original narration is found in Sahîh Muslim.

73. Narrated 'Â'ishah (RAA): Fâtimah bint Abî Hubaish came to the Messenger of Allah and said, “I am a woman who has a prolonged flow of blood (Istihâdâh), and I am never purified from this blood, shall I abandon prayer?” He replied, “No, that is only a vein and not menstrual blood. If it is your menstruation, then leave the prayer, and if it is other than that then wash yourself from the blood, and pray.” Agreed upon.

45- I.e. They would not repent ablution, due to dozing off, as they were firmly seated on the floor.

46- The narration of Muslim is, “(The people) stood up for the ‘Ishâ,’ when a man came saying: I am in need of something. The Prophet started to speak with him privately, in a low voice till people dozed off, or some of them (dozed off), and then they got up for prayer.” In the narration of al-Baihaqî, “They had to be woken up for prayer, as they had slept, to the extent that one could hear some of them snoring.” In the narration of at-Tirmidhî, “I saw the companions of the Prophet sleeping to the extent that one could hear some of them snoring. But they would stand for prayer without a new ablution.”

47- I.e. The blood never stops flowing.

48- In another narration by Abû Dawûd, an-Nasâ’î and Ibn Hibbân, the Prophet said to her, “If it is the blood of menstruation it will be dark (almost black) and recognizable (by women). If it is that then leave the prayer. If it is other than that, then make ablution and pray, for it is only due to a vein.”
74. In another narration by al-Bukhārī, the Prophet ﷺ said to her, “Make ablution for every prayer.”

75. 'Ali bin Abī Tālib (RAA) said: ‘I used to pass madhī⁴⁹, so I asked al-Miqdād to ask the Prophet ﷺ about it. He asked him, then he replied, “One must perform ablution (due to its excretion).” Related by al-Bukhārī and Muslim and the wordings are al-Bukhari’s.

76. Narrated 'A'ishah (RAA): “The Messenger of Allāh kissed one of his wives, and then went out to prayer without performing ablution.” Ahmad related it, but al-Bukhārī reported it to be a weak Hadīth.

77. Narrated Abū Hurairah (RAA): Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If one of you felt some disturbance in his stomach and was not certain if he had released any wind or not, he should not leave the mosque unless he hears a sound or smells something.” Related by Muslim.

⁴⁹ - A white sticky fluid that flows from the sexual organs because of thinking about sexual intercourse or foreplay, etc.
78. Narrated Talq bin 'Ali (RAA): "A man said, 'I touched my penis,' or the narrator said: 'If a man touches his penis during the prayer, does he have to perform ablation (in this case).']?" The Prophet ﷺ said, "No, for it is just a part of you." Reported by the five Imâms and Ibn Hibbân who graded it as Sahîh.

79. Busrah bint Safwân (RAA) said: The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said,"Whoever touches his penis must perform ablution." Related by the five Imâms and was it declared authentic by at-Tirmidhi and Ibn Hibbân. Al-Bukhârî said: It is the most authentic tradition on this topic.

The consensus of the scholars is that touching the private parts without a barrier (clothes etc.) requires performing ablation. The Hanafi school is of the opinion that it does not require ablation according to the Hadîth of Talq. But the Hadîth of Busrah is stronger as it was authenticated by many Imâms and was narrated through different chains of narrators. So the opinion of the majority of scholars is the preferred one, as they said that the Hadîth of Busrah was narrated later than the first one in Madînah and is known by a greater number of the Companions. The touching which nullifies ablution is that which is done with the palm of the hand or with the fingers, not that which is done with a nail, the back of a hand or an arm.

50. Ahmad, Abû Dawûd, at-Tirmidhi, an-Nasâî and Ibn Mâjah.

80. Narrated 'A'ishah (RAA): Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "If anyone suffers from vomiting, nose bleeding, regurgitation or madhī (during the prayer) he must perform ablution, then resume his prayer, (provided) that he did not talk (in the interval between leaving the prayer and resuming it.)" Related by Ibn Mājah, but Ahmad and others declared it to be a weak Hadith.52

81. Narrated Jābir bin Saumrah (RAA): "A man asked the Prophet ﷺ, 'Should we perform ablution after eating mutton?' He said, 'If you wish (make ablution).' The man then asked 'Should we make ablution after eating camel meat?' He said, 'Yes.' Related by Muslim.

82. Narrated Abü Hurairah (RAA): The Prophet ﷺ said, "Anyone who washed a dead person (made ghusl for him) must bathe himself, and he who carries him must perform ablution." Related by Ahmad, an-Nasā'ī and at-Tirmidhī, but 52 This Hadith is not actually connected to the Prophet ﷺ, but was narrated on the authority of Ibn Juraij on the authority of his father (one of the Successors 'Tābi'i'). Therefore the scholars said that it is Hadith nursal (that in which the link between the Successor (Tābi'i) and the Prophet ﷺ is missing), and that it is a mistake to link the chain to 'A'ishah (RAA) as she did not narrate it. The scholars are of the opinion that in this case he should re-perform his Wādū' and repeat his prayer.

Ahmad said that none of the traditions related in this topic are authentic.⁵³

83. Narrated ʿAbdullāh bin Abū Bakr (RAA): In the letter which was written by Allāh’s Messenger to ʿAmro bin Ḥazm, “None should touch the Qur’ān except one who is (ritually) pure (i.e. Ṭāhir).” Narrated by Mālik as a Hadith mursal.

84. Narrated ʿA’ishah (RAA): Allāh’s Messenger used to mention Allāh’s Name and (make dhikr) under all circumstances. Related by Muslim.

85. Narrated Anas Ibn Mālik (RAA): Allāh’s Messenger had himself cupped and then prayed without (renewing) his ablution. Narrated by ad-Dārquṭnī, who declared it to be weak.

86. Narrated Mu’āwiya: Allāh’s Messenger said, “The eye is the leather strap of the anus, and when the eyes sleep the leather strap is loosened.” Related by Ahmad and at-Tabarānī.

87. He added (i.e. at-Tabarānī), “So whoever sleeps should perform ablution.” This addition was declared weak by Abū Dawūd on the authority of ʿAli, but without his saying, “The leather strap is loosened.” The chain of narrators for both this Hadith and the previous one, is weak.

88. Abū Dawūd transmitted on the authority of Ibn ʿAbbās (RAA): “Ablution is obligatory for the one who sleeps lying down.” This Hadith also has a weak chain of narrators.

89. Narrated Ibn ʿAbbās (RAA): Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The devil comes to one of you while he is praying, and blows in his posterior, so he doubts that he has broken his ablution (due to releasing wind) but actually he has not. So if anyone experiences this feeling, he should not leave his prayer unless he hears a sound or smells something.” Related by al-Bazzār.

90. The previous Hadith is supported by a narration originally mentioned in al-Bukhārī and Muslim on the authority of ʿAbdullāh Ibn Zaid.⁵⁴

⁵⁴ Narrated ʿAbdūd Ibn Tamīm: “My uncle (ʿAbdullāh Ibn Zaid) asked Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ about a person who imagined that he had passed
91. Muslim transmitted something to the same effect on the authority of Abū Hurairah (Hadith no. 77).

92. Al-Ḥākim transmitted on the authority of Abū Sa‘īd al-Khudri (RAA): that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "If the devil whispered to any one of you and said: You have broken your ablution (you have passed wind), you must say: You told a lie.” Ibn Hibbān related the Hadith with the wordings, “He must say to himself: This is a lie.”

Chapter VII: Etiquettes of Relieving oneself
(going to the bathroom)

93. Narrated Anas Ibn Mālik (RAA): “When Allah’s Messenger ﷺ went to the privy, he used to take off his ring.55” Reported by the four Imāms, but it has a defect (in its chain of narrators).56 wind during the prayer. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ replied: “He should not leave his prayer unless he hears a sound or smells something.”

55- The ring was engraved with Muhammad Rasūl-ullāh (Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah), so he used to remove it as it is not proper to carry something that has Allah’s name upon it while using to the bathroom.

56- It was narrated by Hammām Ibn Juraij on the authority of Az-Zuhārī on the authority of Anas, and its chain of narrators is trustworthy, but Ibn Juraij did not actually hear this Hadith from az-Zuhari, but heard it from Zaid bin Sa’īd who heard it from az-Zuhari.
94. Narrated Anas Ibn Mâlik (RAA): “Whenever Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ entered the privy, he used to say, “O Allâh, I seek refuge in You from male and female devils.” Related by the seven Imâms.57

95. Narrated Anas Ibn Mâlik (RAA): “Whenever Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ entered the privy, I along with another boy used to bring him a tumbler full of water and a spear-headed stick. He would cleanse himself with water.” Agreed upon.

96. Narrated al-Mughîrah Ibn Shu’bah (RAA): The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said to me, “Take the tumbler of water away.” He went off where I could not see him, and he would then relieve himself.” Agreed upon.

97. Narrated Abû Hurairah (RAA): The Prophet ﷺ said, “Beware of the two acts which cause others to curse: relieving yourself in the people’s walkways or in their shade.” Related by Muslim.

100. Al-Tabarâni also narrated on the authority of Ibn 'Umar (with a weak chain of narrators), the prohibition of relieving oneself under fruit trees and beside the bank of a flowing river.

101. Narrated Jâbir (RAA): The Messenger of Allâh said, "When two men go to relieve themselves (in the same place) everyone should hide himself from his companion and not converse together, for Allâh detests this." Related by Ahmad, Ibn as-Sakan and Ibn al-Qâtîn authenticated it, but it has a defect in its chain of narrators.

102. Narrated Abû Qatâdah (RAA): Allâh’s Messenger said,
"None of you should touch his penis with his right hand when passing urine, or wipe himself with his right hand after relieving himself, and he must not breathe into the vessel (while drinking)." Related by al-Bukhārī and Muslim, and the wording is Muslim's.

103. Narrated Salmān (RAA): "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ forbade us from facing the Qiblah (direction of the prayer towards the Ka'bah) while relieving ourselves or passing urine, from cleaning ourselves with our right hand, and from cleaning ourselves with less than three stones. We also should not use an impure substance (such as dung) or bones to clean ourselves." Related by Muslim.

104. The seven Imāms reported on the authority of Abū Aiyūb al-Ansārī (RAA): "When one of you relieves himself, he should neither face the Qiblah nor turn his back on it, but turn towards the East or the West."

forgiveness." Related by the five Imams. Abū Ḥātim and al-Ḥākim graded it as Sahīh.

107. Narrated Ibn Mas'ūd: The Prophet ﷺ went to relieve himself and commanded me to bring three stones; I found two stones but could not find a third, so I brought a piece of dried dung. He took the stones and threw away the dung, and said, "This is Rijs (anything which is impure, filthy, abominable)." Related by al-Bukhārī. Ahmad and ad-Dārqaṭnī added, "Bring me another one (instead of the dung)."

108. Narrated Abū Hurairah (RAA): The Prophet ﷺ prohibited that one cleans his private parts with bones or dung and said, "Neither of them purify." Related by ad-Dārqaṭnī who graded it as Sahīh.

109. Narrated Abū Hurairah (RAA): The Prophet ﷺ said, "Keep yourselves clean from (any traces) of urine, for it is the cause of most of the punishment of the grave." Related by ad-Dārqaṭnī.

110. Al-Ḥākim transmitted with a sound chain of narrators: "Most of the punishment of the grave is because of urine."
111. Narrated Surâqah bin Mâlik (RAA): Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ taught us, when in the privy, to sit on the left (foot while squatting) while propping up the right one.” Related by al-Baihaqî with a weak chain of narrators.

112. Narrated Isâ bin Yazdâd on the authority of his father (RAA): The Prophet ﷺ said, “When any of you passes urine, he must pull his penis three times.” Related by Ibn Mâjah with a weak chain of narrators.

Muslim added (to the above narration), "Even if he does not emit fluid."

Narrated Anas Ibn Mâlik (RAA): Allâh's Messenger ﷺ said – concerning a woman who has a wet dream as the man has, "She must perform Ghusl." Agreed upon.

58. The Prophet ﷺ said this as an answer to Umm Sulaim, who asked, 'Does a woman have to perform ghusl if she has a wet dream?' He said ﷺ, 'Yes, if she sees the liquid (sexual fluid)."

126. Al-Hākim added (to the above narration), “For it makes the return more vivacious.”

60. It is a recommended act in this case.
The four Imams reported on the authority of 'Aishah (RAA): who said, "Allah's Messenger used to sleep while he is junub without touching water." This Hadith has a defect.

Narrated 'Aishah (RAA): 'When the Messenger of Allâh performed Ghusl after sexual intercourse, he first washed his hands, then he poured water over his left hand with his right hand and washed his private parts. He would then perform ablution for prayer, take some water and wash his hair thoroughly down to the roots then he poured water over his head three times and then poured water over the rest of his body, then washed his feet." Agreed upon, and the wording is Muslim's.

Al-Bukhârî and Muslim transmitted on the authority of Maimûnah (RAA): 'Then he poured water over his private parts and washed it with his left hand, then rubbed his hand on the ground.'

In another narration, she said, 'And he wiped it with earth.' This version concludes, 'I handed him a piece of cloth, but he did not take it....' 'He started shaking the water off with his hand.'
131. Narrated Umm Salamah (RAA): 'I said, 'O Messenger of Allâh, I am a woman who keeps her hair closely plaited. Do I have to undo them for Ghusl after sexual intercourse?' 56 said, "There is Janâbah (trace of sexual impurity) under every hair, so wash your hair and cleanse the skin." Abû Dawûd and at-Tirmidhi transmitted it but they declared it to be weak.

135. Ahmad transmitted a similar narration to the above, on the authority of 'A'ishah (RAA), but this version has an unknown transmitter.

Narrated Jâbir (RAA): The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, "I have been given five things, which were not given to any one else before me: I have been made victorious due to the fear (of my enemy), for a distance of one month's journey; the earth has been made for me (and for my followers) a place for prayer and something with which to perform Tayammum (to purify oneself for prayer). Therefore anyone of my followers can pray (anywhere) and at any time that the prayer is due."

137. In another narration by Hudhaifah (RAA): "And the soil of the earth had been made for us as a means with which to 61- The rest of the Hadith is, "The war booty has been made Halâl (lawful) for me, and this was not lawful for anyone else before me; I have been give the right of intercession (on the day of Judgment); and every Prophet used to only be sent to his nation, but I have been sent to all mankind." Agreed upon.

139. Narrated ‘Ammār bin Yāsir (RAA): The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sent me on some errands and I became junub (sexually impure), and could not find water. I rolled myself in the dirt just as an animal does. I then came to the Prophet ﷺ and mentioned that to him, He said, “This would have been enough for you,” and he struck the earth with his hands once, then he wiped the right hand with the left one, the outside of the palms of his hands and his face. “Agreed upon, and the wording is Muslim’s.”

140. In a version by al-Bukhārī ‘Ammār said, ‘He ﷺ struck the earth with the palms of his hands, blew in them and wiped his face and hands with them.’

141. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar (RAA): Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Tayammum is two strikes: one for the face and the other for the hands up to the elbows.” Related by ad-Dāraquṭnī.

142. Narrated Abū Hurairah (RAA): Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The soil is a purifier for a Muslim, even if he does not find water for ten years, but if he finds water, he must fear Allāh and let it touch his skin.”62

143. Narrated Abū Dharr (RAA): a similar Hadith transmitted by at-Tirmidhī.

144. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd al-Khudrī (RAA): ‘Two men went out on a journey, and when it was time for prayer, and having no water with them, they performed tayammum and prayed. Then they found some water during the time of the same prayer. One of them repeated his prayer with ablution and the other did not. When they saw the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, they asked him about the proper procedure in such a case. He said to the one who did not repeat his prayer, ‘You have acted according to the Sunnah and your prayer is sufficient for you.’ He said to the other, ‘You will get a double reward.’ Related by Abū Dawūd and an-Nasā’ī.

145. Narrated Ibn ʿAbbās (RAA): concerning the verse, “And if you are ill or on a journey,” (an-Nisdā: 43- he said, ‘If a man has a wound, which he suffered during Jihād (in the cause of Allāh) or ulcers, then he became junub (sexually impure) and is afraid that if he bathes he would die; he may perform ablution with clean earth (Tayammum). Related by ad-Dāraquṭnī. And al-Bazzār (who traced it back to the Prophet ﷺ). Ibn Khuzaimah and al-Ḥākim graded it as Sahih.

146. Narrated ʿAlī (RAA): ‘When one of my forearms was fractured I consulted Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ, so he commanded me to wipe over the bandages or cast.’ Related by Ibn Mājah with a very weak chain of narrators.

tayammum and wrap it with something and wipe over the wrapping and wash the rest of his body.” Related by Abū Dawūd, but there is a weakness in its chain of narrators.

148. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās (RAA): ‘It is from the Sunnah of the Prophet ﷺ for the man to pray only one prayer with each tayammum, and then perform tayammum for the next prayer.’ Related by ad-Dāraquṭnī but with a very weak chain of narrators.

باب الخِيشَص

Chapter X: Menstruation

149. Narrated ‘Ā’ishah (RAA): Fatmah bint Abi Ḥubaish used to have a prolonged flow of blood (Istihādah), so the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “If it is the blood of menstruation it will be dark (almost black) and recognizable (by women). If it is that then leave the prayer. If it is other than that, then make ablution and pray.” Related by Abū Dawūd, an-Nasā’ī and Ibn Hibbān and al-Hākim graded it as Saḥīḥ.
mitted, ‘She should sit in a tub, and if she sees yellowness appearing (on top of the water) she should wash (three times), once for the noon (Dhuhr) and afternoon (Asr) prayer and once for the sunset (Maghrib) and late night (Ishâ) prayer and once for the dawn (Fajr) prayer and she should then perform ablution in between those times.”

151 Narrated Hamnah bint Jahsh, ‘I had a very strong prolonged flow of blood. I went to the Prophet ﷺ to ask him about it. He said to her, “This is a strike from Satan. So observe your menses for six or seven days, and then perform Ghusl until you see that you are clean. Pray for twenty-four or twenty-three nights and days and fast, and that will be sufficient for you. Do that every month as the other women become pure and menstruate. But if you are strong enough to delay the Dhuhr (noon) prayer and hasten the Asr (afternoon) prayer, then make Ghusl when you are purified and pray the Dhuhr and Asr prayers together; to delay the Maghrib (sunset) and hasten the Ishâ’ prayer, and perform Ghusl and combine the Maghrib and the Ishâ’ prayer together. Do so, and then wash at dawn and pray the Fajr. This is how you may pray and fast if you have the ability to do so. And he said, “That is the more preferable way to me.” Related by the five Imams except an-Nasâ’î, and was authenticated by at-Tirmidhi.”
152. Narrated 'A'ishah (RAA): 'Um Habibah bint Jahsh complained to the Prophet about a prolonged flow of blood. He said to her, "Keep away (from prayer) as long as your normal period used to prevent you (from praying), and afterwards she should perform Ghusl (and pray)." (She used to wash for every prayer). Related by Muslim.

153. In another version by al-Bukhari he said, "And perform ablution for every prayer." Abû Dawûd and others transmitted a similar narration.

154. Narrated Umm 'Atiyah (RAA): 'After we were pure, we did not consider the yellow or muddy discharge to be anything (i.e. of the menses blood)." Related by al-Bukhari and Abû Dawûd and the wording is his.

155. Narrated Anas (RAA): 'When a Jewish woman was menstruating, they would not eat with her. The Prophet then said, "Do everything except sexual intercourse." Related by Muslim.
156. Narrated 'A'ishah (RAA): "When I was menstruating, the Prophet ﷺ would order me to wrap myself up (with an Izdr, which is a dress worn below the waist) and would start fondling me." Agreed upon.

157. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas (RAA): that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, concerning the man who has intercourse with his wife during her menses, "He must pay a Dinâr or half a Dinâr in way of charity." Related by the five Imâms, and al-Hâkim authenticated it.

158. Narrated Abû Sa‘îd al-Khudrî (RAA): Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, "Is it not the case that when a woman menstruates she neither prays nor fasts?" Agreed upon, and this is an extract from a long Hadith.

159. Narrated 'A'ishah (RAA): When we reached Sarif, I menstruated. The Prophet ﷺ said, "*You should perform all that a pilgrim would do, except circumambulation until you are..."
pure (i.e. performed Ghusl).” Agreed upon, and this is an extract from a long Hadith.

160. Narrated Mu‘adh Ibn Jabal (RAA): that he asked the Prophet ﷺ, ‘What is lawful for a man with his wife when she is menstruating? He replied, “What is above the waist wrapper.”’ Related by Abû Dawûd and declared it to be a weak Hadith.

161. Narrated Umm Salamah (RAA): ‘During the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ, the post-childbirth woman would refrain (from prayer) for forty days after delivery.’ Related by the five Imâms except an-Nasâ‘i, and the wording is Abû Dawûd’s.

162. In a version by Abû Dawûd, the Prophet ﷺ would not command her to compensate for the prayers missed during her post-childbirth period.
Chapter I: The times of prayer

Narrated ‘Abdullah Ibn ‘Amro (RAA): The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “The time of the Dhuhr prayer is when the sun passes the meridian and a man’s shadow is the same length as his height. It lasts until the time of the ‘Asr (afternoon) prayer. The time of the ‘Asr prayer is until the yellowing of the sun (during its setting). The time of the Maghrib prayer is the duration of the twilight. The time of the ‘Ishā’ prayer is up to the middle of the night, and the time of the Fajr prayer is from the appearance of the dawn until the time of sunrise.” Related by Muslim.

63. This is the chosen time or the preferable time for the ‘Ishā’ prayer, but it is permissible to pray it for the one who missed it until the time of the next prayer, i.e. the Fajr prayer in this case. The evidence for this is the Hadith reported on the authority of Abū Qatādah that the Prophet ﷺ said, “Missing the prayer due to sleep is not an act of negligence, the real act of negligence occurs when one (is awake and) does not pray until the time of the next prayer is due.” Part of a long Hadith related by Muslim.
164. Muslim transmitted on the authority of Buraidah—concerning the time of the 'Asr (afternoon) prayer, 'While the sun was white and clear.'

165. Muslim transmitted on the authority of Abû Mûsâ: concerning the 'Asr (afternoon) prayer, "When the sun was high.'

166. Narrated Abû Barzah (RAA): 'The Messenger of Allâh would use to pray the 'Asr prayer at a time, after which a man could go to his dwelling in the outskirts of Madînah (and arrive) while the sun was still hot and bright. The Prophet liked to delay the 'Ishâ' prayer, and he disliked sleeping before it and talking after it. The Prophet used to leave (the mosque, or turn to those praying behind him) after Fajr prayer, when a man could recognize the person sitting beside him (i.e. because the morning light had broken), and he used to recite between 60 to 100 verses.' Agreed upon.

167. Al-Buhârî and Muslim transmitted on the authority of Jâbir (RAA): 'Sometimes he would hasten the 'Ishâ' and som-times he would delay it. He would hasten the 'Ishā' if he found people gathered (in the mosque), and if he noticed that they were lingering he would delay it. As for the Fajr prayer, the Prophet ﷺ would pray it while it was still dark."

168. Muslim transmitted on the authority of Abū Mūsā: 'The Prophet ﷺ ordered for the Iqāmah (the call for the performance of the prayer) of the Fajr prayer to be pronounced, when the day broke and people could hardly recognize each another.'

169. Narrated Rāfi' bin Khadij (RAA): 'We prayed the Maghrib prayer with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, and one of us would leave (afterwards) and would still be able to see where he had shot his arrow (because there was still light in the sky).

170. Narrated 'A'ishah (RAA): 'One night, Allāh's Messenger ﷺ delayed the 'Ishā' prayer, till a good part of the night had gone (almost one third), then he came out and prayed and said, "This would be the proper time for it, if it was not too much of a hardship on my nation." Related by Muslim.'
171. Narrated Abū Hurairah (RAA): The Prophet ﷺ said, "If the heat becomes extreme, delay the prayer (i.e. Dhuhr) until it becomes cool, as extreme heat is from the fragrance of Hell.” Agreed upon.

172. Narrated Rāfī’ bin Khadij (RAA): The Prophet ﷺ said, "Observe the morning prayer till daybreak (i.e. prolong the recital of Qur’an in prayer, so that you remain in prayer until daybreak), as your reward will be greater.” Related by the five Imams.

173. Narrated Abū Hurairah (RAA): The Prophet ﷺ said, "Whoever catches one rak‘ah of the Fajr prayer before sunrise, he has caught the Fajr prayer, and whoever catches one rak‘ah of the ‘Asr prayer before sunset, he has caught the ‘Asr prayer.” Agreed upon.

174. Muslim transmitted on the authority of ʿA’ishah (RAA): a similar narration where the Prophet ﷺ said, "One prostration” instead of "rak‘ah” and then said, ‘a prostration means a rak‘ah.’
175. Narrated Abū Sa’īd al-Khudrī (RAA): I heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ say, “There is no prayer after the Fajr prayer until the sun rises and there is no prayer after the ‘Asr prayer until the sun sets.” Agreed upon. Muslim reported in his narration, “No prayer is to be performed after the Fajr prayer.”

176. Narrated ‘Uqbah bin ‘Āmir: “There are three times during which the Prophet ﷺ prohibited us from praying or burying our deceased: from sunrise until the sun has risen (a spear’s length above the horizon), when the sun is at its meridian, and when the sun is setting until it has completely set.” Related by Muslim.

177. Ash-Shāfī‘ī transmitted the second case (prohibition of prayer when the sun is at its meridian), in a narration by Abū Hurairah, but through a weak chain of narrators. He added, ‘with the exception of Friday.”

178. Abū Dawūd transmitted a similar narration on the authority of Abū Qatādah.
179. Narrated Jubair bin Mut'im (RAA): The Prophet ﷺ said, "O tribe of 'Abd Manaf, do not prevent anyone from circumambulating this house (the Ka'bah) or from praying therein at any time they wish." Related by the five Imams. At-Tirmidhi and Ibn Hibban graded it as Sahih.

180. Narrated Ibn 'Umar (RAA): The Prophet ﷺ said, "The evening twilight is its redness (on the horizon)." Related by ad-Darqutni and declared authentic by Ibn Khuzaimah.

181. Narrated Ibn 'Abbás (RAA): The Prophet ﷺ said, "The dawn time, is in reality, two dawns (i.e. two times), one in which eating is Harām (unlawful)67 and prayer is permissible68, and the other is when prayer (i.e. the Fajr prayer) is Harām (prohibited) and eating is permissible." Related by Ibn Khuzaimah and al-Hākim and graded it as Sahih.

67- I.e. for the person intending to fast, that he should stop eating.
68- I.e. The time for praying Fajr is due.
182. Al-Hākim transmitted a similar narration on the authority of Jābir, and added that in which eating is prohibited, 'It (the streaks of light of the true dawn) widely spreads on the horizon,' and the other, 'It is like the wolf's tail.'

183. Narrated Ibn Mas'ūd (RAA): The Prophet Ṣallāl lā ḥādīth transmitted on the authority of Ibn Mas'ūd - 'The best of deeds is to offer prayers at the beginning of their appointed times.' Related by at-Tirmidhī and al-Hākim, who authenticated it.

184. Narrated Abū Mahdīhurah (RAA): The Prophet Ṣallāl lā ḥādīth said, "Praying at the earliest time for prayer (after the Adhān) is the act, which pleases Allāh, if you pray at the middle time you will be granted Allāh's mercy, and if you pray at the latest time (just before the next prayer) Allāh will grant you His forgiveness." Related by ad-Dārquqī with an extremely weak chain of narrators.

185. At-Tirmidhī transmitted on the authority of Ibn 'Umar a similar narration, but without the middle time, and it is also a very weak Hadith.

186. Narrated Ibn `Umar (RAA): The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, ‘No prayer is to be said after (the beginning of) FaJR (time), except two prostrations (rak’āt).’ Related by the five Imāms. In the narration of `Abdur-Razzāq, “*No prayer is to be said after the true dawn has begun, except the two rak’āt of al-Fajr prayer.”

187. Ad-Dārquqīnī transmitted a similar narration on the authority of `Amro bin al-Âg (RAA).

188. Narrated Umm Salamah (RAA): ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ prayed the Asr prayer, and then came into my house, and prayed two rak’āt. Thereupon I asked him (about what he had just prayed), and he replied, “I was busy (doing something) to pray the two rak’āt after Dhuhr (until it was Asr time) so I prayed them now.” Then I asked him, ‘Shall we observe them if we missed them (at their due time)?’ He replied, ‘No.’ Related by Ahmad.

70- As they are both narrated by Ya`qūb bin al-Walid al-Madani, Imām Ahmad reported him to be one of the big liars in Hadith, and Ibn Hibbān said that he used to fabricate Hadith.

71- The two rak’āh here refer to voluntary prayer to be prayed at dawn time, i.e. before the Fajr prayer.
189. Abū Dawūd transmitted on the authority of 'Ā'ishah (RAA) a narration to the same effect.

Chapter II: The Call to Prayer (Adhān)

190. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin Zaid bin 'Abd Rabbih, 'While I was sleeping, a man came to me and said, 'Say Allāhu Akbar! Allāhu Akbar! (Allāh is the Greatest),' and he mentioned the wording of the call to prayer, repeating the Takbīr four times without Tarjī (repeating the rest of the phrases of the Adhān twice), and the Iqāmah once, except for the phrase, qad Qāmatussalāh (which is said twice). When the morning came, I went to the Messenger of Allāh (to tell him what I had seen). He said, "Your dream is true..." Related by Ahmad and Abū Dawūd, At-Tirmidhī and Abū Khuzaimah authenticated it.

72- i.e. saying each phrase of the Adhān once, apart from the Takbīr which is said twice.
73- The time for performing the prayer has arrived.
74- When the Prophet迁 emigrated to Madīnah and built his mosque, the number of Muslims increased, and they were no longer afraid to assemble to perform prayers in public. The Prophet迁 consulted his Companions about the best way to announce the prayer. Some mentioned raising a banner that everybody could see, others suggested lighting a fire, but the Prophet迁 rejected the idea as this act is limited to the Magians who worshipped fire. Some also suggested using a bell or a trumpet like the Christians and the Jews, but this was also rejected by the Prophet迁 as they would be imitating them. But the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ
191. Ahmad added to the call to prayer (Adhān), what Bilāl used to say in the Fajr prayer, “Prayer is better than sleep.”

192. Ibn Khuzaimah transmitted on the authority of Anas (RAA): It is part of the Sunnah that when the one who calls to prayer says in the Fajr prayer, ‘Hayya ‘alal-Falah’ (come to success), he must then say, ‘Prayer is better than sleep.’

193. Narrated ‘Abū Mahdhūrah (RAA): that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ taught him the Adhān, and he mentioned Tarjī’ (repeating the rest of the phrases of the Adhān twice) in the Adhān. Rel ated by Muslim, but he mentioned the Takbir “Allâh is the Greatest,” twice only at its beginning, while the five Imâms related the Hadith but mentioned that the Takbir is said four times at the beginning.

194. Narrated Anas (RAA): ‘Bilâl was ordered to repeat the phrases of the call to prayer (Adhân) twice, and the phrases of the Iqâmah once, except for the phrase ‘qad Qâmatussalâh’ (the time for performing the prayer has come). Agreed upon.

باب صفة الصلاة
279. Narrated Abū Hurairah (RAA): The Prophet said, “When you get up for prayer, perform ablution properly and then face the Qiblah and say Takbir (Allâhu Akbar) and then recite whatever you can from the (verses of the) Qur'ân, and then bow until you repose therein. After that come up again until you are standing upright, and then prostrate until you repose therein, (in your prostration), then raise your head and sit and repose (remain motionless for a while), then prostrate (again) and repose in your prostration. Do that in all of your prayers.” Related by the seven Imâms, and the wording is Al-Bukhâri’s. Ibn Mâjah transmitted the following through the chain of narrators of Muslim, “and then come up again (from rukû’) until you repose in your standing.”

281. Ahmad has in one of his narrations, “Straighten your back until the bones in your spine return to their places (the spine must be upright).”

284. In the narration of Ibn Hibbān, “Then (recite) as much as you wish.”

103- Basically, prayer is not valid unless the Fātīḥah is read (in Arabic) in each Rak'ah, which is the consensus of the Scholars. But if the person finds difficulty in reciting it in Arabic or is dumb or illiterate, or any other acceptable excuse, then he should try to say any other verse from the Qur’ān, or say it behind someone who can recite. If he still can’t, then it is permissible for him to say Tasbīh, Takbīr and Tahlīl.
285. Narrated Abū Humaid as-Sā`idi, 'I saw the Messenger of Allāh (in his prayer), when he says the opening Takbīr (of the prayer) he would raise his hands up to his shoulder level. When he bows for ṫukūṭ he would place his hands on both knees and his back would be bent straight. When he lifted his head (from ṫukūṭ) he would straighten his back until all the vertebrate took their normal positions. When he prostrated, he placed both his hands on the ground and his fingers would neither spread nor clasped together, while his toes would be directed toward the Qiblah. When he sat in the second ṭakāḥ (after two ṭakāḥāt) he sat on his left foot and kept his right foot upright. When he sat in the last ṭakāḥ, he would put his left foot (over the right) and put his right foot upright (over the left) and sit upon his posterior, neither inclining to the right nor to the left.” Related by al-Bukhārī.

287. Narrated Abū Hurairah (RAA): 'When the Prophet \textsuperscript{1} made his opening Takbīr, he would be quiet for a little while before he started his recitation (of the Qur'ān). I asked him, (about what he says between Takbīr and recitation).' He said, "I say: Oh Allāh, make the distance between me and my sins as far as Verily my prayers, my sacrifice, my life and my death, are dedicated for the sake of Allāh, the Lord of the worlds, Who has no partner. Thus I have been commanded and I am among those who have submitted (the Muslims)."

\textsuperscript{110} The rest of the supplication says, "Oh Allāh, You are the Sovereign, there is none worthy of worship but You. You are my Lord and I am Your slave. I have done injustice to myself and I admit my sin. Forgive all of my sins, surely no one can forgive sins but You. Guide me to the most perfect of morals (Akhlaqī), for none guides to its perfection but You. Divert the worst of it (evil morals) away from me, as no one can divert the worst of it but You. I am here at Your beck and call (present and ready to obey all Your commands). All good is in Your Hands, and evil is not attributed to You. I am (created) by You, and I am (returning back) unto You. You are the Most Blessed, the Most Exalted. I seek Your forgiveness and unto You I repent." Related by Muslim, Ahmad, at-Tirmidhi and others.
You have made the distance between the East from the West. Oh Allâh, purify me from my sins as a white garment is cleansed of dirt. Oh Allâh, wash off my sins with snow, rain and hail.” Agreed upon.

288. Narrated ‘Umar (RAA): that he used to say ﷺ, “Glory be to You Oh Allâh and praise. Blessed is Your Name and Exalted is Your majesty. There is none worthy of worship but You.” Related by Muslim with a disconnected chain of narrators. But ad-Dârquţnî related it and connected it to ‘Umar (RAA).

289. The five Imâms reported on the authority of Abû Sa’îd al-Khudrî that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, used to say after the opening Takbîr, “I seek refuge in Allâh from Satan. From his prickling (whispering), spittle and puffing.”

290. Narrated ‘A’îshah (RAA): Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ used to start the prayer with Takbîr and the recitation of ‘All praise be to Allah, the Lord of the Worlds, (Alhamdu lillahi rabbil ‘Alamin). When he bowed (for ruku’) his head would be neither risen nor lowered, but would be between those two positions. When he rose his head from ruku’, he would not prostrate until he stood up with his back in an erect position. When he lifted his head from prostration, he sat up (for a moment) before prostrating a second time. At the end of each two rak‘at, he would recite the Tahiyah (Tashahhud)\(^{111}\) and he used to sit on his left foot with his right foot upright. He prohibited us from sitting in the way of the devil\(^{112}\), or that a man stretches his forearms (on the ground in his prostration) like a wild beast. He would then complete his prayer with the Taslim (saying to the right and to the left ‘Peace be upon you and the Mercy of Allah.’ Related by Muslim.

\(^{111}\) Tashahhud means the Testimony of faith (see Hadith no. 334).

\(^{112}\) This way of sitting is called Iq’ä. Imâm as-Sân`înî in ‘Subul as-Salaâm, mentioned two types of Iq’ä: one in which one sits with the buttocks on the heels, and with the top of the toes and knees on the ground (as mentioned above), and this was accepted by some scholars. The second type is where one sits with his buttocks on the ground, with his palms down and his knees drawn up and thighs erect (like the sitting of a dog) which is totally prohibited.
293. Muslim reported on the authority of Malik bin al-Huwairith, a narration similar to that of Ibn ‘Umar, but he said, “...he raised his hands until they (the fingertips) were level with the tops of his ears (i.e. when saying Takbir).

294. Narrated Wā’il bin Hujr: “I prayed with the Prophet ﷺ and he placed his right hand over his left hand (and placed them) on his chest.” Related by Ibn Khuzaimah.

295. Narrated ‘Ubadah bin as-Samit: ‘The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, ‘No prayer (is accepted) for one who does not recite the Fâtihah (the opening chapter of the Qur’ân).’” Agreed upon.

296. In a version by Ibn Hibbân and ad-Dârquţnî, “A prayer in which the Fâtihah was not recited, is not valid.”

297. In another narration by ‘Ubâdah Ibn As-Samit, “Maybe you recite (Qur’ân) behind your Imâm (when you are praying Jamâ’ah)? We said, ‘Yes.’ The Messenger of Allâh then said, “Read only the Fâtihah, as the prayer of the one who does not read it, is not valid.”

299. Anas added in the narration reported by Muslim, ‘but I never heard any of them reciting Bismillahi -ir-Rahman -ir-Rahim (In the name of Allâh, the Most Benificient, the Most Merciful) at the beginning of recitation or at its end.’114

300. Anas also narrated, ‘They would not recite reciting ‘Bismillahi -ir-Rahman -ir-Rahim’ (In the name of Allâh, the Most Benificient, the Most the Merciful) loudly.’ Related by Ahmad, an-Nasâ’î and Ibn Khuzaimah.

301. In another version by Ibn Khuzaimah, Anas said, ‘They used to recite it silently.’ This explains the negation in the version of Muslim ‘but I never heard any of them reciting Bismillahi -ir-Rahman -ir-Rahim …..’ Hadith no. 299.

113- He means they do not say the Basmalah aloud, but read it silently before they read the Fâtihah, as is mentioned in the following Ahâdîth (no. 300, 301).

114- He may be referring to the end of the Fâtihah, as they would start reading other sûras or verses from the Qur‘ân, but again they would not recite the Basmalah aloud.
302. Narrated Nu‘aim al-Mujmir, ‘I prayed behind Abū Hurairah and he recited ‘Bismillahi –ir-Rahman –ir-Rahim,’ and then he recited the Fātiḥah until he recited, ‘Nor of those who went astray,’(i.e. the last words of al-Fātiḥah) then he said, ‘Amin’. Whenever he prostrated or got up from his sitting (after the two prostrations), he would say ‘Allāhu Akbar’ When he concluded his prayer by saying the Taslim (saying to the right and to the left ‘Peace be upon you and the Mercy of Allāh’), he would say (to us), ‘By the One in Whose Hand is my soul, my prayer is the most similar to that of the Prophet ﷺ among all of you.” Related by An-Nasā’ī and Ibn Khuzaimah.

303. Narrated Abū Hurairah (RAA): ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “When you recite al-Fātiḥah recite ‘Bismillahi –ir-Rahman –ir-Rahim’ as it is one of its verses.” Related by ad-Dāraquṭnī, and said that it is only traced back to a Companion and not to the Prophet ﷺ.

304. Narrated Abū Hurairah (RAA): ‘Whenever The Messen-

305. Abû Dawûd and At-Tirmidhî related a similar Hadîth on the authority of Wâ’il Ibn Hujr.

306. Narrated ʿAbdullâh bin Abî Awfâ (RAA): ‘A man came to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ and said, ‘I cannot memorise anything from the Qur’an, so teach me something which is sufficient for me (to say in prayer). The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said to him, “say, ‘Subhanallâh, wâ-hamdu lillâh, wa-lâ ilâh ʾilla Allâh, wâllâhu akbar, wa-lâ hawala wa-lâ Quwata ʾilla billâh-ʾAliyy-ʾil-Adheem, (Glory be to Allâh, and Praise be to Allâh! There is none worthy of worship but Allâh, Allâh is the Greatest, and there is no power nor might except by Allâh’s leave, the Exalted, the Mighty.” Part of the Hadîth is related by Ahmad, Abû Dawûd, an-Nasâ’î and was rendered authentic by Ibn Hibbân, ad-Dâraquṭnî and al-Hâkim.

307. Narrated Abû Qatâdah (RAA): ‘Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ used to lead us in prayer, and he would recite al-Fâtîhah followed by two other Sūras (i.e. a surah in each rak‘ah) in the first two Rak‘āt – of the Dhuhr and ‘Asr prayers. Sometimes we were able to hear a verse or so (of what he was reading). He used to prolong the first rak‘ah more than the second, and he would recite al-Fatihah in the last two rak‘āt (the third and the fourth). Agreed upon.

308. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd al-Khudrī (RAA): ‘We used to estimate how long Allāh’s Messenger stood (while reciting verses from the Qur’ān after the Fātihah) in the Dhuhr and ‘Asr prayers. We estimated that he stood in the first two rak‘āt of the Dhuhr prayer as long as it takes to recite “Alif Lām Mim. The revelation of the Book (the Qur’ān).”’ (i.e. Sūrah as-Sajdah, no. 32).

He stood half that time in the last two rak‘āt, of the Dhuhr prayer. In the first two rak‘āt of the ‘Asr prayer, he stood as long as he did in the last two rak‘āt of the Dhuhr prayer, and in the last two (of the ‘Asr prayer), he stood about half that time.” Related by Muslim.

309. Narrated Sulaimān bin Yasār (RAA): ‘A man116 used to prolong the first two rak‘āt of the Dhuhr prayer, shorten the ‘Asr prayer and recite short sūras of the muṣaf-sal of the Qurʾān in the Maghrib prayer. In the ‘Ishā’ prayer, he would recite from the medium sūras, and in the Fajr prayer he would read from at-Tiwāl. Abū Hurairah(RAA) then said, ‘I have not prayed behind a man whose prayer is more similar to that of the Prophet ﷺ than that man.’ Rendered by an-Nasā’ī with a sound chain of narrators.

311. Narrated Abū Hurairah (RAA): ‘Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ used to recite in the Fajr prayer on Friday, “Alif Lām Mim. The revelation of the Book (the Qurʾān)...” (i.e. Sūrah as-Sajdah, no. 32), and “Has there not been over man a period of time...” (i.e. Sūrah al-Insān, no. 76). Agreed upon.

312. At-Tabarānī related on the authority of Ibn Masʿūd: ‘He used to do this continuously.”

117. The Sūras starting from (according to the strongest opinion) Qāf (no. 59) to the end of the Holy Qurʾān.
118. This includes the mi‘in (Sūras of around and over 100 verses), and the mathānī (come after the mi‘in up to Qāf).
119. The first seven long Sūras in the Qurʾān, and some scholars add Sūras no. 8 and 9 (as there is no Basmalah between al-Anfūl and at-Tawbah). They have been called at-Tiwāl (the long) as they are the longest Sūras in the Qurʾān.
313. Narrated Hudhaifah (RA): ‘I prayed with the Prophet ﷺ, whenever he came to a verse that mentioned mercy, he would stop and ask Allâh for His blessings, and whenever he came to a verse that mentioned punishment, he would seek refuge in Allâh from the Hell-fire.” Related by the five Imâms. At-Tirmidhi rendered it Hasan (good).

314. Narrated Ibn `Abbas (RA): “The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “I was forbidden from reciting the Qur’ân whether in a state of rukû’ or in sujûd (prostration). When you perform rukû’, Glorify Allâh (say Glory to my Lord the most Great), and in prostration, strive your best in making supplication, as you are then entitled to have your supplication answered (Allâh willing). Related by Muslim.

Narrated Abū Hurairah (RAA): When Allah’s Messenger got up to pray, he would say the Takbīr while standing, then say the Takbīr when he bowed (for rukū‘). When he rose from rukū‘ he would say, “Sami’al Lahu liman ḥamidāh (Allāh hears those who send praises to Him)”, and while standing with his back straight (after rukū‘) he would say, “Rabbanâ wa lahal-hamd (O Allāh, our Lord! All praise is for You).” He would then say the Takbīr when going down to prostration, and when he raised his head, then when he prostrated for the second time he would say the Takbīr one more time when he raised his head from the second prostration. He would do this for all his prayers, in each rak‘ah and he would also say the Takbīr when he got up from his sitting after praying two rak‘at. Agreed upon.

Narrated Abū Sa‘īd al-Khudrī (RAA): when ‘Allāh’s Messenger raised his head from rukū‘ he would say, “Our Lord! All praise is Yours. (A praise that) fills the heavens and the earth, and fill what lies between them, and fills whatever else, You wish, to be filled after that. You alone are deserving of praise and majesty. This is the most truthful statement that a servant has ever said, and we are all Your slaves. O Allāh, there is no one who may withhold what You give, and there is no one, who may give what You have withheld. No fortune or prosperity (whether it be money, children, power etc) will save or benefit its owner with You (it is only Your mercy and virtue that benefits anyone). Related by Muslim.

318. Narrated Ibn 'Abbás (RAA): ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “I was commanded to prostrate on seven bones (bodily parts): the forehead” - and he pointed to his nose, hands, knees and the ends of the feet (the toes).’ Agreed upon.

319. Narrated Ibn Buhainah (RAA), ‘Whenever the Messenger of Allāh used to pray, he would keep his arms away from his sides (when he prostrated), so that the whiteness of his armpits was visible.” Agreed upon.

320. Narrated al-Barā' bin 'Ázib (RAA): ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Whenever you prostrate, place the palms of your hands (on the ground), and raise your elbows.” Related by Muslim.

120. Imám al-Qurṭbî said, ‘This shows that the forehead is the main part on which the face prostrates, and the nose is associated with it.’ Ibn Daqīq al-'Abd said, ‘This means that the Prophet ﷺ considered the forehead and the nose as one part, otherwise, the parts of the body on which prostration is performed would have been eight.’ This Ḥadīth is further explained by the narration of an-Nasā’î, Ibn Ṭawús said, ‘And he put his hand on his forehead and he passed it over his nose and said, “This is one (part).”'
321. Wā'il bin Hujr (RAA) narrated, ‘Whenever the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to bow, he would separate his fingers (with his hands placed on his knees). When he prostrated, he would keep his fingers together.’ Related by Al-Hākim.

322. ‘A'ishah (RAA) narrated, ‘I saw the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ praying while sitting cross-legged.’ Related by An-Nasā'i and Ibn Khuzaimah graded it as Sahīh.

323. Ibn 'Abbās (RAA) narrated, ‘Between the two prostrations, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to say, “O Allāh, forgive me, have mercy on me, guide me, grant me well-being, and provide for me.”’ Related by the four Imāms except for An-Nasā'i, and the wording is from Abū Dawūd. Al-Hākim graded it as Sahīh.

324. Mālik bin al-Huwairith (RAA) narrated that he saw the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ praying. If he was praying the odd rak'at (the first or the third), he used to sit for a moment (a quick sitting after the second prostration) before he got up.” Related by Al-Bukhārī.

121- This was when the Prophet ﷺ fell off his horse and his ankle was dislocated (Imām as-San‘ānī in Subūl as-Salām.)
Anas (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah ﷺ stood in humble supplication reciting the Qunût\(^{122}\) for a whole month asking Allâh to punish some of the Arab tribes, and then he stopped (making this supplication)."\(^{123}\) Agreed upon.

They are the tribes of Ra'î and Dhakwân. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ sent almost 70 of his Companions (who had memorized the Qur'ân), to those tribes to teach them Islâm. There was a peace treaty between them and the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, but they killed the seventy men. He was very sad for the loss of his Companions and spent a whole month reciting this supplication. This is proof that it is permissible to make Qunût, reciting the supplication aloud (in any of the five prayers) when Muslims are faced with calamities.

What the Messenger ﷺ stopped (as mentioned in the first Hadith) is his supplication asking Allâh to punish the people who killed his Companions. As for what he kept doing, most scholars are of the opinion that what Anas meant by Qunût in this Hadith is that the Prophet ﷺ would stand (after raising his head from rukû́) for some time making supplication and dhikr (remembering Allâh), in the Fajr prayer, until he died. Anas himself and the four Khulâfâ’ did not observe this Qunût in the Fajr prayer after the death of the Prophet ﷺ which supports the opinion of the scholars, as they would not abandon something that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ continued doing all his life, so that it becomes part of his Sunnah.
327. Anas (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allāh would not stand for the Qunūt (in prayer) unless he was supplicating for or against certain people.' Ibn Khuzaimah graded it to be Sahīh.

328. Sa‘d bin Ṭāriq Al-Ashja‘i (RAA) narrated, 'I said to my father, “Father, you have prayed behind Allāh’s Messenger, Abū Bakr, ‘Umar, ‘Uthmān and ‘Ali. Did they observe making Qunūt in Fajr prayer?” He said, ‘No son, it is something that has been innovated (i.e. a Bid‘ah).” Related by the five Imāms except for Abū Dawūd.

329. Al-Hasan bin ‘Ali (RAA) narrated, 'I said to Allāh’s Messenger, “Teach me some words to say when making Qunūt in the Witr prayer. He taught me, “Oh Allāh, guide me with those whom You have guided, and strengthen me with those whom You have given strength. Take me into Your care. Bless me in what You have given me. Protect me from the evil You have ordained. Surely You have commanded and are not commanded, and none whom You have committed to Your care shall be humiliated You are Blessed, Our Lord and Exalted." Related by the five Imāms. At-Tabarānī and Al-Baihaqi added, "and none whom You have taken as an enemy shall be honored." An-Nasā’ī added through another chain of narrators, "May the Peace and Blessings of Allāh, the Almighty be upon His Prophet.

330. Ibn 'Abbās narrated, 'The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to teach us a supplication to recite in the Qunūt of the Fajr prayer." Related by Al-Baihaqi, but with a weak chain of narrators.

331. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Prophet ﷺ said, "When one of you prostrates, he should not kneel down in his prayer as a camel does (i.e. put his knees down before his hands). He must put his hands first (on the ground) before he puts his knees down." Related by the three Imāms. It is stronger than the Hadīth narrated by Wā’il Ibn Ḥujr.

332. Wā’il Ibn Ḥujr (RAA) narrated, 'I saw the Prophet ﷺ place his knees down when he prostrated before he put his hands.' Related by the four Imāms. The reason behind the strength of the previous narration (of Abū Hurairah) is that it is supported by another narration on the authority of Ibn 'Umar (RAA) which was graded as Sahīḥ by Ibn Khuzaimah. It was also related by Al-
Bukhārī but the chain of narrators is only connected to Nāfi' (RAA) and does not reach the Prophet ﷺ. 125

125- The consensus of the scholars supports the Hadith of Ibn Hujr. Imām Ibnul Qaiyim is also of the opinion that one should put his knees down first. Imām An-Nawawi said though that it seems that no opinion is more preferable than the other, i.e. both Ahādith are accepted, and one can go down in any way described.

126- The Testification of faith, which is recited in the final sitting of the prayer.
334. 'Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud (RAA) narrated, 'Allah's Messenger turned around to us and said, "When any of you prays (and sits for the final Tashahhud) then he should say, 'All greetings of humility are for Allah, and all prayers (or more generally all acts of worship) and good deeds (all good things, sayings, praising Allah, dhikr of Allah etc...) are all for Allah. Peace be upon you, O Prophet, and the mercy of Allah and His blessings be upon you. Peace be upon us and upon the righteous slaves of Allah. I hear witness that none is worthy of worship but Allah, and I hear witness that Muhammad is His slave and His Messenger.' Then you may choose whatever supplication you like best and recite it." Agreed upon, and the wording is from Al-Bukhārī.

In the narration of An-Nasā'ī on the authority of Ibn Mas'ud, 'We used to say (so and so) before the recitation of the Tashahhud was made obligatory upon us (as mentioned above).'

In the narration of Ahmad, Ibn Mas'ud says that the Prophet taught him the recitation of the Tashahhud and ordered him to teach it to other people.

335. Ibn 'Abbās (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah used to teach us to say in the Tashahhud, 'Blessed greetings, prayers and good deeds are all for Allah etc...(the rest is the same as the one mentioned in Hadith 334.) Related by Muslim.

336. Fadālah bin 'Ubaid (RAA) narrated, "Allah's Messenger turn around to us and said, "When any of you prays (and sits for the final Tashahhud) then he should say, 'All greetings of humility are for Allah, and all prayers (or more generally all acts of worship) and good deeds (all good things, sayings, praising Allah, dhikr of Allah etc...) are all for Allah. Peace be upon you, O Prophet, and the mercy of Allah and His blessings be upon you. Peace be upon us and upon the righteous slaves of Allah. I hear witness that none is worthy of worship but Allah, and I hear witness that Muhammad is His slave and His Messenger.' Then you may choose whatever supplication you like best and recite it." Agreed upon, and the wording is from Al-Bukhārī.

In the narration of An-Nasā'ī on the authority of Ibn Mas'ud, 'We used to say (so and so) before the recitation of the Tashahhud was made obligatory upon us (as mentioned above).'

In the narration of Ahmad, Ibn Mas'ud says that the Prophet taught him the recitation of the Tashahhud and ordered him to teach it to other people.
heard a man supplicating during his prayer, but he did not praise Allâh and did not send prayers upon the Prophet. Thereupon the Messenger of Allâh said, “This one has been hasty (i.e. in making his supplication before praising Allâh and praying for His Prophet).” He then called him and said, “When one of you prays, begin by praising Allâh. Then say prayers upon the Prophet, and then supplicate what you wish from Allâh.” Related by Ahmad and the three Imâms: At-Tirmidhi, Ibn Hibbân and Al-Hâkim graded it as Sahîh.

Ibn Mas‘ûd (RAA) narrated that ‘Bashir bin Sa‘d said, ‘O Messenger of Allâh, we have been ordered to send prayers upon you. How do we do it?’ The Prophet was quiet for a moment and then said, “Say ‘O Allâh, Bless Muhammad and the family of Muhammad as You blessed Ibrâhîm (in another narration: as You blessed the family of Ibrâhîm). Grant favors to Muhammad and to the family of Muhammad as You granted favors to Ibrâhîm in this world (in another narration to the family of Ibrâhîm). You are indeed Praiseworthy and Glorious.’ And make Taslim (salutation) as I have taught you” Related by Muslim. Ibn Khuzaimah added, ‘How do we do it (i.e. what do we say), whenever we send prayers upon you in our prayer?’

127 - The man was most probably sitting for at-Tashâhhud, and that is why the author mentioned this Hadith in this section.
128 - Refer to Hadith no. 290.
338. Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Prophet ﷺ said, “When any of you finishes reciting the Tashahhud, he should then seek refuge in Allâh from the following four (trials), and should say, “O Allâh! I seek refuge in You from the torment of the Hell-fire, and from the torment of the grave, from the trials of life and death, and from the (evil) trial of the False Messiah (ad-Dajjâl).” Agreed upon. In the narration of Muslim, “When one of you finishes reciting the final Tashahhud.”

339. Abû Bakr (RAA) narrated that he said to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ ‘Teach me a supplication that I may say in my prayer.’ He said to him, “Say, ‘O Allâh! I have done great injustice to myself and no one forgives sins but You. So forgive me with Your forgiveness, and have mercy upon me. You are the Most Merciful, Oft-Forgiving.” Agreed upon.

340. Wâ’il bin Hujr (RAA) narrated, ‘I prayed with the Prophet ﷺ, and he would make the Salâm (salutation at the end of prayer) to his right side (saying), "Peace be upon you and the Mercy of Allâh," and to his left side (saying), "Peace be upon you and the Mercy of Allâh." Related by Abû Dawûd with a Sahîh (sound) chain of narrators.

341. Al-Mughîrah bin Shu'bah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ would say at the end of every obligatory prayer, "There is no god except Allâh, the One, Who has no partner. His is the dominion and His is the praise. He has power over all things. O Allâh! There is no one who may withhold what You give, and there is no one, who may give what You have withheld. No fortune or prosperity (whether it be money, children, power etc) will save or benefit its owner with You (it is only Your mercy and virtue that benefits anyone). Agreed upon.

342. Sa'd bin Abî Waqqâs (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ would seek refuge in Allâh at the end of every obligatory prayer, saying, "I seek refuge in You from miserliness, I seek refuge in You from cowardice, I seek refuge in You from senility, I seek refuge in You from the trials of this world, and I seek refuge in You from the torment of the grave." Related by Al-Bukhârî.

343. Thaubān (RAA) narrated, 'When the Prophet ﷺ would finish his prayer, he would seek Allāh’s forgiveness three times and then say, “O Allāh, You are the Peace, and from You comes peace. Blessed are You, Owner of Majesty and Generosity.” Related by Muslim.

344. Abū Hurairah (RAA), narrated the Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever glorifies Allāh (i.e. say Subḥānā l-lāh) after every (obligatory) prayer, thirty three times, and praises Allāh (i.e. say Alhamdu l-līlāh) thirty three times, and says the Takbīr (say Allāhu Akbar), this makes 99 times in all, and to complete the hundred, he then says, ‘There is no god except Allāh, the One Who has no partner. His is the dominion and His is the praise. He has power over all things.’ His sins are forgiven, even if his sins are as abundant as the foam of the sea.” Related by Muslim. In another narration, the Takbīr was mentioned to be said thirty four times.

345. Mu‘ādh bin Jabal (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to him, “I advise you, O Mu‘ādh, never neglect to say at the end of every (obligatory) prayer, ‘O Allāh, help me in Your dhikr (remembrance), Your thanks, and in worshipping You in the most perfect way.” Related by Ahmad, Abū Dawūd and An-Nasā’i with a strong chain of narrators.

Abū Umāmah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) said, “Whoever recites the verse of the Throne (Ayat al-Kursi. 2:244) at the end of every prayer, nothing will prevent him from entering Paradise except that he must die (first).” Related by An-Nasā’i and rendered Sahīh by Ibn Hibbān. At-Tabarānī added in his narration, ‘And recites “Say, He is Allāh (the) One …”’ (sūrah no. 112).’

Chapter VIII: Sujūd as-Sahu (Prostration due to forgetfulness during prayer) Other forms of Sujūd (prostration): Prostration of Qur’anic Recital, and Prostration of Thankfulness

349. Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ saw a sick man praying while sitting on a cushion. The Prophet ﷺ pushed it aside and said to him, “Pray while sitting on the ground if you can, otherwise, pray by nodding your head, and make a lower nodding for prostration than that for bowing (rukū’).” Related by Al-Baihaqi with a strong chain of narrators.

350. ‘Abdullāh bin Buḥainah (RAA) narrated, ‘Once the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ led us in Dhuhr prayer and stood up after two rak`āt and did not sit down (for the middle Tashahhud). The people stood up with him. When the prayer was about to end, the people waited for him ﷺ to say the Taslim. He said the Takbir while sitting down, and prostrated twice before he finally said the Taslim.” Related by the seven Imāms and the wording is from Al-Bukhārī.

In the narration by Muslim, ‘and he ﷺ said the Takbir in each prostration while he was sitting down and would then prostrate.
The people prostrated with him to compensate for the middle sitting (after two rak'āt) that he forgot (during the prayer).

351. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated, 'The Prophet ﷺ prayed either Dhuhr or 'Asr prayer with us and he prayed only two rak'āt and then (finished the prayer) by making the Taslim. He got up and leaned against a piece of wood in the front part of the mosque. Abū Bakr and 'Umar (RAA) were present among the people on that day, but they did not dare to speak to the Prophet ﷺ (about the two remaining rak'āt). Some people left the mosque in a hurry and wondered, 'Has the prayer been shortened?' Among the people there was a man called Dhul Yadain who said, 'O Messenger of Allah, have you forgotten or has the prayer been shortened?' The Messenger of Allah said, 'I have not forgotten and the prayer has not been shortened.' Dhul Yadain then said, 'Surely you have forgotten, O Allah's Messenger.' So the Prophet ﷺ got up and prayed two (more) rak'āt and finished the prayer with Taslim. After that he said Takbir and prostrated the way he usually prostrated or perhaps a little longer. Next he raised his head and said the Takbir. Then he said the Takbir again and performed another prostration, the way he usually prostrated or perhaps a little lon-

129. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ called him Dhul Yadain (the man with the two hands) because his hands were long.
Finally he raised his head and said the Takbír. (The Prophet ﷺ performed the two prostrations of forgetfulness (Sujúd as-Sahu) after praying the two missed rak‘át.” Agreed upon. In the narration of Muslim, “In the ’Asr prayer.”

352. In the narration of Abû Dawûd, “The Prophet ﷺ said (to the people in the mosque), “Is it ‘true’ as Dhul Yadain has just said?” The people nodded their heads confirming what he said. This narration is also in Al-Bukhârî and Muslim but with the wording, ‘They said “Yes” instead of “nodded their heads.”

353. In another narration by Abû Dawûd on the authority of Abû Hurairah, ‘and he ﷺ did not prostrate until Allâh, the Exalted, made him absolutely sure about it (that he had only prayed two rak‘át).

354. ‘Imrân bin al-Ḥusain (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ led them in prayer and forgot (to do something), so he made two prostrations and recited the Tashahhud and then said the Taslim.” Related by Abû Dawûd and At-Tirmidhî, who graded it as Hasan (good).
Abū Sa‘īd al-Khudrī (RAA) narrated that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If one of you is uncertain during his prayer, and he does not remember for sure (the number of rak‘āt) he has prayed, three or four rak‘āt, then he should put an end to his doubts and proceed in his prayer based on the number (of rak‘āt) that he is certain he had performed and then make two prostrations before the Taslim. If he had prayed five rak‘āt, the two prostrations would make his prayer even (i.e. with an even number of rak‘āt as the two prostrations are considered as one rak‘ah). If he had prayed four complete rak‘āt (when he had finished), they would be in defiance of Satan.” Related by Muslim.

356. ‘Abdullāh Ibn Mas‘ūd (RAA) narrated, ‘Once Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was praying, and when he said the Taslim, he was asked, ‘O Messenger of Allāh, has something new happened in the prayer? He replied, “What is that?” They said, ‘You prayed so and so many rak‘āt.’ The Messenger of Allāh then changed the position of his feet, faced the Qiblah and made two prostrations. After he said the Taslim, he turned his face to the people and said, “If anything new happened in the prayer, I would have informed you about it. But I am only a human being and I forget just as you do, so when I forget, remind me, and when any of you is uncertain about his prayer, he should try his best to remember exactly what he did, and then proceed with his prayer taking this into consideration (whether concerning a rak'ah or an integral part of the prayer). Then he should make two prostrations.” Agreed upon.

130. He must always assume that he certainly prayed the lesser number of rak‘āt. For example if he is in doubt whether he prayed three or four rak‘āt, he assumes that he certainly prayed three, if he is uncertain whether he prayed two or one rak‘ah, he assumes that he prayed only one and so on.

357. In the narration of al-Bukhārī, “He must finish his prayer, say the Taslim and then make the two prostrations afterwards.”

358. In the narration of Muslim, “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ made the two prostrations of Sahih (forgetfulness) after making the Taslim and talking (the dialogue that took place between him and the Companions about what happened in the prayer).”

359. ‘Abdullāh bin Ja’far (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Whoever is uncertain about his prayer, he should make two prostrations after the Taslim.“ Related by Ahmad and Abū Dawūd, and graded Sahih by Ibn Khuzaimah.

131. There is a difference of opinion whether to make the prostrations before or after the Taslim as both cases are mentioned in the Aḥādīth, but Imam Ahmad said that it is better to apply each Hadīth in similar cases, and if it is not mentioned in any of the aforementioned Aḥādīth, then it is better to prostrate before Taslim, or he has the choice to do either.
360. Al-Mughîrah bin Shu‘ba (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “If one of you is in doubt (about which rak‘ah he is praying) and he stood up after praying two rak‘ât, and he has already stood straight (when he remembered that he forgot to sit), he should proceed (with his prayer) and must not sit back again, but he should perform two prostrations (of forgetfulness). If he (remembers when he) has not completely stood up straight, then he should sit down (for the middle Tashahhud) and he does not have to make the two prostrations of Sahu (forgetfulness).” Related by Abû Dawûd, Ibn Mâjah and Ad-Dâraquţâni with a weak chain of narrators. The wording is from ad-Dâraquţâni.

361. ‘Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “The one who is led in prayer does not have to make the two prostrations of forgetfulness. 132: What is meant here is that he performs only two prostrations at the end of the prayer, for any number of actions, which he forgot in one prayer.
363. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated, "We performed prostration along with the Messenger of Allāh when he recited, "When the heaven split asunder," (sūrah no. 84) and when he recited, "Read! in the Name of your Lord, Who has created." (Sūrah no. 96) Related by Muslim.

This Hadith has the addition, ‘Allah, Glorified be He, has not made it compulsory for us to make the prostration (of Qur’ânic recitation), but whoever wishes can make it.’ This Hadith is also in al-Muwatta.’

135 ‘Umar (RAA) said this in the Friday Khutbah (sermon), because one Friday he recited surah an-Nahl and he came down from the pulpit and prostrated along with the people. The next Friday he recited the same surah but did not prostrate, hence he said what is in the Hadith.

136- The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said to 'Abdur Rahmân (who was watching him at the time), "Jibrîl came to me and said, 'Shall I not give you glad tidings?' Allâh says to you, "Whoever prays upon you, I pray upon him. Whoever salutes you (says Assalamu 'Alaihum) I salute him." Therefore I prostrated to Allâh in Thanks." In another narration, "Whoever prays upon you once, Allâh will pray upon him 10 times."
373. Al-Bara' bin 'Azib (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) sent Ali to Yemen – and Al-Bara’ mentioned the rest of the Hadith. 401. ‘A’ishah (RAA) narrated, “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ never exceeded praying eleven rak‘āt (that was his voluntary night prayer) whether during Ramadān or otherwise. Chapter XIII: Prayer During Times of Fear or Danger (Salâtul Khauf)

500. Sâlih bin Khawwât (RAA) on the authority of those who prayed Salâtul Khauf (prayer during time of danger) with the Prophet ﷺ at the battle of Dhât ar-Riqa', 'A group lined up with the Prophet ﷺ - and prayed along with him - while another group faced the enemy. He prayed one rak'ah with the group that was with him and remained standing while they finished the prayer (by praying another rak'ah) and then left and faced the enemy. The second group came and prayed the remaining rak'ah with him, then he remained sitting until they had completed their prayers themselves, after which he led them in making the Taslim.' Agreed upon, and the wording is from Muslim.

501. Ibn 'Umar (RAA), narrated, 'I took part in a battle with the Prophet ﷺ, in Najd. We faced the enemy and arranged ourse-
Ives in rows. Then the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ stood up to lead the prayer. A group lined up to pray with him while the other faced the enemy. The Prophet ﷺ bowed in rukâ and the first group bowed with him and then he performed two prostrations. The first group then left (after praying one rak‘ah) and took place of those who had not yet prayed. The second group came to pray with the Prophet ﷺ and he prayed one rak‘ah and performed two prostrations and then said the ‘Taslim. Then the latter group stood up and prayed another rak‘ah and performed two prostrations on their own.’ Agreed upon, and the wording is from Al-Bukhârî. 164

502. Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh (RAA) narrated, ‘I prayed Salâtul Khauf (prayer when one is afraid) with the Prophet ﷺ and he arranged us in two rows behind him. The enemy was between us and the Qiblah (i.e. the enemy in this case was in the direction of the Qiblah). The Prophet ﷺ made the Takbir and we all followed

164. Imam ag-San‘âni in Subul as-Salâm’ says that it is apparent that the second group completed their prayer, and prayed a second rak‘ah, after the Imam made the Taslim without disconnecting their prayer. The first group did not complete their prayer until the second group had completed theirs and returned to face the enemy and guard the rest of the army, and then they would pray their second rak‘ah. This is another way of performing the prayer when one is afraid. (the fear prayer) him. Then he made rukū' and we all performed rukū' after him. Then he raised his head from the rukū' and we all raised our heads from the rukū'. Next, the Prophet ﷺ went down for Sujūđ (prostration) as well as the row closest to him (i.e. the front row), while the back row stood facing the enemy until the Prophet ﷺ and the first row had completed their prostration, after which the back row performed Sujūđ and then stood. Following this, those in the back row moved to the front, while those in the front row moved to the back. The Prophet ﷺ performed the rukū' and we all performed rukū'. Then, he raised his head and we raised our heads from rukū'. Afterward, he made the Sujūđ and the row that was previously in the back during the first rak'ah prostrated with him while the [new] back row stood facing the enemy. When the Prophet and the [new] front row had completed their Sujūđ, the [new] back row performed Sujūđ. Finally, the Prophet made the Taslim and we followed him in this.' Related by Ahmad, Muslim and An-Nasā'ī.

In another narration, ‘...then he prostrated and the first row prostrated with him. When they stood, the second row performed Sujūđ...’ and mentioned the same as the rest of the first Hadith.' Finally, 'Then the Prophet ﷺ made the Taslim and we all made the Taslim with him.' Related by Muslim.

503. Abū Dawūd related on the authority of Abū ‘Aiyāsh az-Zuraqī, a similar Hadith with the following addition, ‘It was performed (i.e. the fear prayer) at ʿUsfān.’

504. An-Nasā'ī narrated on the authority of Jābir (RAA), with a different chain of narrators that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ prayed two rakʿāt with one group of his companions and then made the Taslim. Then he prayed another two rakʿāt with another group, and then made the Taslim.
505. Abū Dawūd transmitted a similar narration on the authority of Abū Bakrah.

506. Hudhaifah (RAA), narrated, "The Messenger of Allāh prayed the fear prayer with his companions. He led one group in one rak'ah, and then the other group in one rak'ah, and they did not pray a second rak'ah (to complete two rak'āt as they had in the previous cases). Related by Ahmad, Abū Dawūd, an-Nasā’ī and was graded as Sahih by Ibn Hibbān.

507. Ibn Khuzaimah transmitted a similar Hadith on the authority of Ibn ‘Abbās.

508. Ibn ‘Umar (RAA) narrated, "The Prophet said, "Salātul Khauf (the fear prayer) is one rak'ah and is to be performed in any way." Related by Al-Bazzār with a weak chain of narrators.

509. Ibn ‘Umar (RAA) narrated that the Prophet said, "There is no Sujūd as-Sahu (prostration due to forgetfulness during prayer), to be performed in Salātul Khauf." Related by Ad-Dāraqutnī with a weak chain of narrators.
Chapter XIV: The Prayer of the Two ‘Id Festivals

510. ‘A’ishah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, ‘Breaking the fast at the end of Ramadān is (determined) when people break their fast, and Ḥudūl Ad-hā (the ‘Id of sacrifice), is (determined) when people offer their sacrifices.’ Related by at-Tirmidhī.

511. Abū ‘Umair bin Anas ibn Mālik (RAA) narrated on the authority of some of his uncles from among the Companions of the Prophet that some riders came and testified that they had seen the crescent (of the new moon) the previous night. Thereupon, the Messenger of Allah ordered the people to break their fast, and to go out to their praying place (where they pray the ‘Id prayer) the next morning (to perform the ‘Id prayer in congregation). Related by Ahmad and Abū Dawūd, and the wording is his, with a sound chain of narrators.

165- Some scholars said that this Hadith refers to the fact that one should start fasting and break his fast with the Muslim community, and do as they do. The same applies for the day of sacrifice.

166- In the Hadith there lies evidence that it is possible to pray the ‘Id prayer on the second day of ‘Id, if people did not know that the crescent had already been seen, except after the time of prayer has passed, as in this Hadith. It is also evidence that if one misses the ‘Id prayer for any reason, he may go out and pray it the following day.
512. Anas (RAA) narrated, ‘The messenger of Allāh ﷺ would not go out on the Day of ‘Idul Fitr (Festival of breaking the fast) until he had eaten some dates.’ Related by Al-Bukhārī. In another narration by Ahmad, there is the additional phrase, ‘He would eat an odd number of dates.’

513. Abū Buraidah narrated on the authority of his father (RAA), ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ would not go out on the Day of ‘Idul Fitr, until he had eaten (something), and on the Day of ‘Idul Adhā he would not eat until he had returned from the prayer.’ Related by Ahmad, At-Tirmidhī and Sahihated by Ibn Hibbān.

514. Umm ‘Atiyah (RAA) related, ‘We were ordered to come to the prayer of the two ‘Id’s and (even) bring out with us the young (virgin) girls (who had not yet reached puberty) and the menstruating women, so they might witness the good(seen) and the Takbir and supplications of the Muslims. However, the menstruating women would keep away from the praying place (i.e. stand to the side and watch).’ Agreed upon 167 Of performing the ‘Id prayer in congregation, that everybody joins in including children, and women, except for the menstruating women.

515. Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, Abû Bakr and 'Umar used to offer the two 'Id's prayer before the Khutbah.' Agreed upon.

516. Ibn 'Abbâs (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, went out to the 'Id prayer and prayed the two rak'ât (of the 'Id) and did not offer any other prayer before or after it.' Related by the seven Imâms.

517. Ibn 'Abbâs (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, offered the 'Id prayer without calling for the Adhârn or Iqâmah.' Related by Abû Dawûd.

518. Abû Sa'îd (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ never used to observe any prayer before the 'Id prayer, but when he returned home, he would pray two rak'ât.' Related by Ibn Mâjah with a good chain of narrators.

519. Abû Sa'îd (RAA) narrated, 'On the Days of 'Idul Fitr and Idul Adhâ, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ would go out to the praying place, and the first thing that he started with was the 'Id prayer, and when he had finished he would stand facing the people, while the people were sitting in rows, and he would admonish them and advise them. 'Agreed upon.

520. Amro bin Shu‘aib (RAA) on the authority of his father on the authority of his grandfather168 (May Allah be pleased with all of them), narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah ﷺ would make seven Takbirat in the first rak‘ah of the ‘Id prayer, and five Takbirat in the second, and then he would start reciting the Qur‘ân, after the Takbirat in each rak‘ah.' Related by Abû Dawûd.

521. Abû Wâqid Al-Laithî (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to recite in the prayer of ‘Idul Adhâ, “Qáf. By the Glorious Qur‘ân” (sûrah no. 50:1) and “The Hour has drawn near, and the moon has been cleft asunder.”(sûrah no. 54:1). Related by Muslim.

522. Jâbir (RAA) narrated, 'On the days of ‘Id, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ would take different routes (i.e. would go to the prayer in one way, and return home in another.' Related by Al-Bukhârî.

168. He is Amro bin Shu‘aib bin Muhammad bin ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Amro bin Al-‘Âs.
523. Abu Dawud narrated a similar narration on the authority of Ibn 'Umar.

524. Anas (RAA) narrated, 'When the Messenger of Allah came to Madinah, they had two days of sport and amusement. The Prophet said, "Allah, the Exalted has exchanged these days for two days better than them; the day of sacrifice (Idul Adha) and the day of breaking the fast (Idul Fitr)." Related by Abu Dawud and an-Nasa'i with a sound chain of narrators.

525. 'Ali (RAA) narrated, 'It is an act of the Sunnah of the Prophet to go out to the 'Id prayer walking.' Related by At-Tirmidhi, who graded it as Hasan (good).

526. Abu Hurairah (RAA) narrated, 'It was raining on the day of 'Id, so the Prophet led them in the 'Id prayer inside the mosque.'

169- It is preferable to pray the 'Id prayer in a place outside the city, in an open area, unless there is an excuse such as rain, in which case it could be prayed in the mosque. The Prophet prayed the two 'Id prayers in the outskirts of Madinah.
Chapter XV: The Prayer During a Solar Eclipse

527. Al-Mughirah bin Shu’bah (RAA) narrated, “The sun eclipsed during the lifetime of the Messenger of Allah صلی الله عليه وسلم on the day when (his son) Ibrâhîm died. So, the people said that the sun had eclipsed because of the death of Ibrâhîm. Allah’s Messenger صلی الله عليه وسلم said, “The sun and the moon are two miracles created by Allah. They do not eclipse for the death or life (i.e., birth) of anyone. Should you witness an eclipse of the sun or the moon, pray and invoke Allah until it is over.” Agreed upon. In the narration of Al-Bukhârî, “Until the eclipse is clear.”

528. Abû Bakrah (RAA) narrated, “pray and invoke Allah until the eclipse (that you are witnessing) is over.” Related by al-Bukhârî.

529. ‘A’ishah (RAA) narrated, The Messenger of Allah صلی الله عليه وسلم recited the Qur'an aloud during the eclipse prayer. He performed four bowings in a total of two rak'āt (i.e. he performed the ruku' twice in each rak'ah), and prostrated four times (i.e. he made Sujūd twice in each rak'ah). Agreed upon, and the wording is from Muslim.

In another narration, he sent a man calling, 'prayer (is to be performed) in congregation.'
In a narration by Muslim, 'When the sun eclipsed, he made eight bowings in two rak'āt (i.e. he performed ruku' four times in each rak'ah), and prostrated four times (i.e. he made sujūd twice in each rak'ah)."\textsuperscript{170}

\[531.\] Imām Muslim transmitted a similar narration on the authority of 'Ali (RAA).

\[532.\] Muslim also transmitted the following on the authority of Jābir (RAA), 'The Messenger of Allāh performed six bowings and four prostrations (in two rak'āt)'+

\[533.\] Ubay bin Ka'b (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allāh performed the eclipse prayer, and he made five bowings and two prostrations (in the first rak'ah), and did the same in the second.' Related by Abū Dawūd.

\[534.\] Ibn 'Abbās (RAA) narrated, 'No wind has ever blown, except that the Prophet would go down on his knees and say, "O Allāh, make it a mercy for us and do not make it as a punishment."' Related by Ash-Shāfi‘ī and At-Tabarānī.

\[535.\] Some scholars are of the opinion that the eclipse prayer is performed in this way.
535. Ibn `Abbas (RAA) narrated that the Prophet ﷺ made six bowings and four prostrations (in two rak‘ât), when an earthquake occurred and said, “This is the prayer (to be performed) when one of the signs of Allâh (such as an eclipse, an earthquake etc.) occurs.” Related by Al-Baihaqi.

Imâm Ash-Shâfi‘î transmitted a similar narration, excluding the last part, on the authority of ʿAlî (RAA).

Chapter XVI: The Istisqâ’ Prayer (invoking Allâh for rain during drought)

536. Ibn `Abbas (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ went out (to make the Istisqâ’ prayer) wearing old clothes, in a humble and submissive manner, walking slowly, invoking Allâh (in humility) and prayed two rak‘ât, as he prayed the ’Id prayer, but he did not give a similar Khutbah (like the one he delivers on the ’Id day).’ Related by the five Imâms. At-Tirmidhî, Abû ʿAwânah and Ibn Hibbân graded it as Sahîh.
The people complained to the Messenger of Allâh about the lack of rain, so he gave orders for a pulpit to be set up for him in the place of prayer. He then appointed a day for the people to gather and he came out on that day when the sun had just appeared. The Messenger of Allâh sat down on the pulpit, said Takbîr and praised Allâh. Then he said, "You have complained of drought in your areas, but you have been ordered by Allâh to supplicate Him and He has promised that He would answer your prayers." Then he said: "All praise is for Allâh, the Compassionate, the Merciful, the Only Owner of the Day of Judgment. There is no God but Allâh Who does what He wishes. O Allâh, there is no God except You! You are the Self-sufficient and we are the needy. Send down rain upon us and make it a source of strength for us and satisfaction." He then raised his hands and kept raising them until the whiteness of his armpits could be seen. After that he turned his back to the people and turned his cloak around, keeping his hands raised, then he faced the people, descended from the pulpit and prayed two rak'ât. Allâh, the Almighty then sent a cloud which produced thunder and lightening, and by Allâh's permission, it rained." Related by Abû Dawûd, who said that its chain of narrators is good.

171- In a narration by Al-Bukhâri, on the authority of 'Abdullâh Ibn Zaid, 'The Prophet turned his outer garments around, placing its left side on his right side and vice versa.' Scholars say that the wisdom here is the favorable omen of a change of state. It seems that the Prophet was optimistic that by turning round his cloak, the state of drought would turn into that of rain and prosperity.
The story of turning the garment is mentioned in Sahih Al-Bukhari on the authority of 'Abdullah Ibn Zaid, who said, 'The Messenger of Allah turned towards the Qiblah and started invoking Allah, then he prayed two rak'at reciting the Qur'an aloud.'

Abu Ja'far al-Baqir (RAA) narrated, 'and he turned his garment for the drought to turn away.' Related by Ad-Daraqutni, and it was reported to be Hadith Mursal (that in which the link between the Successor (Tabi') and the Prophet ﷺ, i.e. the companion is missing).

Anas (RAA) narrated, 'A man entered the mosque on Friday while the Prophet ﷺ was standing delivering the Khutbah. The man said, "O Messenger of Allah, our wealth has been destroyed and we no longer have any transport. Supplicate Allah for us to have rain. The Prophet ﷺ raised his hands and said, "O Allah, give us rain. O Allah, give us rain. O Allah, give us rain." Anas said, 'By Allah, at that time there were no clouds in the sky and there was no house or building between the mountain and us. From behind the mountain came a cloud that looked like a shield. By the time it reached the middle of the sky it started to pour with rain. By Allah we did not see the sun for a week. On the following Friday, a man entered the mosque from that (same) door.

172 In another narration 'livestock are dying', which may account for the lack of transport.
while the Prophet ﷺ was standing delivering the Khutbah and said, ‘Our livestock are dead and the roads are cut off (due to torrential rain). Ask Allah to make it stop.’ The Prophet ﷺ raised his hands and said, “O Allah, around us and not upon us. O Allah, make it upon the hills, small mountains, bottom of the valleys, and plantations.” The rain stopped and we walked out in the sunshine.’ Agreed upon.

541. Anas (RAA) narrated, Whenever drought threatened them, ‘Umar Ibnul Khattāb used to ask Al-Abbās ibn ‘Abdul Mut'ālib to invoke Allah for rain. He used to say, ‘O Allah! We used to ask our Prophet ﷺ to invoke You for rain, and You would bless us with rain, and now we ask his uncle to invoke You for rain. O Allah! Bless us with rain.’ And so it would rain. Related by Al-Bukhārī.

542. Anas (RAA) narrated, ‘A shower of rain fell when we were with the Prophet ﷺ. He lifted up his clothes(uncovering part of his body to the rain), until the rain fell on him. We said, ‘Messenger of Allah, why did you do this?’ He said, “Because it has just come from Allah, the Exalted.” Related by Muslim.

543. ‘A’ishah (RAA) narrated, Whenever the Prophet ﷺ saw the rain, he used to say, “O Allah! Make it beneficial.” Agreed upon.
544. Sa’d (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ would supplicate for Istisqa’ saying, “O Allâh, let us be covered with thick clouds that have abundant and beneficial rain, that is accompanied by a strong sound of thunder (which is a sign of strong rain), frequently making light rain fall upon us and surrounding us with lightning. O Allâh, You are full of majesty, bounty and Honor.” Related by Abû ‘Awânah in his Sahîh.

545. Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “Prophet Sulaimân ﷺ went out invoking Allâh for rain. He saw an ant lying on its back raising its legs up to the sky saying, ‘O Allâh! We are creatures amongst Your creatures. We can not live without Your rain.’ Prophet Sulaimân then said, ‘Go back, for it has rained in response to the invocation of others (than you).’ Related by Ahmad.

546. Anas (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ supplicated Allâh for rain and he pointed with the back of his hand to the sky.’ Related by Muslim.
Chapter XVII: Clothing

547. Abū ʿAmir al-Ashʿarī (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allāh said, "There will be among my followers, some people who will make halāl (lawful) a woman's vagina (i.e. adultery) and silk (which is forbidden for men)."' Related by Abū Dawūd and Al-Bukhārī.

548. Abū Hudhaifah Ibn Al-Yamān (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allāh prohibited us from eating and drinking from gold and silver vessels. He also forbade us from wearing clothes made of silk or brocade (i.e. the men but it is lawful for women) or to sit on them.' Related by Al-Bukhārī and Muslim.

549. ʿUmar (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allāh prohibited (men) from wearing silk, except for the size of two, three or four fingers.'173 Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim.

173- It is only permissible for men to wear a garment embroidered with silk thread, the maximum size of such a design should not exceed the size of four fingers, or that the whole garment could include a piece of silk not exceeding that size.
550. Anas (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) gave permission to 'Abdur Rahmān bin 'Auf and Az-Zubair to sear silk clothing on a journey, as they were suffering from a skin irritation.' Agreed upon.

551. 'Alī (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) sent me a garment striped with silk (or made of pure silk, which is more likely) so I went out wearing it. I saw the Prophet (ﷺ) and he looked very angry (when seeing me wearing it), so I cut it up (and divided it) among my female (relatives).’ Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim.

552. Abū Mūsā (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said, “Gold and silk are Ḥalāl (lawful) for the females among my nation, but prohibited for the males.” Related by Ahmad, An-Nasā’i and At-Tirmidhi.

174. In another narration, he divided it into three head covers, which he gave to the three Fatimahs (i.e. His wife Fāṭimah the daughter of the Prophet (ﷺ), his mother Fāṭimah bint Asad and Fāṭimah bint Hamzah, his cousin.
553. ‘Imrân bin Hūsain (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “When Allâh bestows one of His favors upon a slave, He likes to see its effect on him.” Related by Al-Baihaqî.

554. ‘Ali (RAA) narrated, “The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ prohibited (men from) wearing Qasseî (a kind of fabric made of silk or striped with silk, which is brought from Egypt and Syria) or any clothing dyed with saffron.” Related by Muslim.

555. ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Amro (RAA) narrated, “The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ saw me wearing two garments dyed with saffron. Thereupon he said to me, “Has your mother ordered you to do so?” Related by Muslim.

175- This means that one should eat and wear clothes, which reflects his average income, as this is a way of acknowledging the grace of Allâh upon him and also if a poor person sees him looking respectable, he would be encouraged to ask him for help. (Imâm as-Sânî in Subûl as-Salâm; the interpretation of Bulûgh al-Marâm).

176- It is definitely prohibited if the percentage of silk is very high, otherwise it is disliked to wear it if there is a small amount.

177- This comment from the Prophet ﷺ indicates that dying clothes with saffron is absolutely prohibited for men, and he mentioned the mother because it is usual for women to use it to decorate their clothing. This is also supported by the rest of the narration in Muslim, in which the Prophet ﷺ commanded him to burn the two garments when ‘Amro asked him if he should wash them.
556. Asmā' bint Abi Bakr (RAA) reported that she brought out the cloak of the Prophet ﷺ and it had a brocade fringe on the collar, sleeves, and the front and back openings. Related by Abū Dawūd, and Muslim who added, “‘Ā’ishah (RAA) had it until she died, then I took it. The Prophet ﷺ used to wear it, and now we wash it and use it (or the washing) for the sick, seeking a cure (by virtue of its blessing as it touched the body of the Prophet ﷺ).” Al-Bukhārī added to the above narration in his book ‘Al-Adab al-Mufrad’, ‘He ﷺ used to wear it for (meeting with) delegations and for the Friday prayer.’
557. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) said, "Remember, as much as you can, the one thing (fact or reality) which (always) brings an end to all worldly joys and pleasures, (meaning death)." Related by At-Tirmidhi, An-Nassā'ī and Ibn Hibbān.

558. Anas (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) said, "None of you should wish for death due to any affliction, which might have affected him. But if he feels compelled to wish for it (due to extreme distress that he feels he cannot bear), he should say: "O Allāh! Grant me life as long as life is better for me, and let me die when death is better for me." Agreed upon.

559. Buraidah (RAA) narrated that the messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) said, “The believer dies while his forehead is sweating.”

Related by the three Imams.

560. Abū Sa‘īd and Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Remind those who are on their death bed of the Shahādah “Lā Ilāha illā-Īh.” (for them to say it, hoping it will be their last words).”

561. Ma‘qil bin Yasar (RAA) narrated that the messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Recite Yāsīn (Sūrah no. 36), over those who are dying.” Related by Abū Dawūd, An-Nasā‘ī and Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahih.

178. Imām as-San‘ānī in ‘Subul as-Salām’, says that this refers to one of two things; one is that when the believer is on his death bed, he would be sweating due to his suffering in the last moments when his soul is about to leave his body; this suffering is the last thing that will expiate what is left of his sins. The other thing, the Prophet ﷺ could be referring to is the life of the believer in which he is always working hard to gain his halāl earnings, fasting, praying to prepare for the Hereafter, and so he meets Allāh, the Almighty when he is still sweating.

179. Scholars say that it is recommended to remind those who are on their death bed of the Shahādah, for him to say it, but they disliked insisting or telling him, ‘Say...’, lest the dying person becomes irritated or gets more upset due to what he is going through and then utters something which he should not say.
562. Umm Salamah (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allah ﷺ came to see Abū Salamah when his sight had become fixed (with his eyes open, as he had already passed away). So the Prophet ﷺ closed his eyes and said, “When the soul is seized and leaves the body, the sight follows it.’ Some of Abū Salamah’s family wept and wailed, whereupon the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said to them, ‘Do not supplicate to Allâh anything except that which is good for you (i.e. do not say anything which goes against you at that moment), because the angels (who are present at the time of death), say “Amin” (asking Allâh to accept your invocation) to whatever you say.” Then he said, “O Allâh! Forgive Abū Salamah, raise his status among (Your) rightly guided servants, make his grave spacious, and fill it with light for him, and be his successor in taking good care of his descendants whom he has left behind, (and make them pious).” Related by Muslim.

563. ‘A’ishah (RAA) narrated, ‘When the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ died, he was covered with a Yemeni mantle that had some designs on it.’ Agreed upon.

564. ‘A’ishah (RAA) reported that Abū Bakr kissed the Prophet ﷺ after he had died.’ Related by Al-Bukhârî.

565. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh said, “A believer’s soul remains suspended according to his debt until it is settled or paid off on his behalf.” Related by Ahmad and At-Tirmidhi.

566. Ibn ‘Abbās (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh said concerning the man who fell off his mount and died during Hajj, “Wash him with water and Sidr (lotus leaves) and shroud him in his two garments (that he was wearing for Ihrām).” Agreed upon.

567. ‘A’ishah (RAA) narrated, ‘When the Messenger of Allāh died and they wanted to make Ghusl (full ritual washing of the body), they said, ‘By Allāh we do not know whether we should take off the clothes of Allāh’s Messenger as we do for our dead or not?’ Related by Ahmad and Abū Dawūd.180

180. The rest of the Hadith as reported by Abū Dawūd, ‘When they disputed among themselves, Allāh cast slumber over them until the chin of each of them fell on his chest. Then someone said to them from a side of the house, and they did not know who he was, ‘Wash the Prophet while his clothes are on him.’ So, they washed him while he was wearing his shirt. They poured water over his shirt and rubbed him with his shirt and not with their hands.’
568. Umm 'Atiyah (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ came to us when we were washing his daughter (Zainab) after she had died and said, "Wash her three times, five times or more if necessary, with water and lotus leaves (Sidr) and apply some camphor to the last washing." When we finished making Ghusl for her, we informed the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and he threw his Iẓār (a cloth, which he wore round his waist) to us and told us to wrap her in it as the first sheet of the shroud (next to her body).’ Agreed upon. In another narration, "Start by washing the organs on the right and those parts that are washed in ablution." In the narration of Al-Bukhārī, “We braided her hair in three braids and made them fall at her back.”

569. ‘A’ishah (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was shrouded in three pieces of white Yemenite cotton sheets. They did not include either a shirt or a turban.’ Agreed upon.

570. ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar (RAA) narrated, ‘When ‘Abdullāh bin Ubay (the head of the hypocrites) died, his son came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, ‘O Messenger of Allāh! Please give me your shirt to shroud him (his father) in it.’ So, Allāh’s Messenger gave it to him. Agreed upon.
571. `Ibn `Abbās (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Wear white clothes, for they are (considered as) your best clothes, and enshroud your dead in them.” Related by the five Imāms, except for An-Nasā’ī, and At-Tirmidhi reported it to be sound.

If they obey you in this, then teach them that Allāh, the Glorious One, has enjoined five prayers upon them in every day and night (in twenty-four hours), and if they obey you in this, then tell them that Allāh has made it obligatory for them to pay Zakāh upon their assets and it is to be taken from the wealthy among them and given to the poor among them.”

Related by Al-Bukhārī.
624. Anas (RAA) narrated that Abū Bakr As-Siddiq (RAA) wrote him this letter, “This is the obligatory Zakāh, which the Messenger of Allāh made obligatory for every Muslim, and which Allāh, the Almighty, had commanded him to observe. For each twenty-four camels, or less, their Zakāh is to be paid as sheep; for every five camels, their Zakāh is one sheep. When the amount of camels is between twenty-five to thirty-five, the due Zakāh is one she-camel ‘bint makhḍūq’ (a camel which is one year old and just starting the second year) or a male camel ‘ibn labūn’ (a young male camel which is two years old and already starting the third year). However, when the amount of camels reaches thirty-six, the due Zakāh is a young she-camel ‘bint labūn’ (a young female camel, which is two years old and already starting the third year). When they reach forty-six to sixty camels, their due Zakāh is a she-camel ‘hiqqah’ (which is three years old and starting the fourth). When they reach sixty-one to seventy-five, one
'Jaz’ah' (a four year old camel already starting its fifth year). When their number is between seventy-six to ninety camels, their due Zakâh is two young she-camels ‘bint labûn’. When they are in the range between ninety-one to one hundred and twenty camels, the Zakâh is two young she-camels ‘hiqqah’. If they are over a hundred and twenty camels, on every forty camels, one ‘bint labûn’ is due. And for every fifty camels (over one hundred and twenty) a young she-camel ‘hiqqah’ is due. And anyone, who has got only four camels, does not have to pay Zakâh unless he (the owner of the camels) wants to give something voluntarily.

Regarding the Zakâh of grazing sheep, if they are between forty and one hundred and twenty, one sheep is due as Zakâh. If they are between 120 and 200, two sheep are due. If they are between 200 and 300, three sheep are due. If they exceed three hundred sheep, then one sheep is due for every extra hundred grazing heads. If the grazing sheep are less than forty, (even if they are 39) then no Zakâh is due on them, unless he (the owner of the camels) wants to give something voluntarily.

One should not combine (i.e. gather young animals together) or separate them for fear of paying Zakâh. When there is a mixture of cattle shared between two partners, and Zakâh is paid jointly between them, then they have to calculate it equally among them (depending on the share of each). Neither an old or a defective animal nor a male goat (a ram used for breeding) may be taken as Zakâh, unless the Zakâh collector wishes to do so.

Concerning silver, the Zakâh paid is a quarter of a tenth for each 200 Dirhams. If the amount of silver is less than two hundred 188 - One way of doing this is when three people, each of them has forty sheep (i.e. one sheep is due on each). So, when the Zakâh collector comes, they put them together, which comes to 120 sheep, and they the due Zakâh is only one sheep. Or if two partners have 201 sheep, which means that 3 sheep are due, then they divide them between them, for each to give only one sheep.

189 - The Zakâh collector should not take this last type, (the breeding ram) as this will harm the owner, but he may take any of these three if he has no other choice, as the old and the defective animal is not to be taken as Zakâh anyway. The same Arabic word used in the Hadith could be read as ‘al-Mussaddiq’, which is the owner or the one who pays Zakâh. In this case the meaning would be ‘the male - goat’ may not be taken unless the owner permits it to be taken as Zakâh, as it is from his best animals.
Dirhams (even if it is 190) then no Zakāh is to be paid for it, unless the owner wishes to do so.

If the number of camels reaches the number on which a jaz'ah (a four year old camel already starting its fifth year) is due as Zakāh, but he only has a 'hiqqah' (a she camel which is three years old and starting the fourth), it should be accepted from him along with two sheep if they were available (to compensate for the difference) or twenty Dirhams. If on the other hand he has to offer a 'hiqqah' as Zakāh, but he only has a jaz'ah, it is accepted from him, and the Zakāh collector will then pay him the difference, which is twenty Dirhams or two female sheep.' And for every forty cows, a musinnah (two year old cow) is due. In another narration, “or one ṣâʿ of dried cottage cheese.” Abū Saʿīd then added, “As for myself, I would continue to give it as I used to give during the time of the Prophet.”

Abū Dawūd also transmitted on the authority of Abū Saʿīd, “I would never give but a ṣâʿ.

651. Ibn ʿAbbās (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ enjoined Zakāt-ul-ṣaḥr on the one who fasts (i.e. fasted during the month of Ramadān) to purify him from any indecent act or speech and for the purpose of providing food for the needy. It is accepted as Zakāh for the person who pays it before the ‘Īd prayer and it is Sadaqah (i.e. voluntary charity) for the person who pays it after the ‘Īd prayer.’ Related by Abū Dawūd and Ibn Mājah and Al-Hākim graded it as Sahih.

Chapter III: Sadaqat al-Tatāwur or Voluntary Charity

652 – عَنْ أَبِي هَرْبِرَةَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ - عَنْ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَالَ : «سَبِعَةُ مَطَلَعِيَّهِمْ اللَّهُ فِي ظَلِّيْ بِعَمَّ لاَ ذِلِّلَ إِلَّآ طَلِّيْهَا» - فَذَكَرَ النَّحْدِ - وَفَهَ: 196 The rest of this narration goes, “continued to do so until Muʿāwiya came to us to perform pilgrimage; hajj or 'umrah. He then addressed the people from the pulpit and said to them: “I see that two mudds of wheat from Syria equals one ṣâʿ of dates. The people accepted that.” Abū Saʿīd then contended, “As for myself...”Two mudds are equivalent to half a ṣâʿ; that is why Abū Saʿīd insisted on giving one full ṣâʿ as he used to do during the lifetime of the Prophet.”
Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Seven people will be shaded by Allāh under His shade on the day when there will be no shade except His...” He mentioned the rest of the hadith, which says, “and a man who gives charity so secretly that his left hand does not know what his right hand has given.” (i.e. nobody knows how much he has given in charity). Agreed upon.

Uqbah Ibn ‘Amir (RAA) narrated, ‘I heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ say, “Everybody will be shaded by his Sadaqah (on the Day of Judgment) until it has been judged between the people.” Related by Ibn Hibbān and Al-Hākim.

Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī (RAA) narrated that the Prophet ﷺ said, “Any Muslim who clothes another Muslim who is naked, Allāh will clothe him from the green garments of Paradise. Any Muslim who feeds a Muslim who is hungry, Allāh will feed him from the fruit of Paradise, and any Muslim who gives drink to a Muslim who is thirsty, Allāh will give him a drink from the Sealed Nectar.” Related by Abū Dawūd with a weak chain of narrators.

197 This is the pure and clear white wine, which the believers will drink in Paradise, but it will not make them intoxicated as the wine of this worldly life. It is kept in sealed containers that will only be undone by their owners.
655. Hakím bin Hizám (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, "The upper hand is better than the lower hand (i.e. he who gives in charity is better than he who takes it). One should begin by giving to his dependents. And the best Sadaqah (charity) is that, which is given by a wealthy person (from the money which is left over after his expenses). And whoever abstains from asking others for some financial help, Allâh will provide for him and save him from asking others; Allâh will make him self-sufficient." Agreed upon and this version is of al-Bukhârî.

656. Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ was asked, 'Which kind of Sadaqah is better? He replied, "That which is given by one who does not have much property. And begin by giving to your dependents." Related by Ahmad, and Abû Dawûd. Ibn Khuzaimah, Ibn Hibbân and Al-Hâkim graded it as Sahîh.
657. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Give Sadaqah.” A man then said, ‘Allāh’s Messenger, I have a Dīnār.’ He then said to him, “Give it to yourself as Sadaqah.” The man again said, ‘I have another one.’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Give it to your children as Sadaqah.” He said, ‘I have another one.’ He said, “Give it to your wife as Sadaqah.” The man again said, ‘I have another one.’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Give it to your servant as Sadaqah.” He said, ‘I have another one.’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “You know better to whom you should give it.” Related by Abū Dawūd and An-Nasā’ī. Ibn Hibbān and Al-Hākim regarded it as Sahih.

658. ‘A’ishah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “When a woman gives some of the foodstuff (which she has in her house) in charity without being extravagant (without being wasteful), she will receive the reward for what she has spent, and her husband will receive the reward because of his earning, and the keeper (if any) will be similarly rewarded. The reward of one will not decrease the reward of the others.” Agreed upon.

659. Abū Sa’īd (RAA) narrated, ‘Zainab the wife of Ibn Mas‘ūd came along and said to the Prophet ﷺ, “O Messenger of Allāh!}
You have commanded us today to give Sadaqah (charity). I have some jewelry of mine and I wanted to give it as Sadaqah, but Ibn Mas‘ūd claims that he and his children are the most entitled to my Sadaqah. (deserve it more than anyone else.) The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Ibn Mas‘ūd is right. Your husband and your children are more deserving.” Related by Al-Bukhārī.

660. Ibn ‘Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “A man who persists in begging people to give him charity, will come on the Day of Judgment and there will not be a piece of flesh on his face.” Agree upon.

662. Az-Zubair bin Al-‘Awwām (RAA) narrated that the Mess-

198 This hadith means to show the ugliness of begging where there is no real necessity, which makes the person loose his pride so that he comes on the Day of Judgment without any flesh on his face. The Qur’ān praised those whom one thinks they are rich because of their modesty, as they do not beg people in spite of their need. (2:274-275)
senger of Allâh ﷺ said, “It is better for any of you to take a rope and cut some wood (from the forest) and carry it over his back and sell it, to preserve his dignity (as he is earning his own living), rather than ask a person for something and that person may give him or not.” Related by Al-Bukhârî.

663. Samurah bin Jundub (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “Begging is like a scratch with which a man scratches his face; unless one is asking the ruler or in the case of dire necessity.” Related by at-Tirmidhî, who regarded it as Sahîh.

Chapter IV: Division of Zakâh (Zakâh recipients)

664. Abû Saïd Al-Khudrî narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “Zakâh is not allowed for the well-off person except for one of the following five: an administrator of Zakâh, a man who buys Zakâh holdings with his money, a person who is in debt, a fighter in the cause of Allâh, or a rich person who is given a present by a needy (miskin) person which the latter had been given as Zakâh.” Related by Ahmad, Abû Dawûd, Ibn Mâjah, and Al-Hâkim regarded it as Sahîh.
665. 'Uhaidullah bin 'Adi bin Al-Khiyar (RAA) narrated that two men told him that they had gone to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ asking him to give them something from the Zakāh money (as he was distributing it at that time). The Messenger of Allah ﷺ then looked them up and down and found them to be sturdy and strong. He then said to them, "If you desire, I shall give it to you, but this Zakāh is not for one who is rich, neither for the one who is strong and able to earn." Related by Ahmad, Abū Dawūd and An-Nasa'ī.

666. Qabīsah bin Mukhāriq Al-Hilālī (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Asking for (the money of) Zakāh, is justified only for the following three: first, a man who is in debt: it is then permissible for him to receive [Zakāh] until his difficulty is resolved; second, a man who was struck by calamity, which destroyed his holdings, which also makes it permissible for him to receive [Zakāh] until he is in a position to earn his own living; and third, a man who has been reduced to poverty and three persons of caliber from among his people testify to his desperate circumstances. Such will receive until he finds a means of support for him- self. Other than these cases, O Qabishah, it is considered as taking suft (unlawful or harām earnings), and the person receiving it (this Zakah) will be consuming forbidden (unlawful) holdings.” Related by Muslim, Abū Dawūd, Ibn Khuzaimah and Ibn Hibbān.

667. 'Abdul Muttalib bin Rabi'ah bin Al-Hārith narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Indeed, Zakah ought not to be given to the family of Muhammad ﷺ, it will be like giving them from the impurities of people.”199 In another narration, “It is not lawful for Muhammad or the family of Muhammad ﷺ.” Related by Muslim.

668. Jubair bin Mut'am (RAA) narrated, “Uthmān Ibn 'Affān and I went to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, and said to him, 'O Messenger of Allāh! You have given the family of Banū Al-Muttalib from the fifth of the war booty of Khaibar and left us out, while we and they are of the same status.' The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ replied, ‘Banū Al-Muttalib and Banū Hāshim are one.’” Related by al-Bukhrāī.

199. The Qur'ān described Zakah in Surah at-Taubah (9:103) by saying: “Take Zakah from their wealth in order to purify them.” Zakah is regarded as the act, which purifies the money of the people, as they give out the part, which if they had kept it, would be harām for them to keep since Allāh ordered them to give it.
669. Abū Rāfiʿ (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, appointed a man from Bānī Makhzūm to collect the Zakāh. The man said to Abū Rāfiʿ, 'Accompany me so that you may get a share of it.' Abū Rāfiʿ replied, 'No! Not until I go to the Prophet ﷺ and ask him.' He went to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and asked him, and the Prophet ﷺ replied, "The client (slave) of a certain tribe are like (the members of the tribe) themselves and Zakāh is not lawful for us."200 Related by Ahmad, the three Imāms, Ibn Khuzaimah and Ibn Hibbān.

670. Sālim bin 'Abdullāh bin 'Umar narrated on the authority of his father (RAA) that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to give 'Umar bin Al-Khattāb something (some money), but he would say to him, 'Would you give it to a person, who is more needy than me?' The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ would then say to him, 'Take it. If you are given something from this property, without your having asked for it or being eager to receive it, and if you are not given, do not go and ask for it.' Related by Muslim.

200 Abū Rāfiʿ was a slave of Al-ʿAbbās the uncle of the Prophet ﷺ, and he freed him at the time of the Caliphate of 'Ali (RAA).
Chapter I

671. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "None of you should fast a day or two before the (beginning of the) month of Ramadān, unless it is a day on which one is in the habit of fasting (i.e. voluntary fasting that coincides with that day)." Agreed upon.

672. ‘Ammār bin Yāsir (RAA) narrated, ‘Whoever fasts the day of doubt he has then disobeyed Abū al-Qasim (the Prophet ﷺ).’ Related by the five Imāms, and Ibn Khuzaimah and Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahih.

201. It is the day that precedes Ramadān and people are not sure if it is the last day of Sha' bān or the beginning of Ramadān.
673. Ibn ‘Umar (RAA) narrated, ‘I heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say, “Start fasting after you have seen it (i.e. the new crescent) and end the fast (at the end of the month) when you see it. If it is overcast and cannot be seen, then estimate its sighting (i.e. presume that Sha’bân lasted for thirty days).” Agreed upon.

Muslim narrated, “If it is too overcast to be seen then presume that it (Sha’bân) lasted for thirty days.”

In another narration by al-Bukhârî, “wait until thirty days of it (Sha’bân) have passed.”

674. Al-Bukhârî reported on the authority of Abû Hurairah, “Complete the days of Sha’bân as thirty days.”

675. Ibn ‘Umar (RAA) narrated, ‘The people were trying to sight the new moon (of Ramadan) and when I reported to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ that I had seen it, he fasted and commanded people to fast.’ Related by Abû Dawûd, and Al-Hâkim and Ibn Hibbân graded it as Sahîh.

676. Ibn ‘Abbâs (RAA) narrated, ‘A Bedouin came to the Pro-prophet and said, ‘I have sighted the crescent (of Ramadan).’ He then said to him, "Do you testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allâh?" The Bedouin said, ’Yes.’ He asked him again, "Do you testify that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allâh?" The man replied, ‘Yes.’ The Messenger of Allâh thereupon said, "O Bilâl! Announce to the people to (start) fasting tomorrow." Related by the five Imâms. Ibn Khuzaimah and Ibn Hibbân graded it as Sahih. An-Nasâ’î said that it is most probably Mursal (a Hadîth in which the link between the Successor (Tâbi’î) and the Prophet is missing.

677. The mother of the believers, Hafsah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh (SAW) said, “Whoever does not form his intention to fast before Fajr, his fasting will not be accepted.” Related by the five Imâms, but At-Tirmidhi and An-Nasâ’î consider it to be related by Hafsah and not connected to the Prophet (SAW). Imam Ad-Dâraqutni transmitted, “No fasting is accepted for one who does not form the intention (to fast) the night before.” 202

678. ‘A’ishah (RAA) narrated, ‘One day the Messenger of Al-

lāh entered my house and said, “Is there anything here (to eat)?” I said, ‘No.’ He said, “I shall then be fasting (today).” Then he came to us another day and we said to him, ‘Someone has offered us some hais as a gift.’ He then said, “Show it to me. I had been fasting since this morning,” and he ate from it (as it was a voluntary fast and not during the obligatory fasting of Ramadān). Related by Muslim.

679. Sahl bin Sa’d (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, “People will always be fine (on the right path, or following the Sunnah) as long as they hasten to break their fast (in Ramadān).”204 Agreed upon.

680. Abu Hurairah (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah said, “Allāh, the Most Exalted said: “Those among My servants, who hasten to break their fast, are the most beloved (or dearest) to Me.” Related by at-Tirmidhi.

681. Anas (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh said, “Eat the suhûr (pre-dawn meal), for there are blessings in this meal.” Agreed upon.

203- A kind of food made of dates, fat and dried cheese.
204- Abū Dawūd added the following in a similar narration, ‘... because the Jews and the Christians delay doing so. (i.e. breaking their fast).’
682. Sulaimân bin 'Ámir Ad-Dabî (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, "When one of you is breaking his fast, he should eat some dates. If dates are not available, then break it with some water, for water is purifying." Related by the five Imâms. Ibn Khuzaimah, Ibn Hibbân and al-Hâkîm graded it as Sahîh.

683. Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated, The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ forbade us from practicing wîgâl in fasting (i.e. fasting continuously without breaking one's fast in the evening or eating before the following dawn). So a man said to him, 'But you practice wîgâl O Messenger of Allâh!' The Prophet Allâh ﷺ replied, "Which one of you is like me? I am given food and drink during my sleep by Allâh." So when people refused to stop wîgâl, the Prophet ﷺ fasted day and night continuously along with them for a day and then another day and then they saw the crescent (of the new month of Shawwâl). The Prophet ﷺ said to them, "If the crescent had not appeared, I would have made you fast for a longer period." That was a punishment for them because they refused to stop (practicing Wîgâl). Agreed upon.

684. Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, "Whoever does not give up forged speech and evil actions and does not abandon foolishness, Allah is not in need of his leaving food and drink (i.e. Allah will not accept his fasting).” Related by Al-Bukhārī and Abū Dawūd, and the wording is from the latter.

685. ‘A’ishah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah would kiss and embrace (his wives) while fasting, for he had the most control of all of you over his desires.’ Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim, who added in a narration, ‘In Ramadān.’

686. Ibn ‘Abbās (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah had himself cupped while he was in a state of Ḥaḍām, and had himself cupped while he was fasting.” Related by Al-Bukhārī.

Ahmad, Ibn Khuzaimah and Ibn Hibbān regarded it as authentic.²⁰⁵

²⁰⁵ The majority of scholars are of the opinion that cupping is allowed while fasting, as proved by the hadith of Ibn ‘Abbās that is narrated at a period of time later than that of Shaddād, as Ibn ‘Abbās accompanied the Prophet on his farewell pilgrimage. So, it was probably prohibited at Anas (RAA) narrated, 'The first time cupping was disliked for the one who is fasting was when Ja'far bin Abi Talib had himself cupped while fasting and the Messenger of Allâh (ﷺ) came across him and said, "Those two have broken their fast (meaning Ja'far and the man who was cupping him)." But later on the Prophet (ﷺ) allowed cupping for the one who is fasting. Anas used to have himself cupped while he was fasting. Related by Ad-Dara'uti, who regarded it as a strong hadith.

'A'ishah (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allâh (ﷺ) applied kohl to his eyes while he was fasting.' Related by Ibn Majah with a weak chain of narrators. According to At-Tirmidhî, nothing authentic has been related from the Prophet (ﷺ) concerning this issue, i.e. applying kohl, eye drops etc. to the eye while fasting.

Abu Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh (ﷺ) said, 'Whoever forgets that he is fasting, and eats or drinks is to complete his fast, as it was Allâh who fed him and gave him something to drink.' Agreed upon.

the beginning during fasting, but later it was allowed, and it is only disliked if the person becomes weak due to cupping while fasting.
691. Al-Hākim transmitted on the authority of Ābu Hurairah, “Whoever breaks his fast during Ramadān due to forgetfulness is not to make up for the day later or perform any expiation.” It is a sound hadith.

692. Ābu Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh صلی الله علیه وْسَلِیم said, “Whoever is overcome and vomits is not to make up for the day, but whoever vomits intentionally must make up the day.” Related by the five Imāms.

693. Jābir (RAA) narrated, The Messenger of Allāh صلی الله علیه وْسَلِیم left for Makkah during the year of the conquest (of Makkah) in Ramadān and he and the people with him fasted until he reached the valley of Kurā Al-Ghamīm. He then called for a cup of water, which he elevated so that the people could see it, and then he drank. Afterwards, he was told that some people had continued to fast, and he then said, “Those are the disobedient ones! Those are the disobedient ones!”

694. In another narration, ‘He was told that people are finding it difficult to fast (during the journey) and they are waiting to see what the Prophet \(\text{SAW}\) will do. So he called for a cup of water after the ‘Asr (afternoon) prayer and drank it.’ Related by Muslim.

695. Hamzah bin ‘Amro Al-Aslami (RAA) narrated, 'I said to the Messenger of Allah \(\text{SAW}\), 'O Messenger of Allah! I find within me the strength to fast while traveling. Would there be any blame upon me if I were to do so?’ The Messenger of Allah \(\text{SAW}\) said to him, "It is a concession from Allâh. Whoever takes it has done well. Whoever likes to fast, there is no blame upon him.” Related by Muslim.

696. Ibn ‘Abbâs (RAA) narrated, ‘An elderly man is permitted to break his fast, but he must feed a poor person daily, and he does not have to make up for it.’ Related by Ad-Dâraisequâni and Al-Hâkim, who rendered it to be Sahih.
697. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that a man came to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ and said, "I am ruined O Messenger of Allâh!" The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ asked him, "What has ruined you?" The man replied, 'I had intercourse with my wife during the day of Ramadan (while fasting)." The Prophet ﷺ said to him, "Are you able to free a slave?" The man said, 'No.' The Prophet ﷺ said, "Can you fast for two consecutive months?" He said, 'No.' The Prophet then asked him, "Can you provide food for sixty poor people?" He said, 'No.' Then the man sat down. A basket of dates was brought to the Prophet ﷺ and he said to the man, "Give this as Sadaqah (voluntary charity)." The man said, 'To someone who is poorer than us? There is no one in this city (Al-Madinah) who is in need of these dates more than us!' The Prophet ﷺ laughed until his molar teeth could be seen and said to the man, "Go and feed your family with these dates." Related by the seven Imâms and the wording is from Muslim.

698. 'Â'ishah and Umm Salamah (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ would rise in the morning (when it is already Fajr time) while he was Junub (in a state of major ritual impurity due to intercourse) on a day in Ramadân. He would then perform Ghusl and fast.' Agreed upon. In the narration of Muslim on the authority of Umm Salamah, 'And he would not make up for it (that day).'
699. 'A’ishah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “Whoever dies while he still has some fasts to make up (of the days of Ramadân), then his heir (any of them) should fast on his behalf.” Agreed upon.

Chapter II: Voluntary Fasting and Forbidden Days to Fast

700. Abû Qatâdah Al-Ansâri (RAA) narrated, “The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ was asked about fasting on the day of ‘Arafah (the 9th of the month of Dhul Hijjah). He replied, “Fasting on the day of ‘Arafah is an expiation for the preceding year and the following year.” He was also asked about fasting on the day of ‘Ashhūrâ’ (the 10th of the month of Muharram). He replied, “Fasting on the day of ‘Ashhūrâ’ is an expiation for the preceding year.” The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ was also asked about fasting on Monday, and he replied, “This is the day on which I was born and the day on which I was sent (with the Message of Islam) and the day on which I received revelation.” Related by Muslim.

701. Abû Aiyûb Al-Ansâri (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “Whoever fasts during the month of Rama-

702. Ābū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “No servant (of Allāh) fasts on a day (merely) for the sake of Allāh except that Allāh pushes the Hellfire seventy years further away from his face, due to fasting on this day.” Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim.

And I never saw the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ fast for a complete month except for the month of Ramadān, and I never saw him fast in a month more than he did in the month of Sha’bān.” Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim.

704. Ābū Dharr (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ commanded us to fast for three days of every month; that is on the days of the full moon; the 13th, 14th, and 15th (of the lunar Related by An-Nasài and At-Tirmidhî and rendered authentic by Ibn Hibbân.

705. Abû Hurairâh (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, "A woman is not to fast (even) for one day while her husband is present except with his permission." Agreed upon and the wording is from Al-Bukhari'. Abû Dawûd's version states, "unless it is during Ramadân (then she does not need his permission as it is obligatory fasting)."

706. Abû Sa'îd Al-Khudi (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ has prohibited fasting on two days; the day of Fitr (breaking the fast of Ramadân) and on the day of sacrifice (İdul Ad-hâ).’ Agreed upon.

707. Nubaishah Al-Hudhali (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, "The days of Tashriq (the three days following İdul Ad-hâ, i.e. 11th, 12th and 13th of Dhul Hijjah) are days of eating, drinking and remembering (dhikr) of Allâh, the Most Great and Glorious." Related by Muslim.

708. 'A'ishah and Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated, 'Nobody was allowed to fast on the days of Tashriq except for those, who could not afford the Hadi (sacrifice).’ Related by Al-Bukhārī.

709. Ābū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “Do not single out Friday night (i.e. the night preceding Friday) among all the other nights for performing the night prayer. 711. Ābū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “When it is the middle of Sha'bān do not fast (until it is Ramadān).” Related by the five Imāms, but Imām Ahmad declared it to be a weak narration.

712. As-Sammā’ bint Busr (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Do not fast on Saturday unless it is an obligatory fast. (Do not fast) even if you do not find anything (to eat) except for some grape peelings or the branch of a tree, in that case he should chew on it.” Related by the five Imāms and its narrators are reliable. Imām Mālik disapproved this narration, and Abū Dawūd said that this narration is abrogated.206

713. Umm Salamah (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to fast more often on Saturdays and Sundays than on the other days. He would say, “They are the ‘ids of the polytheists, and I love to act contrary to what they do.”’ Related by An-Nasā’ī and was rendered authentic by Ibn Khuzaimah, and the wording is his.

714. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ forbade fasting on the day of ‘Arafah for the one who is actually at ‘Arafah (i.e. performing Hajj). Related by the five Im-

206. İmām As-San’ā’i in ‘Subul As-Salām,’ says that probably Abū Dawūd says that it is abrogated, because he is referring to the following narration of Umm Salamah, who narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to often fast on Saturdays and Sundays. Imām At-Tirmidhī said that what is disliked here is for a person to exclusively choose Saturday as a day of fasting, as it is the day that the Jews honor. Anyway, most scholars said that it is disliked to fast on Saturday by itself due to the above mentioned Ahādīth, except for İmām Mālik, who said that it is permissible to fast on Saturday by itself, but the hadith of As-Sammā’ is evidence against his opinion.
áms except for At-Tirmidhî. Ibn Khuzaimah and al-Hâkim graded it as Sahih.

715. 'Abdullâh Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "May he, who perpetually fasts (without a break) never fast." 207 Agreed upon.

716. Muslim narrated on the authority of Abû Qatâdah, "May he not fast or break his fast,"

Chapter III: I’tikâf 208 and Night prayer (Tahajjud) in Ramadân

717. Abû Hurairah narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Whoever prays during the night in Ramadân out of

207. The Prophet ﷺ is probably rebuking the one who fasts continuously by making this du’â’ (supplication) against him, meaning to stop him from doing so. Or it could probably mean that this person will not be rewarded for this fast, as he is acting contrary to the Sunnah of the Prophet ﷺ who prohibited fasting on Id days and the other days mentioned above.

208. I’tikâf in this context means remaining in a mosque (preferably a congregational mosque) for a certain period of time with the intention of remaining in seclusion from worldly matters, and keeping oneself busy with acts of worship such as praying, fasting, reciting Qur’ân, dhikr etc. In other words one devotes himself purely to the worship of Allâh for that period of time, with the intention of getting closer to Allâh, the Almighty. It could be performed in Ramadân (which is recommended during the last ten days of the month) or at other times.
sincere faith and seeking its reward from Allāh, will have all of his previous sins forgiven.” Agreed upon.

718. ‘Ā’ishah (RAA) narrated, ‘With the start of the last ten days of Ramadān, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to tighten his waist belt (i.e. keep away from his wives) and used to stay up praying all night, and he would also wake his wives (to pray and recite Qur‘ān etc.).’ Agreed upon.

719. ‘Ā’ishah (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to perform I’tikāf during the last ten days of Ramadān until he died. Then his wives used to perform I’tikāf after his death.’ Agreed upon.

720. ‘Ā’ishah (RAA) narrated, “Whenever the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ intended to make I’tikāf, he would pray the morning prayer and then he would enter the place of his I’tikāf (i.e. the place, which he had prepared for his I’tikāf inside the mosque).” Agreed upon.

721. ‘Ā’ishah (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to put his head into (the window of my house) while he was in the mosque (performing I'tikāf) and I would comb his hair. When he was in I'tikāf he would not enter the house except for some need."

Agreed upon and the wording is from Al-Bukhāri.'

722. 'A'ishah (RAA) narrated, 'It is Sunnah for the one performing I'tikāf not to visit the sick, attend a funeral, or touch his wife (with sexual desire), nor have sexual intercourse with her. He should also not go out (of the mosque) except for an extreme necessity, and no I'tikāf is accepted without fasting, or without being in a congregational mosque (where Friday prayer is performed).'

Related by Abū Dawūd with an acceptable chain of narrators, but scholars say that the last part (starting: 'no I'tikāf is accepted...') is most probably the saying of 'A'ishah (RAA), i.e. Hadith Mauqūf (i.e. that which the companion does not connect to the Prophet ﷺ) and it is not the saying of the Prophet ﷺ himself.

723. Ibn 'Abbās (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "*The one who is performing I'tikāf does not have to fast unless he obliges himself to do so."

Related by ad-Dāraquṭnī and al-Hākim, and most probably it is also the saying of Ibn 'Abbās, i.e. Mauqūf and not of the sayings of the Prophet ﷺ.

209. According to most scholars it is preferable for one to fast while performing I'tikāf but he is not obliged to do so.
Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated, 'Some of the companions of the Prophet ﷺ were shown in their dreams that the night of Qadr was in the last seven nights of Ramadan. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said to them, “It seems that all of your dreams agree that (the Night of Qadr) is in the last seven nights, and whoever wants to seek that night should do so in the last seven nights (of Ramadan).” Agreed upon.

Mu'awiyah bin Abi Sufian (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allâh said regarding the night of al-Qadr, “It is the 27th night (of Ramadan).” Related by Abû Dawûd. But it is most probably the saying of Mu'awiyah and not the Prophet ﷺ.

210- The night of Qadr is the most virtuous night of the year, as Allâh says in the Qur'ân: "Verily! We have sent it in the night of al-Qadr. And what will make you know what the night of al-Qadr is? The night of Al-Qadr is better than a thousand months..." (Surah 97). Any action done on that night for example, reciting the Qur'ân, making dhikr of Allâh, and so on, is better than acting for one thousand months, which do not contain the night of Qadr. It is to be expected in the last ten days of Ramadân.

211- Scholars hold different opinions as to when the night of al-Qadr occurs. Some are of the opinion that it is the 21st, some say the 23rd, others say the 25th and yet others say that it is the 29th. Some are of the opinion that it varies from year to year, but most scholars believe that it is most probably the 27th of Ramadan due to the hadith related by Ahmad on the authority of Ibn 'Umar, that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “He who likes to seek that night should do so on the 27th.”
726. 'A'ishah (RAA) narrated, I asked the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, 'O Messenger of Allâh, if I know what night the night of Qadr is, what should I say during it?' He said, "Say: O Allâh, You are the Pardoner and You love to pardon, so pardon me." Related by the five Imâms except for Abû Dawûd. At-Tirmidhî and Al-Hâkim reported it as Sahih.

727. Abû Sa'id Al-Khudri (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “One should not undertake journeys except to three mosques: Al-Masjid al-Harâm (in Makkah), the Aqṣâ mosque, or this mosque (in Madinah).”212 Agreed upon.

212. Scholars say that if one makes a vow to perform I'tikâf in one of these three mosques in particular, then he should fulfill his vow, due to this hadith, which indicates that these mosques have special preference over any other mosque. But if someone vows to perform I'tikâf in another mosque, it is not obligatory on him to fulfill it and he may perform it in any place.
Chapter I: Its virtues and those upon whom Hajj (Pilgrimage) is obligatory

728. Abu Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, "The performance of Umrah is an expiation for all the sins committed (between this Umrah and the previous one), and the reward for Hajj Mabrur 213 (the one accepted by Allah or the one which was performed without doing any wrong) is nothing save Paradise." Agreed upon.

729. 'A'ishah (RAA) narrated, 'I once asked the Messenger of Allah, 'O Messenger of Allah! Is Jihad incumbent upon women? He replied, 'Yes. They have to take part in Jihad in which no fighting takes place, which is: Hajj and Umrah.'" Related by Ahmad and Ibn Majah and the wording is his. It is reported with a sound chain of narrators.

213. It is the Hajj accepted by Allah or the one, which is performed pure of any sins or evil actions.
730. Jābir bin 'Abdullāh (RAA) narrated, ‘A Bedouin came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, ‘O Messenger of Allāh! Tell me about Umrah! Is it compulsory? He replied ﷺ, “No (it is not compulsory), but it is better for you to perform it.” Related by Ahmad and at-Tirmidhi. Scholars are of the opinion that it is Mawquf. Ibn ‘Adi narrated with a weak chain of narrators on the authority of Jābir (RAA) in a Hadith Marfū’ (connected to the Prophet ﷺ), “Hajj and Umrah are compulsory.”

731. Anas (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was asked, ‘What is as-Sabīl? ’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ replied, “Provision of food and means to make the journey.” Related by Ad-Dāraquṭnī and rendered authentic by Al-Hākim.

732. At-Tirmidhī reported the same hadith on the authority of Ibn ‘Umar but with a weak chain of narrators.

214. Most scholars hold the opinion that Umrah is Sunnah and not a compulsory duty.

215. The man is asking about what is meant by being able to perform Hajj as mentioned in the verse, “And Hajj is a duty that mankind owes to Allāh, those who can afford the journey.” (3:97).
733. Ibn ʿAbbās (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allāh came across some riders at ar-Rauḥā’ (a place near Madīnah). He asked them, “Who are you?” They replied, ‘Who are you?’ He replied, “I am the Messenger of Allāh.” A woman then lifted up a boy, and asked the Prophet, ‘Will this boy be rewarded for Hajj?’ The Messenger of Allāh replied, “Yes, and you too will be rewarded.” 216 Related by Muslim.

734. Ibn ʿAbbās (RAA) narrated that ‘Al-Fadl Ibn ʿAbbās was riding behind the Messenger of Allāh when a woman from the tribe of Khath’ām came along, and al-Fadl started looking at her and she also started looking at him. The Messenger of Allāh kept on turning al-Fadl’s face to the other side. She said, ‘O Messenger of Allāh! Allāh has prescribed Ḥajj for His servants, and it has become due on my father who is an old man, who cannot sit stable on his mount. Shall I perform Ḥajj on his behalf?’ The Prophet replied, “Yes, you may.” This incident took place during

216. The boy will be rewarded for his obedience, while the mother will be rewarded for carrying and instructing him to perform Ḥajj. This hadith is evidence that performing Ḥajj by someone before attaining puberty is correct and acceptable, but once he attains the age of puberty, he is to perform Ḥajj once again, as Ḥajj is compulsory on adults only.
the Farewell Pilgrimage of the Prophet ﷺ. Agreed upon, and the wording is from Al-Bukhārī.

735. Ibn `Abbās (RAA) narrated, ‘A woman from the tribe of Juhaínah came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, ‘My mother had vowed to perform Hajj, but she died before fulfilling her vow. Should I perform Hajj on her behalf?’ The Prophet ﷺ said, “Yes perform Hajj on her behalf. Had there been a debt on your mother, would you have paid it or not? So, pay off her debt to Allāh, for He is most deserving of settlement of His debt.” Related by Al-Bukhārī.

736. Ibn `Abbās (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Any minor (child) who performs Hajj must perform it again after coming of age; any slave who performs Hajj and is then freed, must perform his Hajj again.” Reported by Ibn Shaibah and Al-Baihaqī. Its narrators are authoritative but scholars say that it is Mawqūf.
737. Ibn ‘Abbās (RAA) narrated, ‘I heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ saying, “A man must never be alone with a woman unless there is a Mahram 217 with her. A woman also may not travel with anyone except with a Mahram (relative).” A man stood up and asked, ‘O Messenger of Allah! My wife has gone for Hajj while I am enlisted for such and such a battle, what should I do?’ The Messenger of Allah ﷺ replied, “Go and join your wife in Hajj.” Agreed upon, and the wording is from Muslim.

738. Ibn ‘Abbās (RAA) narrated, “The Messenger of Allah ﷺ heard a man saying, ‘O Allah! Here I am in response to Your call (saying Labbayk on behalf...) on behalf of Shubrumah.’ The Messenger of Allah ﷺ asked him, “Have you performed your own Hajj?” He replied, ‘No,’ whereupon the Prophet ﷺ told him, “You must perform Hajj on your own behalf first, and then perform it on behalf of Shubrumah.” Related by Āбу Dawūd and Ibn Mājah. Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahīh.

739. Ibn ‘Abbās (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ once addressed us and said, “O People! Hajj has been prescribed for you.” Al-Aqra’ bin Habis stood up and asked, ‘O Prophet of Allah! Are we to perform Hajj every year?’ The Messenger of Allah said, “Had I said ‘yes’, it would have become a (yearly) obligation. Hajj is obligatory only once in one’s lifetime. Whatever one does over and above this is supererogatory (a voluntary act) for him.” Related by the five Imams except for at-Tirmidhi.

740. A similar narration was also related by Muslim on the authority of Abu Hurairah.

Chapter II: Mawāqit: Fixed Times and Places For Ihram

741. Ibn ‘Abbás (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah specified for the people of Madinah, DhulHulaifah (a place 540 km to the north of Makkah) as miqāt.218 For those coming from ash-Shām (including Syria, Jordan and Palestine), he specified al-Juḥfah (a place 187 km to the north-west of Makkah and close to Rābigh, where they now perform their Iḥrām). For those coming from Najd, he specified Qurayn al-Manāzil, (a mountain, 94 km to the east of Makkah, overlooking ‘Arafah. For those coming from Yemen, he specified Yalamlam (a mountain 54 km to the south of Makkah. These places are for the people (coming from the above specified countries) as well as for others, who pass by them on their way to perform Hajj or Umrah. Those living within those boundaries can assume Ihram from where they set out (for the journey), and even the residents of Makkah, their Miqât would be the place where they are staying in Makkah.' Agreed upon.

742. 'A'ishah (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah specified for those coming from Iraq, Dhât 'Irq (a place 94 km to the north-east of Makkah) as their Miqât.' Related by Abû Dawûd and An-Nasâ'î.

743. Muslim related a similar narration on the authority of Jâbir, but it is most probably Mawqûf.

744. Al-Bukhârî reported that it was 'Umar, who specified Dhât 'Irq as the miqât (of those coming from Iraq).219

745. Ibn 'Abbâs narrated that the Messenger of Allah specified al-'Aqîq (a part of Dhât 'Irq) for those coming from the east.' Related by Ahmad, Abû Dawûd and An-Nasâ'î.

Chapter III: Kinds of Ihram

746. ‘A’ishah (RAA) narrated, ‘We left Madinah with the Messenger of Allah ﷺ to perform the Farewell Hajj. Some of us declared Ihram to perform ‘Umrah, while others declared their intentions to perform both Hajj and ‘Umrah. Yet others declared their Ihram to perform Hajj only. The Prophet ﷺ declared Ihram for Hajj only. Those who intended ‘Umrah terminated their Ihram as soon as they finished the rituals of ‘Umrah. Those who intended to perform Hajj only or to combine Hajj with ‘Umrah, did not terminate their Ihram until the Day of Slaughtering (i.e. the day of sacrifice or ‘Idul Ad-ha).’ Agreed upon.

Chapter IV: The Etiquettes of Ihram

747. Ibn ‘Umar (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to start saying the Talbiyah (after entering the state of Ihram) from the mosque of Dhul Hulaifah (i.e. from the Miqat of Madinah).’ Agreed upon.

748. Khallād bin as-Sā‘ib narrated on the authority of his father, "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "Jibrīl (peace be upon him) came to me and told me: 'Command your Companions to raise their voices when saying Talbiyah.'" Related by the five Imāms and rendered authentic by At-Tirmidhī and Ibn Hibbān.

749. Zaid bin Thābit (RAA) narrated, "When the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ intended to make Ihram for Hajj, he would wash, and take off his ordinary clothes (and put on his white Ihram)." Related by At-Tirmidhī who declared it to be Hadith Ḥasan.

750. Ibn Umar (RAA) narrated, "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was asked about what the person who is in a state of Ihram (Muḥrīm) should wear. He answered, "A person in the state of Ihram is not allowed to wear a sewn shirt, a turban, trousers, a hooded robe, shoes or sewn slippers (Khuff), unless one is unable to find unsown slippers, then he may wear his Khuff or shoes provided one cuts them below the ankles, and you must not wear clothing that has been dyed with sweet smelling fragrance (such as saffron)." Agreed upon, and the wording is from Muslim.

220- Leather foot-wear which covers the ankles.
751. ‘Aishah (RAA) narrated, ‘I used to apply perfume to the Prophet when he intended to enter the state of Ihram, before he put on his Ihram (garments). And again when he ended his state of Ihram, but before he had made Tawaf around the Ka‘bah.’

Agreed upon.

752. Uthmán bin ’Affán (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh said, “A Muhrim (one in the state of Ihram) must not contract marriage, nor help others contract marriage, nor get engaged to marry.” Related by Muslim.

222. Abû Qatâdah reported that Allâh’s Messenger went out to perform Hajj and they accompanied him. The Prophet dispatched a group, including Abû Qatâdah, and told them to follow the seashore until they meet him again. All of them except for Abû Qatâdah were in the state of Ihram. On the way, they saw a herd of zebras. Abû Qatâdah caught a female zebra and they all ate from its meat, but they wondered if it was permissible for them to eat of it as they were in the state of Ihram (because it is not permissible for the one in the state of Ihram to engage in hunting or eating land game). Then they carried the rest of the meat to the Prophet, and told him the whole story. The Prophet asked them, “Did any of you ask Abû Qatâdah to attack the herd,.....”

Messenger \(\text{ﷺ} \) said to Abū Qatādah's companions—who were in a state of Ḥijārām, "Did any one of you ask Abū Qatādah to attack the herd, or point it out to him?" They said, 'No.' The Prophet \(\text{ﷺ} \) then said, "Then, you may eat what is left of the quarry." Agreed upon.

754. As-Sa'īb bin Jath-thamah al-Laithi (RAA) narrated, 'He presented to the Prophet \(\text{ﷺ} \) the meat of a zebra while he was in the area known as al-Abwā' or Waddān. The Prophet \(\text{ﷺ} \) declined it, and said to him, "We declined your present only because we are in the state of Ḥijārām." Agreed upon.

755. 'A'ishah (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allāh \(\text{ﷺ} \) said, "Five kinds of animals are vicious and harmful, and they may be killed outside or inside the sacred area of Haram (Sanctuary). These are: the scorpion, the kite, the crow, the mouse, and the rabid dog." Agreed upon.

(as in the hadith). Scholars deduced from this story that it is permissible for the Muhārim to eat land game as long as he did not ask for it to be hunted, pointed it out to the person who hunted it or helped in the hunt.

223- The Prophet \(\text{ﷺ} \) declined the present because the man caught it especially for the Prophet \(\text{ﷺ} \) while he was in the state of Ḥijārām. What is allowed for the mūhārim is to eat what was given as a present from land game that was not caught for the mūhārim but for the one who is not in the state of Ḥijārām, who caught it for himself and then decided to give some of it to the mūhārim as a present.
756. Ibn `Abbās (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ had himself cupped while he was in the state of Ihrām.’ Agreed upon.

757. Ka'b bin `Ujrah (RAA) narrated, ‘I was carried to the Prophet ﷺ and the lice were falling over my face. He said, “I did not know that your disease is hurting you as much as what I see. Can you sacrifice a sheep?” I said, ‘No.’ He then said, “Fast for three days or feed six poor people, half a Sā’ each.”’

Chapter V: Description of Hajj Rituals and Entering Makkah Jābir bin 'Abdullāh (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allāh  performed Ḥajj (on the 10th year of Hijrah), and we set out with him (to perform Ḥajj). When we reached Dhul-Hulaifah, Asmā' bint 'Umar gave birth to Muhammad Ibn Abī Bakr. She sent a message to the Prophet (asking him what she should do). He said, “Take a bath, bandage your private parts and make the intention for Ḥijrah.” The Prophet (then prayed in the mosque and then mounted al-Qaswa (his she-camel) and it stood erect with him on its back at al-Baidā (the place where he started his Ḥijrah). He then started pronouncing the Talbiyah, saying: “Labbaika Allāhumma labbaik labbaika la sharika laka labbaik, innal hamda wan-ni'mata laka wa'l mulk, la shariki lak (O Allah! I hasten to You. You have no partner. I hasten to You. All praise and grace is Yours and all Sovereignty too; You have no partner). When we came with him to the House (of Allah), he placed his hands on the Black Stone (Hajar al Aswad) and kissed it. He then started to make seven circuits (round the Ka'bah), doing ramal (trotting) in three of them and walking (at his normal pace) four other circuits. Then going to the place of Ibrahim (Maqam Ibrahim), there he prayed two rak'at. He then returned to the Black Stone (Hajar al Aswad) placed his hands on it and kissed it. Then he went out of the gate to Safa, and as he approached it, he recited: "Verily as-Safa and Marwah are among the signs appointed by Allah," (2:158), adding, "I begin with what Allah began." He first mounted as-Safa until he saw the House, and facing the Qiblah he declared the Oneness of Allah and glorified Him and said: 'La ilaha illa-llah wahdahu la sharika lahu, lahaul mulk wa lahaul hamd, wa huwa 'ala kulli shai'in qadeer, la ilaha illa-llah wahdahu wahdah' (There is no God but Allah, He is One, and has no partner. His is the dominion, and His is the praise and He has Power over all things. There is no God but Allah alone, Who fulfilled His promise, helped His servant and defeated the confederates alone.) He said these words three times making supplications in between. He then descended and walked towards Marwah, and when his feet touched the bottom of the valley, he ran; and when he began to ascend, he walked (at his normal pace) until he reached Marwah. There he did as he had done at Safa. . . .

When it was the day of Tarwiyyah (8th of Dhul-Hijjah) they went to Minâ and put on the Ihram for Hajj and the Messenger of Allah ﷺ rode his mount, and there he led the Dhuhr (noon), 'Asr (afternoon), Maghrib (sunset), 'Ishâ and Fajr (dawn) prayers. He then waited a little until the sun had risen, and commanded that a tent be pitched at Namirah (close to Arafah). The Messenger of Allah ﷺ continued on until he came to 'Arafah and he found that the tent had been pitched for him at Namirah. There he got down until the sun had passed its meridian; he commanded that al-Qaswa' be brought and saddled for him, then he came to the bottom of the valley, and addressed the people with the well-known sermon Khutbat al-Wadâ' (the Farewell Sermon). Then the Adhân was pronounced and later on the Iqâmah and the Prophet ﷺ led the Dhuhur (noon) prayer. Then another Iqâmah was pronounced and the Prophet Ò led the 'Asr (afternoon) prayer and he observed no other prayer in between the two.

The Messenger of Allah Ò then mounted his camel and came to the place where he was to stay. He made his she-camel, al-Qaswâ', turn towards the rocky side, with the pedestrian path lying in front of him. He faced the Qiblah, and stood there until the sun set, and the yellow light diminished somewhat, and the disc of the sun totally disappeared. He pulled the nose string of al-Qaswâ' so forcefully that its head touched the saddle (in order to keep her under perfect control), and pointing with his right hand, advised the people to be moderate (in speed) saying: “O people! Calmness! Calmness!” Whenever he passed over an elevated tract of land, he slightly loosened the nose-string of his camel until she climbed up. This is how he reached al-Muzdalifah. There he led the Maghrib (sunset) and 'Ishâ prayers with one Adhân and two Iqdmas, and did not pray any optional prayers in between them.

The Messenger of Allah Ò then lay down until dawn and then offered the Fajr (dawn) prayer with an Adhân and an Iqâmah when the morning light was clear. He again mounted al-Qaswâ', and when he came to Al-Mash'ar Al-Haram (The Sanctuary Landmark, which is a small mountain at al-Muzdalifah) he faced the Qiblah, and supplicated to Allâh, Glorified Him, and pronounced His Uniqueness and Oneness, and kept standing until the daylight was very clear. Then he set off quickly before the sun rose, until he came to the bottom of the valley of Mußassir where he urged her (al-Qaswâ’) a little. He followed the middle road, which comes out at the greatest Jamarah (one of the three stoning sites called Jamrat-ul 'Aqabah), he came to Jamarah which is near the tree. At this he threw seven small pebbles, saying, ‘Allâhu Akbar’ while throwing each of them in a manner in which small pebbles are thrown (holding them with his fingers) and this he did while at the bottom of the valley.

He then went to the place of sacrifice, and sacrificed sixty-three (camels) with his own hand (he brought 100 camels with him and he asked ‘Ali to sacrifice the rest). The Messenger of Allah Ò again rode and came to the House (of Allâh), where he performed Tawâf Al-Ifâdah and offered the Dhuhr prayer at Makkah...’ Muslim transmitted this hadith through a very long narration describing the full details of the Hajj of the Prophet Ò.

228- This hadith is reported to be weak, as it is reported with a weak chain of narrators. It has only been confirmed that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ placed his hands on the Black Stone and kissed it, not that he prostrated on it. The hadith of 'Umar (no. 770) proves this.

Then he would go ahead until he reached the bottom of the valley, where he would stand for quite a long time facing the direction of the Qiblah, and raising his hands, while supplicating Allāh. Then he went and threw seven pebbles at the second Jamrah (al-Jamarah al-Wosta) while saying Allāhu Akbar with each throw. He would then turn to the left of the bottom of the valley, stand there facing the Qiblah and supplicating to Allāh with his hands raised. Another man asked, 'I slaughtered the animal before I threw the pebbles?' Prophet ﷺ said, "There is no harm, go and throw your pebbles." Related by Al-Bazzâr and al-Hâkim graded it as Sahîh.

Jâbir bin Abdullâh (RAA) narrated, 'He heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say in the year of the Conquest (of Makkah) while he was in Makkah, "Allâh has prohibited the sale of alcohol, dead animals, pigs, and idols." People asked, 'O Messenger of Allâh! What about the fat of dead animals, it is used for greasing boats and skins and people use it for making oil for lamps.' He said, 'No, it is Harām.' The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ then added, "May Allāh curse the Jews, for Allāh made the fat (of animals) Harām (unlawful) for them, yet they melted the fat, sold it and ate its price." Agreed upon.

804. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ then said to Jābir, “Sell it to me for one Uqiyah [ounce] of gold.” Jābir said, ‘No.’ He again said, “Sell it to me for one Uqiyah of gold.” Jābir says, ‘I sold it for one Uqiyah and stipulated that I should ride it to my house.’ When we reached (Madīnah) I took that camel to the Prophet ﷺ and he gave me its price. I returned home but he sent for me (and when I went to him) he said, “Do you think that I asked you to reduce the price to take your camel? Take your camel and your money it is all yours.” Agreed upon and this is Muslim’s version.

Jābir (RAA) narrated, ‘A man decided that a slave of his would be free after his death, but the man had no other property. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ took the slave and called (the people) for one to buy him (from the Prophet ﷺ), and he sold him.’

Agreed upon.

Maimūnah (the wife of the Prophet ﷺ) (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was asked about a mouse that fell into a pot of clarified butter, and died inside it. He said, “Take out (the mouse) and what is around it, and throw it away. Then eat (the rest of) your clarified butter.” Related by Al-Bukhārī. Ahmad and an-Nasā’ī added the following, ‘in solid clarified butter’.

235. In the narration of Al-Bukhārī, Nu‘aim bin ’Abdullāh bought him and paid 800 Dirhams. Scholars say that this Hadith is evidence that the ruler can sell the property of a man who is bankrupt and divide the money among his debtors or give it to him to spend (as in this Hadith).
809. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “If a mouse fell into a pot of clarified butter, and the butter is solid, take it (the mouse) and what is around it out and throw it away. But if the butter was melted (i.e. in a liquid state) do not touch it (i.e. throw it all away).” Related by Ahmad and Abū Dawūd. Al-Bukhārī and Abū Hātim ruled it to be weak.

She returned, and at that time, the Messenger of Allâh \(\text{ﷺ}\) was present (at ‘A’ishah’s house). Barirah said to ‘A’ishah, ‘I told them about the offer but they did not accept it and insisted on having the WALA\(^{237}\) for themselves.’ The Prophet \(\text{ﷺ}\) heard that, and ‘A’ishah narrated the whole story to him. He then said to her, ‘Buy her and stipulate that the WALA\(^{237}\) should be yours, as WALA\(^{237}\) is (legally) for the manumitter.’ ‘A’ishah (RAA) did so and the Messenger of Allâh \(\text{ﷺ}\) stood up in front of the people, and after glorifying and praising Allâh, he said, ‘What about the people who impose conditions which are not in Allâh’s Book (i.e. contradictory to Islamic Shari’ah)? “Every condition that is not found in the Book of Allâh is invalid, even if its number is one hundred. Allâh’s decisions are the right ones and His conditions are the firmer ones, and the WALA\(^{237}\) is for the manumitter.” Agreed upon and the wording is from Al-Bukhârî.

In Muslim’s version, “Buy her and manumit her, and stipulate that her WALA\(^{237}\) loyalty is yours.”

\(^{237}\) WALA’ refers to the right of inheriting the property of a manumitted slave after his death. The one who has the most right to inherit from him is the one who manumitted him.

240- This narration refers to any water in excess of one’s needs whether found in land which is not owned by anybody, or in someone’s land, whether in a well or otherwise, as no one should prohibit others from using water which is in excess of his own need, as the Prophet $^{241}$ said that people are partners in water, grass and fire.

242. Sale involving risk or chance, i.e. the sale of what is not present at the moment.

243. Scholars disagreed on what is meant by a double sale in this hadith. Some say that it is selling commodities with two prices, one immediate and another higher, which is deferred to a later time, the second included an increase for the delayed selling of a commodity over its immediate price. But most scholars refuted this opinion claiming that it is a legitimate form of sale that existed in authentic texts (selling by installment). The second form is selling with two prices, one immediate and another higher, deferred and uncertain. The seller tells him, 'It is for such and such amount of cash and for such and such amount of delayed payment and they depart while being uncertain without having determined anything. This form is prohibited. Some scholars say that one of its forms is to make a double deal, one says I sell you my horse on the condition that you sell me your slave.
822. 'Amro bin Shu‘aib narrated on his father’s authority who reported from his grandfather (RAA) that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “It is prohibited to have a loan combined with a sale (in one deal), or having two conditions in a sale, or claiming a profit on something which is not in your possession.” Related by the five Imâms. At-Tirmidhi, Ibn Khuzaimah and al-Hâkim graded it as Sahih.

823. 'Amro bin Shu‘aib narrated on his father’s authority who reported from his grandfather (RAA) that ‘The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ prohibited Bai‘u al-Urbân (paying nonrefundable deposits).’ Related by Mâlik.

244- The seller stipulates that the buyer gives him a loan to sell him the goods, or that the buyer borrows the money from the seller as a condition to buy his commodity.

245- As long as the goods are still in the possession of the seller, the profit belongs to him until the transaction is complete. So he is the one who gains any profit or bears any loss. The buyer cannot claim any profit until he possesses the goods.

246- It is a form of prohibited sales in which a nonrefundable deposit is paid towards the price of an item. If the buyer decides to keep it, the deposit is part of the price, but if he does not, then the seller keeps the deposit.
824. Ibn `Umar (RAA) narrated, 'I bought some oil from the market and when I came to take it, I met a man who offered me a good profit (i.e. wanted to buy it from me). Chapter II: Options (al-Khiyar) in Business Dealings

Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh Ṭabarî noted, "The seller and the buyer have the right to go ahead (with the deal) or cancel it so long as they have not parted - physically - (and are still at the place of transaction), or until one of them gives the other the choice (to think over the deal for a few days even if they parted physically, or to go ahead with the deal before they part). If one of them gives the other this option and the deal is made on this condition, then it becomes binding (even before they part, according to the set condition). And if they part after they have made the bargain and none of them decided to abandon it, the agreement is also binding." Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim.

849. ‘Amro bin Shu‘aib narrated on his father's authority who reported from his grandfather (RAA), that the Messenger of Allâh Ṭabarî noted, "The seller and the buyer have the right to go ahead (with the deal) or cancel it as long as they have not parted - physically - (and are still at the place of transaction), unless it is a deal of choice, whereby one of them gives the choice to the other to go ahead with the deal or to cancel it before they actually part (i.e. on the spot). And it is not permissible for one of them to part from his companion (before they make the final agreement) for he may want to cancel the deal." 263

Chapter IV: Concession concerning 'Arāyā (Lending something for use) and the sale of Trees and fruit

869. Zaid bin Thābit (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allāh permitted selling the dates of 'Arāyā (the palm tree lent for use) if their dates are sold for measured amounts of dried dates.’ Agreed upon.

In the version of Muslim, ‘He gave the license regarding the fruit of the 'Arīya for its sale to the original owner.

870. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allāh gave permission for the selling of the dates of 'Arāyā, by estimating the amount of dates on the palm trees (unharvested) on the condition that their amount is less than five Awsuq269 or five Awsuq.’ Agreed upon.

268- During times of droughts, the Arabs had the habit of lending some of their palm trees to those who had none so as to eat the fruit of those trees for a certain period of time. Sometimes the owner of the palm trees would be bothered by the frequent coming into his garden of the one the tree is lent to. So, the Prophet gave them the permission (to the lender) to buy the dates while still unharvested (even though this is prohibited otherwise) from the man he lent it to, for an amount of weighed dried or fresh dates. So they would estimate the weight of the dates while still on the palm trees and buy them from the needy, for dried dates.

Why should you take the wealth of your brother unjustly?" Related by Muslim.

In another version, "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ commanded that the price of the fruit stricken with a Calamity, is to be remitted.'

875. 'Abdullāh Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "If someone buys pollinated date palms, their fruit belong to the seller unless the buyer stipulates that they will be for himself (and the seller agrees)." Agreed upon.

270. Jā'īḥah or Calamity could be any of the diseases or infestations which affect plants and may totally or partially destroy them. It could also be any unfortunate condition which was not caused by man, such as wind, snow, cold, lack of water etc.

271. There is a difference of opinion among the scholars over the Jā'īḥah. Shāfi'ī and Abū Hanīfah are of the opinion that if the fruit was sold before being ripe, while it was still on the tree, then the seller is not to take any money as it is prohibited to sell fruit before it is ripe (while on the tree), but if they are sold after becoming ripe, then the seller is not to repay the buyer any of the price. Ibn Hanbal is of the opinion that the price of any damaged fruit is not to be claimed by the seller, and the buyer has the right to ask for a reduction in this case. Still many scholars believe that it is recommended as a moral obligation that the seller does not claim the full price, as compensation to his Muslim brother for his loss, and that is actually the implicit recommendation in this hadith.

And if the buyer dies, the owner of the goods is then equivalent to the other creditors (i.e. he is no more entitled than them in taking his goods back)."

888. Abū Dawūd and Ibn Mājah related the same Hadith on the authority of ʿUmar b. al-Khaṭāb (RAA) to tell him about one of our friends who had gone bankrupt. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "Give him Sadaqah (charity)." People paid him charity, but that was not enough to pay his debt. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to his creditors, "Take what you find, and that is all you may have." Related by Muslim.

891. Kaʿb bin Mālik narrated on the authority of his father (RAA), 'The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ suspended the property of Muʿādh (prohibiting him from making any deals) and sold it to repay a debt that was due on him.' Related by Ad-Dāraqutnī and was graded as Sahih by Al-Hākim.

892. Ibn Umar (RAA) narrated, 'I was presented to the Prophet ﷺ on the Day of Uhud when I was fourteen years of age (to ask him for permission to fight with the men), but he did not allow me (to take part in the battle). I was again called on the Battle of al-Khandaq (the Trench) when I was fifteen years old, and he allowed me (to take part in the battle).”\textsuperscript{279} Agreed upon.

Al-Baihaqi’s version has, ‘He did not allow me as he did not see that I have attained puberty.’ Ibn Khuzaimah graded it as \textit{Sahih}.

893. Āṭiyah al-Quradhi (RAA) narrated, ‘We were brought to the Prophet \( \text{ﷲ} \) on the Day of Quraidhah. Those who had begun to grow (pubic) hair were killed, and those who had not grown hair, were set free. I was among those who had not grown any (pubic) hair, so I was set free.’ Related by the four Imāms and rendered as \textit{Sahih} by Ibn Hibbān and Al-Hākim.

894. Amro bin Shu‘āib narrated on the authority of his father on the authority of his grandfather (RAA) that the Messenger of Allāh ﷲ said, “\textit{It is not permissible for a woman to give (any part of her possessions) except with the permission of her husband.}”

In another version, “\textit{It is not permissible for a woman to be in charge of any of her property if her husband has the full} right to divorce her. Related by Ahmad and the authors of the Sunan except for At-Tirmidhi. Al-Hâkim graded it as Sahîh.

Qâbîsah bin Mukhârîq (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “Asking for (the money of) Zakâh, is justified only for the following three: first, a man who is in debt, it is then permissible for him to receive [Zakâh] until his difficulty is resolved; second, a man who was struck by calamity which destroyed his holdings, which also makes it permissible for him to receive [Zakâh] until he is in a position to earn his own sustenance; and third, a man who has been reduced to poverty and three persons of caliber from among his people testify to his desperate situation, will receive until he finds for himself a means of support.” Related by Muslim.

280. Imâm al-Khaṭṭâbî said that this is not an obligation on the woman, rather it is just preferable due to the joint life between them to take his permission, or that this is only relevant to a woman who has not reached puberty. This is supported by the Hadith, which relates that the Prophet ﷺ said to the women (on the Day of al-Adâ’), “Give Charity”, and the women straight away started to throw their jewelry to the Prophet ﷺ, whether ear-rings, rings etc, and Bilâl was collecting them in his garment, and this is considered as giving of their property without the permission of the husband, and this is the opinion of the scholars.
Chapter VII: Reconciliation

896. 'Amro bin 'Auf al-Muzani (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “Reconciliation is permissible between Muslims, except one which makes something that is lawful (Halâl) as unlawful, or makes something which is unlawful (Harâm) as lawful. Muslims are to adhere to their terms (conditions) save a term that permits something which is unlawful (Harâm) or prohibits something which is lawful (Halâl).” Related by At-Tirmidhî who graded it as Sahîh, but scholars disagreed with him because the narration of Kathîr bin 'Abdullâh bin 'Amro bin 'Auf is weak. Perhaps at-Tirmidhî considered it reliable as it was narrated through many chains of narrators.

897. Ibn Hibbân rendered it as a Hadîth Sahîh on the authority of Abû Hurairah.

898. Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “No one should prevent his neighbor from fixing a wooden peg in his wall.” Abû Hurairah then said (to his companions), ‘Why do I find you averse to it? By Allâh, I will always

Chapter VIII: Hiwālah (Transferring the Right to Collect a Debt) and Damān (Guaranteeing Payment)

900. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh said, “Lingering in repaying due debts by a wealthy person is an act of injustice. And if one of you is referred to a wealthy person (i.e. his debt is transferred to that person to pay it on his behalf), he should accept it” Agreed upon.
Jābir (RAA) narrated, 'A man from among us died, so we made Ghusl for him and shrouded him, and we brought him to the Prophet ﷺ, and said, 'Shall we offer the funeral prayer (Janāzah) for him?' Allāh's Messenger ﷺ made a few steps forward and then said, "Is he in debt?" We replied, 'Yes, two Dinārs (that he owes to somebody).’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ then turned away, but Abū Qatādah took upon himself the responsibility to pay the debt. We then went back to the Prophet ﷺ and Abū Qatādah said, 'I shall pay the two Dinārs.' The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ thereupon said, "Are you taking the responsibility of paying the creditor his rights? In that case the dead will be free from this obligation" Abū Qatādah said, 'Yes.' The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ then offered the funeral prayer for the deceased. Related by Ahmad, Abū Dawūd and An-Nasā’ī. Ibn Hibbān and al-Hākim graded it as Sahīh.

Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated, 'Whenever a man, who had died while being in debt was brought to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ, he would ask, 'Has he left anything to repay his debt?’ If he was told that he had left something to repay his debts, he would lead the funeral prayer for him, otherwise he would say, "Offer the funeral prayer for your brother.” When Allāh guaranteed His Messenger ﷺ wealth through conquests, he said, 'I am closer to the believers than themselves, so if a Muslim dies while in debt, I am responsible for the repayment of his debt.” Agreed upon.

In a version by Al-Bukhārī, “Whoever dies without leaving anything to pay his debt, I am responsible...”

903. ‘Amro bin Shu‘aib narrated on the authority of his father on the authority of his grandfather, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “No guarantee (i.e. guaranteeing another’s appearance) is accepted in prescribed punishments.” Related by Al-Baihaqī with a weak chain of narrators.

905. As-Sā‘ib Al-Makhzumi (RAA) narrated that he was the partner of the Prophet ﷺ before the Message. On the Day of the Conquest of Makkah, the Prophet ﷺ said (to him), “Welcome my

908. Urwah al-Bārīqi (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh gave him a Dīnār to buy him a sacrificial animal or sheep (refer to hadith no. 839.) Related by Al-Bukhārī.

909. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh sent ‘Umar to collect the Zakāh property.’ Agreed upon.
Jābir bin ʿAbdullāh (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah legatec sixty-three (camels) and ordered ʿAlī to slaughter the rest (refer to hadith 760).’ Related by Muslim.

Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated with relevance to the story of the hired slave (who committed adultery with the wife of his master), “Go Unais to the wife of this (man, i.e. the master) and if she confesses (that she has committed adultery), then stone her to death.” Agreed upon.

281- For which he (the person lent to) is financially liable if it is destroyed due to negligence or being used for other than what the lender permitted.
282- Some scholars take this hadith as evidence that the person who borrows an item for a certain period of time is not financially liable for its destruction but is only responsible to give it back as long as it is safe. But most scholars are of the opinion that if a lent item is lost or destroyed due to misuse then the person who borrowed it must pay its price which is the ‘Arîya Madmûnah.
Related by Ahmad, Abū Dawūd and An-Nasā’ī. Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahih.

The Prophet collected the shattered pieces and put the food back in it and said to them, “Eat.” The Messenger of Allah then gave another unbroken bowl to the servant and kept the broken one.’ Related by Al-Bukhari and At-Tirmidhi, who mentioned that the one who broke the bowl was ‘A’ishah (RAA). He also added in his version, ‘and the Messenger of Allah said, “Food for food and a bowl for a bowl.”

920. Rafe‘ bin Khadij (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, “If anyone sows in other people’s land without their permission, he has no right to any of the crop, but he may get back what it cost him.” Related by Ahmad, and the four Imams except for An-Nasa‘i. Urwah bin Az-Zubair (RAA) narrated, 'A man from the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ said, 'Two men came to the Prophet disputing over a piece of land, in which one of them had planted palm-trees and the land belonged to the other.' The Prophet ﷺ judged that the land belonged to its original owner and commanded the other to take out his palm-trees (which he planted unjustly), and said, "No right pertains to the one who plants the land of others wrongfully." Related by Abū Dawūd with a good chain of narrators.

928. Jābir (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "The neighbor has the most right to the preemption of his neighbor's property. He should be waited for (before selling it) even if he was absent, when the two properties share the same road." Related by Ahmad and the four Imāms with a reliable chain of narrators.

929. Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "The right of the neighbor for preemption is similar to loosening a strap."284 Related by Ibn Majah and Al-Bazzār who added, "There is no preemption for one who is absent." But it is narrated through a weak chain of narrators.

284. The Prophet ﷺ is drawing a parallel between the two cases. When the strap of the camel is loosened it flees immediately, the same applies if the neighbor does not hurry to buy the property which is on sale, then his right to buy it will be lost just as fast as the running of the camel. But this Hadith is Râfi’ replied, 'There is no harm in doing that, people used to rent land during the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ for what grew by the streamlets or by the beginning or end of water canals, or for something from the crops. But sometimes, one portion of the product would be destroyed while the other would be saved, whereas (on other occasions) this portion was saved and the other was destroyed and thus no rent was payable to the people (who let out the lands) but for this one (which was saved). It was due to this that he (the Holy Prophet ﷺ) prohibited it, unless the land was let out for something, which is well known and reliable to be paid(such as money or something of known value) there is no harm in it.' Related by Muslim.

Chapter XVI: Cultivation of a Barren Land (making it fertile)

943. ’Urwah narrated on the authority of ‘Â’ishah (RAA) that ‘Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “He who cultivates land that does not belong to anybody has more right to it than anybody

945. Ibn 'Abbas (RAA) narrated that as-Sa'b bin Jath-thāmah al-Laithī told him that the Prophet ﷺ said, “No Ḥima except for Allāh and His Messenger.” Related by Al-Bukhārī.

946. Ibn 'Abbās (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh...

289. A Ḥima is an area in which grazing is only restricted—unjustly—to a certain person who prohibited others from entering it or letting their animals graze in it. They used to practice this in Jahiliyyah by letting a dog bark on a high land, and as far as his barking is heard, is considered a Ḥima for this person. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ prohibited this and only allowed it for the Imām or the ruler of the Muslims, who can make an area of land as Ḥima for a purpose, which he considers to be beneficial for the Muslims such as making it a Ḥima for the grazing of the camels of Zakāh. This Hadith prohibits taking a Ḥima by anybody except as that which the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ took as Ḥima i.e. it is only the right of the Imām or ruler of the Muslims. 'Umar bin al-Khaṭṭāb (RAA) made places called ar-Rabdah and ash-Sharaf Ḥima for grazing the animals of Zakāh.

Related by Ibn Majah with a weak chain of narrators.

Chapter XVII: Waqf (Endowment)

953. Abu Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “When a person dies, (the reward of) his deeds stops except for three: “A perpetual Sadaqah (Sadaqah Jâriyah), knowledge from which benefit is (continuously) gained, or a pious child who is invoking Allâh for him.” Related by Muslim.
954. Ibn Umar (RAA) narrated, 'Umar got some land in Khairbar and he went to the Prophet to consult with him about it. He said, 'O Messenger of Allah! I got some land in Khaibar more valuable and precious to me than any other property I ever had.' The Messenger of Allah said to him, "If you wish you can give the land as endowment (waqf) and give its fruit in charity." So, 'Umar gave it in charity as an endowment (waqf) on the condition that the land would not be sold, inherited or given away as a gift. Its yield would be given in charity to the poor, relatives, for the emancipation of slaves, for the Cause of Allah (i.e. Jihad), to travelers and guests; and that there would be no harm if the guardian of the endowment ate from it according to his need but with moderation, and to give a friend food to eat provided he is not storing it (the fruit) for the future (i.e. he should not own any of its benefits).’ Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim.

A version by al-Bukhari has: 'He gave it as Sadaqah that must not be sold (as it is not permitted to sell the waqf) or gifted but its yield must be spent (as Sadaqah)

955. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated, The Messenger of Allah sent Umar (RAA) to collect Zakāh...." As for Khalid he has retained his coats of mail and weapons (as endowment) to use them in Allāh's Cause." Agreed Upon.

Chapter XVIII: Gifts, Umra\(^{290}\) (Life-Tenancy) and Ruqba

956. An-Nu‘mān bin Al-Bashīr narrated that his father took him to the Prophet ﷺ and said, 'I have given this son of mine a slave who belonged to me.' The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ asked him, "Have you given all your sons the same (gift)?" He replied, 'No.' The Prophet ﷺ said, "Then take hack your gift."

In another version, 'My father hurried to the Prophet ﷺ to ask him to be witness on my gift. The Prophet ﷺ asked him, "Have 290. Umra means that a man gives another man a house and says to him, 'I give it to you to live in as long as you live,' and is considered a gift. Ruqba literally means watching for, it means that a man gives a house to another man and says to him, 'If I die first, then it is yours, and if you die first it is mine.' So it is called Ruqba because each of them is watching for the death of the other. Therefore it is disliked as each of the two men hope for the death of the other, but Islam stopped this practice as it considers Ruqba a permanent gift that will be inherited by the heirs of the one it is given to.

you done the same with all your children (i.e. have you given each of them the same gift?) He replied, 'No.' The Prophet ﷺ said, "Fear Allāh and be just with your children." My father then returned and took back his gift. Agreed upon.

In a narration by Muslim, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "Let someone else be witness to this (gift)." He then said to him, 'Would you like them to treat you well equally?' Nu'mān said, 'Yes.' The Prophet ﷺ then said, "Don't do it then."

957. Ibn ʿAbbās (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "The one who seeks to take back his gift (which he has already given) is like a dog which swallows its vomit."291 Agreed upon.

In a version by Al-Bukhārī, "A bad example is not considered one of us. He who takes back his gift is like a dog that swallows its vomit."

958. Ibn ʿUmar and Ibn ʿAbbās narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "It is not lawful for a Muslim to give a gift to someone and then take it back, except for a father concerning what he gives his son (he can then take it back).” Related by the four Imāms and Ahmad. At-Tirmidhi, Ibn Hibbān and al-Hākim graded it as Sahih.

291 - This hadith is proof that taking back a gift, which has already been given is absolutely prohibited except for the gift which is given by the parent to his/her child.
959. 'A'ishah (RAA) narrated, 'Allah's Messenger ﷺ used to accept presents and used to also give presents in return.' Related by Al-Bukhārī.

960. Ibn 'Abbās (RAA) narrated, 'A man gave a she-camel as a present to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, so he gave him something in return for it and asked him, "Are you satisfied?" The man replied, 'No.' The Prophet ﷺ then gave him more and asked again, "Are you satisfied?" The man replied, 'No.' Again the Prophet ﷺ gave him more and asked him, "Are you satisfied?" The man replied, 'Yes.' Related by Ahmad. Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahīh.

961. Jābir (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, 'al-Umrah belongs to the one to whom it is given.' Agreed upon.
Muslim transmitted, "Keep your property for yourselves and do not waste them away, for whoever gives 'Umrá (lifetenyancy) to anyone, it belongs to the one to whom it is given both during his life, after his death and then to his descenddants."

In another version, "The 'Umrá, which the Messenger of Allâh allowed (to be given to his descendants after his death) is the one in which the one (who is giving away the property) says: 'It is for you and for your descendants.' But if he says, 'It is for you as long as you live.' It is returned to its original owner. In a version by Abû Dawûd and An-Nasâ‘î,'Do not give property to others by way of Ruqbâ and 'Umrá for if anyone is given either of them, the property goes to his heirs.'

962. 'Umar (RAA) narrated, 'I gave a horse -in charity- to a man to use in Jihâd in the Cause of Allâh. The man did not look after it properly, and I thought he would sell it for a cheap price. I asked the Messenger of Allâh about this (i.e. buying it myself).'
The Prophet said to him, "You should not buy it, even if he gave it to you for a Dirham (he should not take it back as he gave it in charity and it is considered as a gift)." Agreed upon.

963. Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh said, "Exchange presents between yourselves as this creates love between you." Related by Al-Bukhârî in his book 'al-Adab al-Mufrad.' Abû Ya'la with a good chain of narrators.

964. Anas (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh said “Exchange presents between yourselves as this extra-cts grudge gently (from your hearts).” Related by Al-Bazzâr with a weak chain of narrators.

965. Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “O Muslim women! None of you should look down upon the present sent by her (female) neighbor even if it were the trotters of a sheep.” Agreed upon.

966. Ibn ‘Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “If anyone gives away a gift he is the one who has most right to it as long as he was not given anything in return.” Related by al-Hâkim who graded it as Sahîh.

Chapter XIX: Luqatâh (Lost and found items)

967. Anas (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ passed by a fallen date in the street and said, “Were it not for my doubt that this might have been given in charity, I would have eaten it.” Agreed upon.

292- It is well known that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ does not eat out of charity but would only eat what is given to him as a present.
968 - وَعَنَّ رَبِّي بْنِ حَالِدِ الْعُجَّابِ قَالَ : جَاءَ رَجُلٌ إِلَى النَّبيّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمُ فَسَأَلَهُ عَنِ اللْقَطَةِ، فَقَالَ : «أَعْطِ عَفَاصَتَهَا وَوَكَأَكَا، ثُمَّ عَفَاصَتُهَا سَنَةً، فَإِنَّ جَاءَ صَاحِبَهَا وَإِلَاَّ فَاسَآئَلَ يَا بَنَى»، قَالَ : فَسَأَلَّاهُ النَّبِيّ، قَالَ : «هَيْ لَنَا لَوْ أَلَحَكْمُ، أَوْ لِلذَّنْبِ»، قَالَ : فَسَأَلَّاهُ النَّبِيّ، قَالَ : «مَا لَكَ وَلَيْسَ مَعَهُ سَقَوْا إِنَّدِهَا وَحَدَاوَهَا».

968. Zaid bin Khālid al-Juhānī narrated, 'A man came to the Prophet ﷺ and asked him about al-Luqatah (lost items found on the ground and picked up by someone). The Prophet ﷺ said, "determine its container, and the string with which it is tied, and then announce publicly for a year that it has been found. If the owner shows up, give it to him, otherwise use it as you like (as it has entered his possession)." The man again asked, 'What about a lost sheep?' The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "It is for you, your brother or a wolf." The man again said, 'What about a lost camel?' The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "Why should you take it as it has got its water container (its stom-ach), and its hooves and it can reach the places of water and can eat from the trees until its owner finds it?" Agreed upon.

969. Zaid narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "He who keeps a stray property (luqatah), he himself has gone astray, unless he announces that he found it." Related by Muslim.

970 - وَعَنِّ ابْنِ عَبَّاسِ بْنِ جَعْفَرٍ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَ عَنْهُ، قَالَ : قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمُ: «مَنْ جَاهَ لَالنْقَلَةِ فَلْيُحْفَظُ عَفَاصُهَا وَكَأَكَا، ثُمَّ لَا يُكَفُّ، وَلَا يُعْبِدُ، فَإِنَّ جَاءَ رَأْيَهَا فَهُوَ أَحْيَا بِهَا، وَإِلَّا فَهُوُ مَا لَهُوُ الْمَلَأُ اللَّهُ يَؤْتِيهِ مِنْ بَيْنَاهُ.» رَوَاهُ أَحْمَدُ وَالْأَرْبَعَةِ إِلاَّ الْمُتَرْمِدِي، وَسَحَّاحَةُ أبِنِ حَنَّةٍ، وَأَبِنِ الْجَارِرَةِ، وَأَبِنِ حَبَّانٍ.
970. 'Iyād bin Ḥimār (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “He who finds a lūqātah should call two trusty witnesses (to show them what he found) determine its container, and the string with which it is tied, and he should not conceal it or cover it up. If its owner shows up he is the one who is entitled to take it back, otherwise it is the property of Allāh, which He gives to whom He wishes.” Related by Ahmad and the four Imāms except for At-Tirmidhī. Ibn Khuzaymah, Ibn al-Gārūd and Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahīh.

971. 'Abdur Rahman bin Uthmān At-Taimi narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ prohibited picking up the lūqātah of the pilgrims.” Related by Muslim.

972. Al-Miqdām bin Ma’diakrib (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “It is not lawful to eat predatory wild animals that prey with fangs, or a domestic ass, and it is not lawful to keep the lūqātah of one who has been given a covenant (by Muslims) unless he disposes of it.” Related by Abū Dawūd.

باب العرائض

Chapter XX: Inheritance

973. Ibn `Abbās (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh
M said, "Give the shares ordained (by Allah) to their rightful heirs. Whatever is left after that goes to the nearest male heir (to the deceased)." Agreed upon.

74. 974. Usâmah bin Zaid (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "A Muslim is not to inherit a disbeliever and a disbeliever is not to inherit a Muslim." Agreed upon.

975. Ibn Masʿúd (RAA) narrated concerning the inheritance of a daughter, a son's daughter (granddaughter) and a sister, surviving the deceased. The Prophet ﷺ ordained that the daughter's share is one half, the son's daughter is one-sixth and whatever remains is the sister's." Related by Al-Bukhârî.

976. 'Abdullâh Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "The followers of two different religions may not inherit from each other." Related by Ahmad, the four Imâms and At-Tirmidhî.
Imrân bin Ḥusain (RAA) narrated, ‘A man came to the Prophet and said, ‘My son’s son has died. What is my share from his inheritance?’ The Messenger of Allâh said, “You get one sixth.” When the man turned away, the Messenger of Allâh called him and said, “You are entitled to another sixth.”

When the man turned away, the Messenger of Allâh called him and said, “The other sixth is an extra allowance (to what is ordained for you).” Related by Ahmad and the four Imâms. At-Tirmidhi graded it as Sahîh.

Ibn Buraidah (RAA) narrated on the authority of his father (RAA) that the Messenger of Allâh appointed a sixth to the grandmother if no mother was left to inherit with her.” Related by Abû Dawûd and An-Nasă‘î. Ibn Khuzaimah and Ibn al-Gârûd graded it as Sahîh.

The deceased in this case left two daughters and his father surviving him. The two daughters are entitled to 2/3 of the estate. The remaining third will be given to the grandfather, but his prescribed share is only one sixth and the other sixth will be given back to him as there are no other heirs. In this case the grandfather is considered to be ‘Agabah, which refers to the relatives of the deceased on his father’s side. They are entitled to take the rest of the estate after the fixed (prescribed) shares are distributed, which applies to this case. The Messenger of Allâh wanted to teach the man that his prescribed share is only one sixth and not one third. That is why he gave him one sixth when he asked about his inheritance, and then called him again and told him that this other sixth is an extra amount to his share as it is given back to him for being ‘Agabah in the absence of any other heirs.
979. Al-Miqdām bin Ma'diakrib (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh said, “The maternal uncle is the inheritor of those who have no (standard) heirs.” Related by Ahmad and the four Imāms except for At-Tirmidhī. Abū Zar'ah ar-Rāzī graded it as Ḥasan, but al-Hākim and Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahih.

980. Abū Umāmah bin Sahl (RAA) narrated, ‘Umar wrote to Abū Ubaidah (RAA) that the Messenger of Allāh said, “Allāh and His Messenger are the guardians of the one who does not have a guardian; and a maternal uncle inherits from the one who does not have any (standard) heirs.” Related by Ahmad and the four Imāms except for Abū Dawūd. At-Tirmidhī graded it as Ḥasan and Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahih.

981. Jābir (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh said, “As soon as the infant cries (at the moment of birth) it is entitled to inherit.” Related by Abū Dawūd. Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahih.

294. In this case the deceased has no ‘Asabah (relatives on his father's side) and no other heirs who are entitled to obligatory shares.

295. When the heir of someone who died is expecting a child, the estate is not to be divided until the child is born.
982. ‘Amro bin Shu‘aib narrated on the authority of his father on the authority of his grandfather that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, "A killer does not receive (a share of the) inheritance (of the one he killed)." Related by An-Nasâ‘î and Ad-Dâraqutnî.

983. Umar bin al-Khattâb (RAA) narrated, 'I heard the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ say, "Whatever rights gained by the father or child (meaning al-Walâ’296) are to be transferred to his ‘Agâbah (relatives on his father's side) regardless of their degree of kinship297 (meaning that loyalty is not inherited and does not follow the rules of inheritance)." Related by Abû Dawûd, An-Nasâ‘î and Ibn Mâjah. Ibn al-Madînî and Ibn ‘Ahdul Barr graded it as Sâhîh.

296. Walâ’ refers to the right of inheriting the property of a manumitted slave after his death. The one who has the right to inherit him is the one who manumitted him. In Jâhiliyyah; before Islam, they used to sell thisWalâ’ or give it as a gift but Islam prohibited this.

297. Most scholars are of the opinion that Walâ’ is not part of the inheritance of the deceased. For example if a man manumitted a slave, and he has two sons, and one of his sons had a child and then died. If the manumitter dies, the Walâ’ of the manumitted slave (his inheritance) goes to his son alone and is not to be shared between the son and the grandson as would be in the case of inheritance. This means that Walâ’ is the right of the closest ‘Agâbah of the deceased and not to be distributed as part of his inheritance.
984. 'Abdullāh Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "The Walā' (of a manumitted slave) is considered as one's lineage, not to be sold or donated" (refer to hadith no. 816)." Related by al-Hākim through Ash-Shāfī'i on the authority of Muḥammad bin Al-Ḥasan, on the authority of Abī Yūsuf Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahih.

985. Abū Qalābah narrated on the authority of Anas (RAA) that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "The one who is most knowledgeable of the laws of inheritance is Zaid bin Thābit." Related by Ahmad and the four Imāms except Abū Dawūd. At-Tirmidhī, Ibn Hibbān and al-Hākim graded it as Sahih.

باب الوصايا

Chapter XXI: Wills (Bequests)

986. 'Abdullāh Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "It is not rightful for a Muslim, if he has anything to bequeath, that he sleeps two consecutive nights without having with him his written will." Agreed upon.

298. This hadith again assures the fact that Walā' is like the lineage of a person. The inheritance still goes to the one who paid the money to the slave and is not to be sold or donated as soon as the slave dies, as the link to the manumitter still holds.
987. Sa’d bin Abi Waqqas (RAA) narrated, ‘I said, ‘O Messenger of Allah! I have a lot of money, and no heirs but my daughter. Shall I give (bequeath) two thirds of my wealth as charity?’ He replied, “No.” I said, ‘Then half of it?’ He replied, “No.” I said, ‘Then one third of my wealth?’ He replied, “Yes one third; and even one third is too much. Indeed, to leave your inheritors rich (after your death) is better than leaving them as a burden begging from people.” Agreed upon.

988. ‘A’ishah (RAA) narrated, “A man came to the Messenger of Allah and said, ‘O Messenger of Allah! My mother died suddenly and did not write a will, and I believe that if she had been able to speak (now), she would have given it in charity. Would she be rewarded if I pay the charity on her behalf?’ The Messenger of Allah said, ‘Yes.” Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim.

989. Abū Umāmah al-Bāhili (RAA) narrated, ‘I heard the Messenger of Allah say, “Allah has given every one who is entitled to a right (in inheritance) what is due to him, no will may be made to a (standard) heir." Related by Ahmad and the four Imāms except for An-Nasāʾī. Ahmad and at-Tirmidhī graded it as Ḥasan. Ibn Khuzaimah and Ibn al-Gārūd graded it as a strong Hadith.

990. Ad-Dāraqutnī transmitted a similar narration on the authority of Ibn ʿAbbās (RAA) and added the following, “Unless the heirs agree to it (i.e. making a will for an heir).” Its chain of narrators is Ḥasan.

991. Muʿādh bin Jabal (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh  said, “Allāh gave you as a charity a third of your property when you are about to die, as an addition to your good deeds.” Related by Ad-Dāraqutnī.

992. Ahmad and al-Bazzār transmitted it on the authority of Abū Ad-Darda’.

993. Ibn Mājah transmitted the same narration on the authority of Abū Hurairah (RAA) and they are all weak traditions but may support each other, and Allāh knows best.

299. He gave you permission to make a will within the third of your property as charity, when you are about to die.
Chapter XXII: Wadi’ah (Trusts Deposited for Safekeeping)

994. ‘Amro bin Shu’ail narrated on the authority of his father on the authority of his grandfather (RAA) that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “If anyone is given an article as a trust, he does not have to pay for its loss or destruction (unless he misuses it).” Related by Ibn Mājah with a weak chain of narrators.
Book VIII: Marriage

411

995. Ibn Masʿūd (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to us, “O Young people! Whoever can marry among you, should marry, for that will help him lower his gaze and protect his chastity. Whoever is not able to marry is recommended to fast and that will be his shield (as it diminishes his sexual energy).” Agreed upon.

996. Anas Ibn Mālik (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ praised and exalted Allāh and said, “.Yet I pray (night prayer) and sleep, fast and break my fast, and I (also) marry women. Whoever does not follow my Sunnah is not from me (nor one of my followers).” 300 Agreed upon.

300- The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said this to the three men who asked about how he worshipped Allāh, and when they were told, they thought their own worship was insufficient and one of them decided to offer prayer throughout the night forever, the second said that he will fast throughout the year, and the third said he will never get married. The Messen-
Anas bin Mālik (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh used to command (urge) us to get married and would very strictly prohibit us from remaining in celibacy and say, "Marry the woman who is child bearing and loving, for I shall boast over all the nations by your number on the Day of Resurrection." Related by Ahmad. Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahih.

Abū Dawūd and An-Nasāʾī and Ibn Hibbān related a similar Hadith on the authority of Maʿqil bin Yasar.

We praise Him, we seek His aid and we ask for His forgiveness. We seek Allah’s refuge from the evil of ourselves. Whomsoever Allah guides, there is no one who can lead him astray, and whomsoever Allah misguides, there is no one to guide him. I testify that none has the right to be worshipped but Allah alone, and I testify that Muhammad ﷺ is His slave and Messenger.” And recited three verses. Related by Ahmad and the four Imams. At-Tirmidî and al-Hâkim graded it as Hasan.

1002. Jâbir (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “If one of you proposes to a woman, and he can see from her what may entice him to marry her, he should do so.” Related by Ahmad and Abû Dawûd with a reliable chain of narrators. Al-Hâkim graded it as Sahîh.

1003. At-Tirmidî and An-Nasâ’î transmitted a similar narration on the authority of Al-Mughîrah.
1004. Ibn Mājah and Ibn Hibbān transmitted a similar narration on the authority of Muhammad bin Maslamah.

1005. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to a man who told him that he had got engaged, "Have you looked at her?" The man replied, 'No.' He said to him, "Go and look at her for it is more likely to create affection between the two of you." Related by Muslim.

1006. Ibn ‘Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "It is not allowed for a man to propose to a woman whom his brother (in Islām) has already proposed to, until the first suitor gives her up, or allows him to propose to her." Agreed upon and the wording is from Al-Bukhārī.

Sahl bin Sa‘d As-Sa‘idi (RAA) narrated, ‘Once a woman came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, ‘I dedicate myself to you (for marriage).’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ looked at her up and down and then lowered his head. When the woman saw that he had made no decision she sat down. One of the companions of the Prophet ﷺ got up and said, ‘O Messenger of Allāh! If you have no need of her, marry her to me.’ The Prophet ﷺ asked him, ‘Do you have anything to give her as a dowry?’ The man replied, ‘No, I swear by Allāh, O Messenger of Allāh.’ The Prophet ﷺ said to him, ‘Go to your family and seek something (to offer her).’ The man went and then returned saying, ‘No, I swear by Allāh I found nothing.’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to him, ‘Seek (something) even if it is an iron ring.’ The man went and then returned saying, ‘No, I swear by Allāh O Messenger of Allāh, not even an iron ring, but I have this Izār (waist sheet).’ Sahl said, ‘He had no upper garment’ and I shall give her half of it.’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, ‘What would she do with your Izār? If you wear it, there would be nothing of it for her, and if she wears it, there would be nothing of it for you.’ The man sat down, and when he had sat for a long time he got up. When Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ saw him turning away, he commanded people to call him back. When he came the Prophetﷺ said to him, "Have you memorized something of the Qur’ân?" The man said, 'Yes, I have memorized such and such Sûrahs,' and named some of them. The Prophetﷺ then asked him, "Can you recite them by heart?" He replied, 'Yes.' The Prophetﷺ then said, "Go for I have married her to you for what you have memorized of the Qur’ân." Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim.

In another version he said, "Go for I have married her to you, and teach her some of the Qur’ân (that you know)."

If they dispute then (they can resort to) the ruler (as he) is the guardian of those who do not have a guardian.” Related by the four Imāms except for An-Nasāʾī. Abū ‘Uwānah, Ibn Hibbān and al-Ḥākim graded it as Sahih.

۱۰۱۳. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “A non-virgin woman (divorced or widowed) is not to be married except after consulting her nor can a virgin be married except with her consent.” The people asked, ‘O
Messenger of Allâh! How is her consent (to be known)? He said, “If she remains silent.” Agreed upon.

1014. Ibn ’Abbâs (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “A non-virgin woman is worthier to organize her affairs than her guardian. As for the virgin she must be asked for her permission. Her silence is a sign of her consent (to be married).” Related by Muslim.

1023. Muslim transmitted on the authority of Maimûnah(RAA) that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ married her while he was not in the state of Iḥrām.

301. Many of the companions are of the opinion that the Prophet ﷺ married Maimûnah before he puts on his Iḥrām but the news of his marriage became known while he was in the state of Iḥrām, and then he consummated his marriage in Makkah. This opinion goes in accordance with the prohibition mentioned in this hadîth.

302- This is a kind of temporary marriage, the duration of which is predetermined through an agreement between the man and the woman. The purpose of this marriage is to have sexual intercourse for that period of time, by the end of which the woman is automatically divorced. It is unanimously termed invalid by all Muslim scholars.

303- A battle which took place after the Conquest of Makkah.
1028. Rabî' bin Sabrah narrated on the authority of his father (RAA) that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “I had permitted you to contract Mut‘ah Marriage,⁴ but Allâh has surely prohibited it until the Day of Resurrection. So, if any of you has a woman that he married through Mut‘ah, he should let her go, and do not take back any of the dower he gave her.” Related by Muslim, Abû Dawûd, An-Nasa’î, Ibn Mâjah, Ahmad and Ibn Hibbân.

1030. The four Imams except An-Nasa’î transmitted a similar tradition on the authority of ‘Ali.

304 This marriage was permitted for sometime at the rise of Islam, but then it was finally prohibited in the year of Khaibar.

305 Al-Muḥallit is the man who temporarily marries a woman, who has been divorced three times and thus she is not lawful anymore for her first husband. The muḥallit marries her temporarily, may have sexual intercourse with her or not. He then divorces her to go back to her first husband, to whom she is now lawful (Huḍâr) to remarry except through a new marriage contract. This is also prohibited as it is another form of temporary marriage that stipulates separation due to a previously made agreement between the first husband and the muḥallit.
Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that Allah’s Messenger said, “A man guilty of adultery, who has been flogged, should not marry but one who is as guilty as he is.” Related by Ahmad and Abū Dawūd with a trustworthy chain of narrators.

'A'ishah (RAA) narrated, ‘A man divorced his wife three times, then she married another man who also divorced her before having sexual contact with her. The first husband wanted to remarry her after her divorce from the second man. The Messenger of Allah was asked about this, but he replied, “No, she cannot marry the first husband until the second husband consummates his marriage with her, just as the first husband had done.” Agreed upon, and the wording is from Muslim.

Chapter II: Compatibility in Marriage and the Right to Choose

Scholars have differed over the definition of compatibility, and most of them are of the opinion that the most important aspect is that of religiousness.
1033. Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, "Arabs are equivalent to one another (in marriage) and clients (slaves) are equivalent to one another, save a weaver or a cupper." Related by Al-Hākim but all its chains of narrators are extremely weak, and most scholars considered it to be a false tradition.

1034. Al-Bazzār transmitted a similar narration on the authority of Mu‘ādh bin Jabal, but with a disconnected chain of narrators.

1035. Fāṭimah the daughter of Qais (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said to her, “Marry Usāmah.” Related by Muslim.

1036. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, "O sons of Bayādah (Banū Bayādah) marry Abū Hind to (someone of) your women, and marry his women (his daughters)," and he was a cupper.’ Related by Abū Dawūd and Al-Hākim with a good chain of narrators.

307- Fāṭimah bint Qais was from the tribe of Quraysh, i.e. of a noble lineage, while Usāmah was his slave and the son of his client Zaid.

308- Abū Hind or Yasār, cupped the Prophet (SAW), this hadith and the previous one, are proof that it is not only the lineage which counts in equivalence. It was also reported that Bilāl (RAA), who was a slave before he was manumitted by Abū Bakr (RAA), married Hālah the sister of ‘Abdur Rahman bin ‘Auf, and ‘Umar (RAA), offered his daughter Hafsah in marriage to Salmān al-Fārisī (a Persian slave) before she married the Prophet (SAW).
1037. 'A'ishah (RAA) narrated, 'When Barîrah was manumitted, she was given the choice to remain with her husband (Mughîth) who was a slave at that time, or to leave him.' (part of a long tradition) Agreed upon.

In a version by Muslim: 'Her husband was a slave.' He also related on the authority of 'A'ishah (RAA): 'He was a free man.' But the first narration (that he was a slave) is stronger.

Al-Bukhârî also related on the authority of Ibn 'Abbâs that he was a salve.

1038. Ad-Dahhâk bin Fairûz Ad-Dailami narrated on the authority of his father (RAA): 'O Messenger of Allâh! I have embraced Islâm and I am married to two sisters.'309 The Messenger of Allâh said to him, "Divorce whichever of them you wish to leave." Related by Ahmad and the four Imâms except for An-Nasâ’î. Ibn Ḥibbān and al-Ḥākim graded it as Sahih, but al-Bukhārī, Abū Zur‘āb and Abū Ḥātim graded it as a defected Hadith.

1040. Ibn ‘Abbās (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah ﷺ restored his daughter Zainab to Abū Al-‘Ās bin ar-Rabī‘ after six years (of separation) according to (the contract of the) first marriage and did not make a new one.' Related by Ahmad and the four Imāms save An-Nasā‘ī. Ahmad and al-Ḥākim graded it as Sahih.

1041. ‘Amro bin Shu‘ā‘ib narrated on the authority of his 310- Abū Al-‘Ās bin ar-Rabī‘ was the husband of the Prophet’s daughter (Zainab). She embraced Islam with the family of the Prophet ﷺ while he remained a polytheist and was taken as a prisoner of war in the Battle of Badr. Zainab sent her necklace (which was given to her by her mother Khadijah) to the Prophet ﷺ as a ransom to set him free, the Prophet ﷺ accepted it and stipulated that Al-‘Ās lets her migrate to the Prophet ﷺ in Madīnah. She migrated and in the year 6 of al-Hijrah of the Prophet ﷺ the verse which prohibits the marriage of a Muslim woman to a disbeliever was revealed. She remained for two years and her marriage was suspended until Abū Al-‘Ās embraced Islam (during the 8th year of al-Hijrah) and the Prophet ﷺ restored her to him.

father on the authority of his grandfather that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ restored his daughter Zainab to Abū Al-‘Ās with a new marriage contract.\footnote{Ahmad and Ad-Dārquqīnī said that this is a weak hadith. The stronger narration is the one that says that the Prophet ﷺ consented to the first marriage after Abū Al-‘Ās embraced Islam. Imām Ibnul Qayyīm said that the hadith related by Ibn `Abbās indicates that the marriage was suspended. If the husband embraces Islam before her Iddah is over, then she is still his wife and there is no need to renew the marriage. If the husband embraced Islam after the Iddah of his wife is over, then they must be separated at the termination of Iddah and remarried with a new contract.} Imam At-Tirmidhi said that the hadith of Ibn `Abbās is related with a stronger chain of narrators.

311. Imam At-Tirmidhi said that the hadith of Ibn `Abbās is related with a stronger chain of narrators.

Thereupon, he said to her, “Put on your clothes and go back to your family,” and he gave her the dower. Related by Al-Hâkim, but there is Jamîl bin Zaid in the chain of narrators who is not trustworthy.

1044. Sa‘îd bin al-Musaiyab narrated that ‘Umar bin al-Khattâb (RAA) said, ‘If a man married a woman and when he has had sexual intercourse with her, he discovered that she is leprous or insane, she is entitled to get her dower for having had intercourse with her and he is to get back what he paid from the one who deceived him by marrying him to her (and he knew of her defects).’ Related by Sa‘îd bin Mansûr and Malik bin Abi Shaibah with a trustworthy chain of narrators.

1045. Sa‘îd bin al-Musaiyab narrated a similar narration on the authority of ‘Ali and added, ‘or had a defect in her vagina (like a protrusion that impedes having normal sexual relation with her), her husband then has the choice to keep her or divorce her. If he had intercourse with her, then she gets her dower for him having enjoyed her private parts.

1046. Sa‘îd bin al-Musaiyab also narrated, ‘Umar (RAA) ordained that an impotent husband must be given a chance for a year before divorcing him from his wife.’ It is transmitted with a trustworthy chain of narrators.

1050. Jábir (RAA) narrated, ‘We were on an expedition with the Prophet ﷺ, then when we approached Madīnah and we were about to enter the city, he said to us, ‘Wait until you enter it at night – at the time of Isha – so that the lady with unkempt hair may comb her hair, and the one whose husband has been absent (for a long time) may shave her pubic area.’ Agreed upon.

In another version by Al-Bukhārī, ‘When anyone of you has been away from home for a long time he must not return to his family during the night (i.e. surprise them while they are asleep).’

313. This hadith refers to the woman’s affectionate nature, which makes her fit for being a wife and a mother, and this is what the Prophet ﷺ means by saying that she was created from a crooked rib.
1051. Abū Sa‘īd al-Khudrī (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ῳ said, "Among the worst people in Allāh’s sight, on the Day of Resurrection, is the man who copulates with his wife and she with him, and then spreads her secret." Related by Muslim.

1057. Judhamah bint Wahb (RAA) said, ‘I was with Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ along with some people when he said, “I intended to prohibit Ghilah\(^{314}\) but I considered the Romans and the Persians and found that they do it without any harm being caused to their children.”’ Then he was asked about ‘Azl (Coitus interruptus), he replied ﷺ, “This is secret (way of) burying alive.” Related by Muslim.

She replied, 'The dowry which the Prophet ﷺ gave to his wives was only twelve 'Uqiyahs and a Nash.' She asked, 'Do you know what a Nash is?' I replied, 'No.' She said, 'half an 'Uqiyah. She must also observe 'Iddah' (for four months and ten days, as it is the 'Iddah observed after the death of the husband), before marrying again and she is also entitled to inheritance. Thereupon Ma'qal bin Sinân al-Ashja'î got up and said, 'This is the judgment of the Prophet in the case of a woman called Barwa' bint Wāshiq—a woman of my people— as what you judged.' 319- She said in another narration, that she saw him walking among his companions, and found that he had the darkest skin, he was the shortest and the most ugly, so she feared Allāh in treating him badly or not giving him his rights and that is why she asked for Khul'a.
Chapter VIII: Divorce

4. 1104. Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “There is no lawful matter which is more detested by Allah than divorce.” Related by Abū Dawūd and Ibn Mājah. Al-Hākim graded it as Sahīh.

5. 1105. Ibn 'Umar narrated that he divorced his wife while she was menstruating during the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ. Umar asked the Prophet ﷺ about that and he said, “Let your son take her back and keep her in wedlock until her menstrual period ends and then wait until she has the next period and when it (the period) ends, if he wishes to keep her, he can do so and if he wishes to divorce her, he can do so before having sexual intercourse with her. This is the prescribed period that Allah has fixed for the woman to be divorced.” Agreed upon.

6. 1106. In a narration by Muslim, “Order him to take her back and then divorce her when she is (after the time of her period) either pure from menstruation or pregnant.”
In another version by Al-Bukhari, ‘It was counted as one declaration of divorce (i.e. divorcing her while she is menstrual-ting).’

In another version, 'Abdullah Ibn ‘Umar said, 'So he made her return to me and did not count this divorce (the one pronounced during her menses) and said, “When she is purified, he may divorce her or keep her.”

Ibn ‘Abbās (RAA) narrated, ‘Threefold divorce (If one states three pronouncements of divorce at the same time) was counted as only one divorce during the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ, Abū Bakr and two years of the Caliphate of ʿUmar. Then ʿUmar said, ‘People have become hasty in a matter in which they used to take their time (i.e. divorce) before deciding on it. So, I wish if we implement it on them (count them as three divorces if they say at one time).’ 320 So ʿUmar implemented it. Related by Muslim.

1111. Mahmūd bin Labīd (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was told about a man who divorced his wife by making three pronouncements of divorce at the same time (threefold divorce). The Prophet ﷺ got up very angrily and said, “Are you playing games with Allāh’s Book while I am among you?” A man got up and said, ‘O Messenger of Allāh, shall I kill him?’ Narrated by An-Nasāʿī with a sound chain of narrators.

320. He means it as a punishment to let them think it over first, before pronouncing divorce three times at the same time.
1113. In a narration by Ahmad, ‘Abū Rukānah divorced his wife irrevocably (by making three pronouncements of divorce) in one sitting. He then became very sad. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to him, “It is considered as one (divorce).” There is a weak narrator in its chain.

1114. Abū Dawūd narrated with a stronger chain of narrators, ‘Rukānah divorced his wife Suhaymah irrevocably. (When he went to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ he said, “By Allāh, I only intended it to be one time (as one divorce).” The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ returned her to him.

1118. Abū Hurairah, narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Allāh, the Almighty has forgiven for my Ummah (nation) the thoughts that occur to their minds (what they speak within themselves), as long as they do not put them into action or express them verbally (utter them).” Agreed upon.

1119. Ibn ʿAbbās (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Allāh has forgiven my Ummah (nation) their (wrong actions), which are due to error or oblivion, and for what they do under coercion.” Related by Ibn Mājah and al-Hākim.

325. A practice that goes back to pre-Islâmic times. It is when the husband makes a statement to his wife like, 'You are to me like the back of my mother,' meaning never to approach her. For the Muslims Allâh prescribed an expiation to be offered by anyone who says such a thing, and it is not regarded as divorce.
Companions of the Prophet who gave the husband a maximum of four months for the Ilā' (after which he should either divorce her or resume his relationship with her). Related by Ash-Shafi‘i.

1133. Ibn `Abbās (RAA) narrated, ‘Ilā’ at the time of Jāhiliyyah (pre-Islamic period), used to continue for one or two years. Allāh revealed that it is not to exceed four months. If it continues for less than four months, then it is not considered Ilā’.’ Related by Al-Baihaqī.

1134. Ibn `Abbās (RAA) narrated, ‘A man practiced Dhihār with his wife and then he had intercourse with her. He said, “Feed sixty poor people one Faraq (a measure that equals 15 Śa‘) of dates.” Related by Ahmad and the four Imāms except for An-Nasā‘ī. Ibn Khuzaimah and Ibn al-Gārūd graded it as Sahih.

Chapter XI: Li‘ân 326

326- The word is derived from the Arabic word La‘n which means cursing. This takes place when a man accuses his wife of committing adultery without having four witnesses to support his claim. If he speaks publicly about it he will be considered as an accuser and will be given eighty lashes, which is the punishment for accusation of adultery. When this incident took place during the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ the verse of Li‘ân was revealed (24: 6-9), which states that a husband should swear four times (in front of the magistrate and in the presence of his wife) that he is telling the truth and the fifth time he says that may the curse of Allāh be upon him if he is lying. And then she swears four times that he is lying about what he has charged her with and the fifth time she says that may the wrath of Allāh be upon her if he is telling the truth. In this way he is no longer liable to be punished for false accusation and she is no longer liable to be punishment for adultery. By this, she is eternally prohibited for him and the child she is expecting (if any) is not his.
1136. Ibn `Umar (RAA) narrated, ‘A man asked, ‘O Messenger of Allâh! What do you see if someone from amongst us happened to find his wife committing adultery. What should he do? If he talks, he is talking of a grievous matter, and if remains silent, he is also keeping silent over a grievous matter. The Messenger of Allâh did not answer him. Afterwards the man came again and said to Allâh’s Messenger, ‘What I have asked you about is now my affliction (i.e. it actually happened to me; that he saw his wife committing adultery). Then Allâh, the Almighty revealed the verses of Sûrah an-Nur, and the Messenger of Allâh recited them for him, exhorted him and reminded him of Allâh, and told him that the torture of this present life is much less than the torture of the Hereafter. He (the man) said, ‘No, by Him Who sent you with the truth! I did not tell a lie about her.' Then the Prophet called her (the wife of that man) and exhorted her as well. She said, ‘No, by Him Who sent you with the truth! He is a liar.' The Prophet began with the man who made four testimonies by Allâh, and then the woman did the same, and then he separated them both (forever).’ Related by Muslim.

1137. Ibn `Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh said to the couple involved in the case of Li`ân, “Your accounts will be with Allâh. One of you two is a liar. You have no authority over her.” The man said, ‘O Messenger of Allah! My property!’ The Messenger of Allah ﷺ replied, “If you were telling the truth concerning her, that would be in return for what you have enjoyed of her, and if you were lying, that would be more remote to you than her returning to you (i.e. if he was lying about her, how would he take what he had given to her).” Agreed upon.

1138. Anas (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “Watch (for the baby that she will give birth to), if she gives birth to a child which is white with lank hair, then it is her husband’s child, but if she gives birth to a child which is brown with curly hair then it is the child of the man her husband accused her of committing adultery with.” Agreed upon.

1139. Ibn ‘Abbás (RAA) narrated, “The Messenger of Allah ﷺ ordered a man to put his hand on his hand on the fifth testimony and said to him, “It would be the decisive one (which will bring Allah’s punishment and curse, and will separate them for ever).” Related by Abū Dawūd and An-Nasa‘ī with a trustworthy chain of narrators.

1140. Sahl bin Sa’d (RAA) narrated concerning the case of the couple involved in the Li‘ān. When they had finished making their testimony, the man said, ‘O Messenger of Allāh! If I keep her now as a wife with me, then I have told a lie about her.’ The man then divorced thrice before Allāh’s Messenger ordered him to do so.\(^{327}\) Agreed upon.

1141. Ibn ‘Abbās (RAA) narrated, ‘A man came to the Prophet and said, ‘I have a wife who does not keep the hand of the toucher (anyone who touches her) from her. The Prophet said to him, “Divorce her.” The man replied, ‘But I am afraid, I won’t be able to keep away from her.’ The Messenger of Allāh then said to him, “Then enjoy her (with that deficiency).” Related by Abū Dawūd, At-Tirmidhi and Al-Bazzār with a trustworthy chain of narrators.

\(^{327}\) The majority of scholars are of the opinion that separation takes place anyway by the end of the process of Li‘ān. As for what this man did, he was not ordered by the Prophet to do so. His divorce only assured him of what had already taken place, which is their separation for ever.
Abu Hurairah (RAA) narrated that he heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say when the verse of Li‘ân was revealed, “Anyone who falsely claims a child to her family, while he does not belong to them, Allah will have nothing to do with her (not to expect His Mercy) and will not let her enter His Paradise. And any man who denies paternity of his own child – while looking at him (i.e. he is certain that he is his child) Allah will not let him look at Him (at Allah) and shall disgrace him in the presence of all creation the first and the last (on the Day of Resurrection).” Related by Abu Dawud and An-Nasa’î and Ibn Mâjah. Ibn Hibbân graded it as Sahîh.

Umar (RAA) narrated, ‘Whoever acknowledges his paternity to his child, even for a second, he is not to deny him.’ Related by Al-Baihaqi.

Abu Hurairah (RAA) narrated, ‘A man came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, ‘My wife gave birth to a black child.’ The Prophet ﷺ asked him, ‘Do you have camels?’ The man replied, ‘Yes.’
The Messenger of Allâh سُلَيْمُهُ asked him, “What color are they?”
The man replied, ‘Red.’ The Messenger of Allâh سُلَيْمُهُ asked him again, “Is there a gray one among them?” The man answered, ‘Yes.’ The Messenger of Allâh سُلَيْمُهُ then asked him, “Where has that (gray) one come from?” The man said, ‘Maybe it is due to heredity.’ The Prophet ﷺ said, “Maybe your latest son has this (black) color due to heredity.”

In a version by Muslim, ‘The man was intending to deny him.’ And said at the end of the narration, ‘Allâh’s Messenger سُلَيْمُهُ did not allow him to deny him.’

what is permissible is that when she is purified from her menses, she may use a small amount of Kust (type of incense, to get rid of the smell of the blood).” Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim.

1155. Ibn ‘Umar (RAA) narrated, ‘The slave woman has only two pronouncements of divorce (unlike the free woman who has three), and her ‘Iddah is only for two menstrual cycles.’ Related by Ad-Dāraquṭnī.

1156. Abū Dawūd, At-Tirmidhī and Ibn Mājah related the same Hadith on the authority of ‘A‘ishah (RAA). Al-Hākim graded it as Sahih but some scholars rendered it weak.

1157. Ruwailī bin Thābit (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, “It is not lawful for a man who believes in Allah and the Day of Resurrection to have intercourse with a slave woman (newly bought) who is already pregnant.”

Sâlim the client of Abu Hudhaifah lives with us in the same house, and he has now reached puberty.’ The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to her, “Suckle him so that he may become unlawful (in regard to marriage) for you.” Related by Muslim.

Scholars are of the opinion that this hadith is not a common ruling, as it is only infants who are normally breastfed. In this case, the messenger of Allah ﷺ meant that she may give him some of her milk (in a cup) and thus she would foster him, and not actually suckle him as he is a grown 1171. Book IX: Crimes (Qisâs or Retaliation)

Chapter I

Ibn Mas'ûd (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “The blood of a Muslim who testifies that none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh and that I am His Messenger, cannot be shed lawfully, except in three cases: a married person who committed adultery, in Qisâs (retaliation) for murder (life for life) and the apostate from Islam who abandons the Muslim Jamâ‘ah (community).” Agreed upon.

1200. ‘A’ishah (RAA) narrated that Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The blood of a Muslim is not to be shed except for three reasons: a married man who committed adultery, a man who kills another Muslim intentionally for which he must be killed (in Qisâs or retaliation), and a man who abandons Islam and fights against Allâh and His Messenger, in which case he should be either killed, crucified, or exiled.” Related by Abū Dawūd and An-Nasā’ī. Al-Ḥākim graded it as Sahīh.

1203. Umar bin al-Khattāb (RAA) narrated, ‘I heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ say, “A father is not to be killed for his off-spring.”’ Related by Ahmad, At-Tirmidhī and Ibn Mājah. Ibn al-Gārūd and al-Baihaqī graded it as Sahīh.
1204. Abū Juhaifah (RAA) narrated, 'I asked 'Ali: Do you have any other Divine Revelation besides what is in the Qur'an? 'Ali said, 'No. By Him Who made the grain split (germinate) and created the soul, we have nothing besides the Qur'an except the gift of understanding the Qur'an, which Allah gives a man, besides what is written in this manuscript. I said, 'What is in this manuscript?' 'Ali said, 'The regulations of Diyā (Blood money), the ransom for captives and the ruling that no Muslim should be killed in Qisas for killing a disbeliever.' Related by Al-Bukhārī.

1205. The previous tradition was also transmitted by Ahmad, An-Nasāʾī and Abū Dawūd on the authority of 'Ali with a different chain of narrators where he said, 'The blood of one Muslim (his life) is equivalent to the blood of another Muslim (i.e. equal in Qisas and blood money), the protection of Allāh is one (and is equally) extended to the most humble of the believers (i.e. if a Muslim gives protection to a man or to a group of men, they should all help him even if he was the most humble of them). Believers are all like one hand against their enemies. No believer is to be killed for a disbeliever (i.e. in Qisas), nor should one who has a covenant with the Muslims be killed while his covenant holds.' Al-Ḥākim graded it as Sahih.
1206. Anas bin Malik (RAA) narrated that a girl was found with her head crushed between two stones. They asked her, 'Who did that to you? Is it so and so, or so and so?' They mentioned some names to her until they mentioned the name of a Jew, whereupon she nodded her head. The Jew was captured and he confessed. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ ordered that his head be crushed between two stones.' Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim.

1207. 'Imrân bin Al-Husain (RAA) narrated that a slave of some poor people cut off the ear of another slave belonging to some rich people. They came to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ but he appointed no compensation for them.334 Related by Ahmad and the three Imâms with a sound chain of narrators.

334: Scholars have different opinions as to the reason for giving no compensation. Some say that it happened by accident, some say that maybe it was because his masters were poor so the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ gave him the compensation himself, some say that the boy was still immature and Allâh knows best.
1208. 'Amro bin Shu'aib narrated on the authority of his father, on the authority of his grandfather (RAA), that a man stabbed another man in his knee with a horn. So he came to the Messenger of Allah and said, 'Retaliate on my behalf.' The Messenger of Allah said to him, "Wait until your wound has healed." The man came again and said, 'O Messenger of Allah! Retaliate on my behalf.' So, he allowed him to retaliate against the one who attacked him (by stabbing him the same way). Then he came again to the Messenger of Allah and said, 'O Messenger of Allah! I have become lame.' The Messenger of Allah said to him, "I forbade you (to take retaliation until your wound was healed) but you disobeyed me, may Allah keep you away from His mercy (for your disobedience), and as for your lameness you are not entitled to any compensation (as he retaliated before he discovered the lameness otherwise he would have been entitled half the Diyah)." Then Allah's Messenger prohibited the following, 'No retaliation is to be made for a wound before the victim is totally recovered.' Related by Ahmad and Ad-Daraqutni.

1209. Abu Hurairah (RAA) narrated, 'Two women of the tribe of Hudhail fought with each other and one of them threw a stone at the other. In this way she killed the woman and what was in her womb (as she was pregnant). Their dispute was presented to the Prophet who ordained that the Diyah (blood money) of the unborn child, is a male or a female slave of the best quality. He also decided that the Diyah of the woman is to be paid by her relatives (the one who killed) on her father's side. Allāh also ordained that her inheritance (of the woman who killed as she died later) be for her sons and husband (and not for her relatives who had to pay the Diyah). Hamal bin An-Nābighah Al-Hudhaili then said, 'O Messenger of Allāh! Why should I pay the Diyah for one who neither drank nor ate nor spoke, nor cried (i.e. the dead fetus), such a creature is not entitled to blood money.' The Messenger of Allāh then said, "This man is one of the brothers of the soothsayers," on account of the rhymed speech which he used, concerning the dead fetus.

1210. Abū Dawūd and An-Nasā’ī narrated on the authority of Ibn ‘Abbās that Umar (RAA) asked about the judgment of the Prophet concerning the Diyah of the dead fetus. Hamal bin An-Nābighah Al-Hudhaili then got up and said, "I was between the two women. One of them struck the other with a stone, killing her and what was in her womb. So the Messenger of Allāh ordained ...." (as above). Ibn Hibbān and al-Hākim graded it as Sahih.

335- There was no Qigād in this case, as the woman did not intend to kill her. She only used a small stone or the like.
1211. Anas narrated that Ar-Rubai' bint An-Nadr (his aunt) broke the incisor teeth of a girl. The family of Ar-Rubai' asked the family of the girl to pardon her, but they refused. They then offered them Arsh, (as compensation) but they also refused. They came to the Messenger of Allâh asking for Qisas, and he gave orders that they should take their Qisas from Ar-Rubai'. Anas bin An-Nadr then came to the Messenger of Allâh and said, 'O Messenger of Allâh! Will the incisor tooth of Ar-Rubai' be broken? No, by Him Who sent you with the truth, her incisor tooth will not be broken. The Messenger of Allâh then said to him, "Anas! Allâh's decree is equal retaliation." But the family of the girl agreed to pardon Ar-Rubai'. The Messenger of Allâh then said, "Among Allâh's servants are those who if they swear by Allâh(for something), Allâh will consent to their oath." Agreed upon, and the wording is from Al-Bukhârî.

1212. Ibn `Abbâs (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh said, "If anyone is killed and his killer is not known, or 336. Term used for blood money owed for injuries.

337. Such as the one killed in a fight between two families or two tribes and it is not definitely known who killed him or how he was killed. In this case the other family must take an oath that they did not kill the victim, and if it is known who killed him (which group of people or which family) they would share his Diyah (for a death caused by mistake) Other-was killed with a stone, a whip or with a stick (i.e. killed by mistake but with a deliberate injury) his Diyah will be that of killing by mistake (manslaughter). As for whoever killed deliberately, retaliation is due (from the one who killed him). Anyone who tries to prevent taking Qisās (from the killer) may Allāh curse him.” Related by Abū Dawūd, An-Nasā‘ī and Ibn Mājah with a strong chain of narrators.

1213. Ibn ‘Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “If a man holds another man so that a third man can kill the seized one, then the one who killed is to be killed (in Qisās) and the one who seized the killed one is to be imprisoned.” Related by Ad-Dāraqutnī. Ibn al-Qattān graded it as Sahih and its narrators are trustworthy.

1214. ‘Abdur Rahman bin Al-Bailamānī narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ killed a Muslim who killed a *Mu‘āhid*338 who had made a covenant with the Muslims, and said, “I am closest to the ones who keep their covenants of protection.” Related by ‘Abdur Razzāq.

338- A Mu‘āhid is a non-Muslim who is residing in an Islamic State with whom there is a covenant of peace and protection. The killing of such a person is murder.
1215. Ibn ʿUmar (RAA) narrated, ‘A young boy was murdered deceitfully. ‘Umar (RAA) thereupon said, ‘If all the people of Ṣanʿā’ (in Yemen) participated in killing him, I would kill them all.’ Related by al-Bukhārī.

1216. Abū Shuraiḥ Al-Khazaʿī (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “If the relative of one of you is killed after my speech, his family has one of two choices: ‘Either they take his Diyah or kill the killer.” Related by Abū Dawsūd and An-Nasāʿī.

1217. A similar narration is transmitted by Al-Bukhārī and Muslim on the authority of Abū Hurairah.

Chapter II: Types of Diyah (Blood money)

1218. ‘ʿAmmā tākah ṭālīn biḥiḥath bīn ʿAbd al-Ḥamīd bīn ʿAbd al-Ḥāṣim, ʿan ʿAbīh bīn ḫāṣim - Rūḥ Allāh ʿalayhī - Ilhām Allāh ʿalayhī - Ṣeūl Allāh ʿalayhī - ʿAbī Umar, Yalā bin Umaiyah, his ruler in Yemen, when he knew about the incident, issued a decree that all of those involved in it were to be killed except for those who were related to the victim. They left their wife and child with their lover for fear that he may tell the husband about it when he returned. Those involved were the woman, her lover, her servant, and another man. When Umar knew about it from Yalā bin Umaiyah, his ruler in Yemen, he issued a decree that all of them must be killed as they killed him collectively.
1218. Abu Bakr bin Muhammad bin ‘Amro bin Hazm narrated on the authority of his father on the authority of his grandfather (RAA) that ‘The Messenger of Allah ﷺ wrote to the people of Yemen (mentioning the hadith which included), Whoever kills a believer deliberately for no reason or a crime that he committed, he should be killed (in retaliation), unless the family of the murdered person agrees to take diyah (blood money). The diyah for a life is a hundred camels. Full blood money (i.e. total diyah of 100 camels) is paid for the total cut off of each of the following: the nose, the eyes, the tongue, the lips, the penis, the testicles and the backbone.340 For the cutting off of one leg; half a diyah is paid (i.e. 50 camels). For a head injury a third of the diyah is paid, for a stab which penetrates the body, one third of the diyah, for a blow which breaks a bone or dislocates it, 15 camels. For each finger or toe, 10 camels are paid. For each tooth five camels are paid. For a wound which exposes a bone five camels are paid. A man is killed in qiyas for killing a woman. For those who possess gold, they should pay the equivalent of the 100 camels which is fixed as one thousand dinars.’ Related by Abu Dawud in his book "al-Marāsīl", an-Nasā’i, Ibn Khuzaimah, Ibn al-Gārūd, Ibn Hibbān and Ahmad, but they disagreed regarding its authenticity.

340- A full diyah is due in this case, as each of these organs are either impaired (i.e. cannot be compensated), or the full pair is cut off (such as the ears, the lips etc.)
1219. Ibn Mas‘ûd (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “The Diyyah for accidental killing is paid in five types of camel indemnity: 20 she-camels ‘hiqqah’ (in their fourth year), 20 she-camels ‘Jaz‘ah’ (in their fifth year), 20 she-camels ‘bint makhād’ (in their second year), 20 she-camels ‘bint labūn’ (in their third year) and 20 he-camels ‘ibn labūn’ (in their third year).” Related by Ad-Dāraqūt̄n̄ī with a strong chain of narrators. The four Imāms reported it with this version, “twenty ‘ibn makhād’ (twenty male camels which had entered their second year),” instead of “ibn labūn.”

1220. Abū Dawūd and At-Tirmidhî transmitted on the authority of ‘Amro bin Shu‘aib on his father’s authority, who reported from his grandfather (RAA), who reported that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “The Diyyah (of intentional homicide) is paid in three different types of camels: 30 she-camels ‘hiqqah’ (in their fourth year), 30 she-camels ‘Jaz‘ah’ (in their fifth year), and 40 pregnant she-camels.”

341. This Diyyah is less severe in that its payment is deferred, and paid in five different types of camels. Some scholars say that it could be paid over a period of three years.

342. This Diyyah is severe in that it is to be paid immediately and paid in three different good types of camels.
1221. Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “Three types of people are most hated by Allâh, the Almighty: whoever kills another in the Sacred area of Harâm (Sanctuary), whoever kills anyone other than the one who killed him or whoever kills anyone in revenge as in times of Jâhiliyah (pre-Islamic times).” Related by Ibn Hibbân.

1222. ‘Abdullâh Ibn ‘Amr ibn al-‘A§ (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “The Diyah for accidental and quasi-deliberate homicide – such as that inflicted with a whip or a stick – is a hundred camels, forty of which are pregnant she-camels.” Related by Abû- Dawûd, An-Nasâ’î and Ibn Mâjah. Ibn Hibbân graded it as Sahih.

Al-Hâkim graded it as Sahîh. Abû Dawûd, an-Nasâ’î and others also narrated it, but its Mursal form is stronger than the connected one.

1225. 'Amro bin Shu‘aib narrated on the authority of his father, on the authority of his grandfather (RAA) that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “For a wound which exposes a bone five camels are paid (in compensation).” Related by Ahmad and the four Imâms. 1227. ‘Amr ibn Shu‘aib narrated on the authority of his father, on the authority of his grandfather (RAA) that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “The Divah of the quasi-deliberate homicide is as severe as deliberate murder (in its being given in three types of camels), and the offender is not to be killed. This happens when the devil excites enmity between people causing them to shed blood but not due to hatred or carrying weapons in fighting.” Related by Ad-Dâraqutni and graded it as weak Hadîth.

1228. ’Ibn ’Abbâs (RAA) narrated that, ‘A man killed another man during the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ, so the decided that his Divah would be 12 thousand (Dirhams).’ Related by the four Imâms.

Sahl bin Abi Khaithamah (RAA) narrated on the authority of some honored men from his people that 'Abdullah bin Sahl and Muhaiysah bin Mas'ud, went out to Khaibar because of a hardship they were undergoing. Muhaiysah came and told them that 'Abdullah bin Sahl had been killed and thrown into a well. He came to the Jews and said to them, 'I swear by Allah that you have killed him.' They replied, 'We swear by Allah that we have not killed him.' Then Muhaiysah came along with his brother Huwaiysah and 'Abdur Rahman bin Sahl to the Prophet ﷺ and Muhaiysah started to talk. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to him, "Let an older one speak (take charge of this matter)." So Huwaiysah narrated what happened and then Muhaiysah spoke. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Either they pay the Diyar of your companion or be ready for war." The Messenger of Allah ﷺ wrote to them about this and they wrote back saying, 'By Allah, we have not killed him.' The Messenger of Allah ﷺ then said to Huwaiysah, Muhaiysah and 'Abdur Rahman bin Sahl, "Would you take an oath (that they killed him) and then you will be entitled to the Diyar of your companion." They answered, 'No (as they did not witness the crime).' The Messenger of Allah ﷺ then said, "Then the Jews should take an oath (that they are innocent)." They said, 'They are not Muslims.' The Messenger of Allah ﷺ thereupon paid the Diyar of the victim himself and sent them 100 camels. Sahl commented, 'A red she-camel (of these 100 camels) kicked me.' Agreed upon.
1231. A man from the Ansār narrated that the Messenger of Allah consented to the Qasāmah (taking an oath that they did not kill the victim), which was practiced during the time of Jahiliyyah (pre-Islām) and the Messenger of Allah made a judgment between some men from the Ansār concerning a man who was killed and they claimed that the Jews had killed him.' 1237. `Abdullāh bin `Umar narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “He who is killed while defending his property is considered a martyr.” Related by Abū Dawūd An-Nasa’ī and At-Tirmidhi who graded it as Sahih.

1238. ‘Imrān bin Ḥusayn (RAA) narrated, ‘Yālā bin Umayyah fought with another man. One of them bit the other man’s finger and the latter (whose finger was bit) pulled his hand out of the first man’s mouth (who was biting) by force, causing his incisors teeth to be pulled out. They presented their dispute to the Prophet ﷺ who said, “One of you bit his brother as a male camel bites? Go and there is not Diyah for him (as a punishment for their foolishness).” Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim.

1239. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, "If anyone spies on you (tries to look at you) without your permission, and you thereupon throw a stone at him and because of it he lost his eye, you are not to be blamed." Agreed upon. In another version by Ahmad and an-Nasāʾī and graded as Sahih by Ibn Hibbān, "He has no right for Diyah or Qisas."

1240. Al-Baraʾ bin ʿAzib (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah ordained that the guarding of a garden is the responsibility of its owners during the day and the guarding of animals is the responsibility of their owners at night. However, the owners of the animals are responsible for any damage caused by their animals during the night (i.e. pay compensation for what they damaged of other's property). 'Related by Ahmad and the four Imāms except At-Tirmidhi. Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahih.

1241. Muʿādh bin Jabal (RAA) narrated – concerning a man who embraced Islām and then turned to Judaism (i.e. apostated), 'I shall not sit down until he is killed. That is the Command of Allah and His Messenger, and he gave an order that he must be killed and so he was.' Agreed upon.

In a version by Abū Dawūd, 'He was given a chance to repent and return to Islām but he refused.

1242. Ibn ʿAbbās (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, “He who changes his religion (i.e. apostates) kill him.” Related by Al-Bukhārī.

1243. Ibn ‘Abbās (RAA) narrated, ‘A blind man had a pregnant slave, who used to abuse the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and defame him. The blind man forbade her but she did not stop. One night she began to slander the Prophet ﷺ so he took an axe, placed it on her belly, pressed it and killed her. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was told about it, and thereupon he said, “Oh people! Be witnesses that no Diyah is to be paid for her blood.”347 Related by Abū Dawūd with a trustworthy chain of narrators.

347. Because she was slandering the Prophet ﷺ, so she is considered as a disbeliever and an apostate.
1244. Abū Hurairah and Zaid bin Khālid al-Juhānī (RAA) narrated that a Bedouin came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, ‘O Messenger of Allah! I beseech you by Allah, that you judge between us according to Allah’s Laws.’ The man’s opponent who was wiser than him got up and said, ‘Yes, judge between us according to Allah’s Law and kindly allow me (to speak).’ The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘Speak.’ He said, ‘My son was a laborer working for that man (the Bedouin) and he committed illegal sexual intercourse with his wife, and I was informed that my son deserved to be stoned to death (as punishment for this offence). I ransomed him with one hundred sheep and a slave girl. But when I asked the knowledgeable people they told me that my son should receive a hundred lashes and be exiled for a year, and the man's wife should be stoned to death. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ replied, "By Him in Whose Hands my soul is, I shall judge between you according to the Law of Allâh (i.e. His Book). The slave girl and the sheep are to be returned to you. As for your son, he has to receive one hundred lashes and be exiled for a year. O Unais! Go to this man's wife, and if she confesses, then stone her to death." Agreed upon, and this is Muslim's version.

1245. 'Ubâdah bin As-Sâmit (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, "Receive from me (this revelation), receive from me (this revelation). Allâh has ordained a way for those women348 (unmarried females who committed adultery). When an unmarried man, commits adultery with an unmarried woman, they should receive one hundred lashes and be exiled for a year349. If they (fornicate while they) were married, they shall receive hundred lashes and be stoned to death350."

Reported by Muslim.

348. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ is referring to the verse (4:15) sūrat an-Nisā', "...and if they testify, confine them (those women) to their houses until death, or (until) Allâh ordains for them some other way."

349. Imaám Mâlik is of the opinion that a woman is not to be exiled as this will expose her to hardship, and she is not allowed to travel on her own anyway. She should only be flogged a hundred lashes, and the male is to be flogged and exiled. Other scholars say that if she is exiled she must be with a mahram...

350. Most scholars are of the opinion that there is no need for flogging and that stoning is sufficient for the (married) adulterer and the adulteress. Their evidence is that the Prophet ﷺ did not combine flogging and stoning in the punishment of Mâiz and only stoned him to death. This is also evident in this hadith as the Prophet ﷺ did not order Unais to flag her...
1246. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated, 'A Muslim man\(^{351}\) came to the Prophet \(^\text{ﷺ}\) while he was in the mosque, and called him saying, 'O Messenger of Allāh! I have committed adultery.' The Messenger of Allāh \(^\text{ﷺ}\) turned his face away from him, so the man came round (from the other side) towards his face and said, 'O Messenger of Allāh! I have committed adultery.' The Messenger of Allāh \(^\text{ﷺ}\) again turned his face away from him, but the man repeated his statement four times. When he testified four times that he did it, the Messenger of Allāh \(^\text{ﷺ}\) called him saying, "Are you insane?" The man said, 'No.' The Messenger of Allāh \(^\text{ﷺ}\) then asked him, "Are you married?" The man answered, 'Yes.' The Messenger of Allāh \(^\text{ﷺ}\) "Take him away and stone him (to death)." Agreed upon.

1247. Ibn 'Abbās (RAA) narrated, 'When Mā‘īz came to the Prophet \(^\text{ﷺ}\) (admitting that he had committed adultery), he said to him, "Perhaps you have just kissed, or touched or looked (at the woman)." Ma‘iz said, 'No, O Messenger of Allah.' Related by Al-Bukhārī.

1248 - وَعَنْ عَمْرُو بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ - رضي الله تعالى عنه - أنه خطب فقال: "إن الله يبعث محتوما بالحق، وأنزل عليه الكتاب، فكان فيما أنزل الله عليه آية الرجم، فرأيناهما ووعيناها وعفيناها، فرجم رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم، ورحمنا بعداً، فأخفى إن طال بالناس زمان أن يقول قائل: ما نجد الرجم في كتاب الله، فيضلوا يتراك فربطة أئزروا الله، وإن الرجم حق في كتاب الله - تعالى - على من زنى، إذا أحسنت من الرجال والنساء، إذا قامت البينة، أو كأن الحبل أو الإعتراف. متفقه عليه.

1248. 'Umar bin al-Khattāb (RAA) narrated that he addressed the people and said, 'Verily Allah has sent Muhammad with the Truth and sent down the Book to him, and the verse of stoning was included in what Allah sent down. We recited, memorized and comprehended it. The Messenger of Allah accordingly (to what was in the verse) stoned to death (whoever committed adultery while being married), and we stoned after his death. But I am afraid that after a long time passes, someone may say, 'We do not find the Verses of stoning in Allah's Book,' and thus they may go astray by abandoning an obligation that Allah has sent down. Verily, stoning is an obligation in the Book of Allah to be inflicted on married men and women who commit adultery, when their crime is proven, evident by pregnancy, or through the confession (of the adulterer).’ Agreed upon.

352: A Qur'ānic verse was revealed prescribing the punishment of stoning, but according to the opinion of the majority of the companions and scholars, it was later abrogated, regarding its recitation in the Qur'ān, but its verdict still applies as proven by the Sunnah. The Prophet ﷺ and the companions after his death continued to apply this punishment for the married culprit.

353: The evidence required in this crime is: either four witnesses, confession by the one who committed it, or pregnancy which applies only to women. The majority of scholars are of the opinion that pregnancy by itself is not a sufficient sign to inflict the punishment unless it is accompanied.
Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated, 'I heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ say, “When the slave-woman of one of you commits adultery and she is proven guilty (through witnesses or confession), he should flog her as prescribed (for the slave woman), but he should not admonish her. If she does this again, then she should be flogged again but he should not admonish her. If she commits it for the third time, and she is proven guilty, then he must sell her even if it was for a rope of hair.” Agreed upon, and the wording is from Muslim.

1249. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated, 'I heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ say, “When the slave-woman of one of you commits adultery and she is proven guilty (through witnesses or confession), he should flog her as prescribed (for the slave woman), but he should not admonish her. If she does this again, then she should be flogged again but he should not admonish her. If she commits it for the third time, and she is proven guilty, then he must sell her even if it was for a rope of hair.” Agreed upon, and the wording is from Muslim.

with confession or witnesses. Mālik on the other hand believes that the pregnancy of an unmarried woman who was not forced to commit fornication, is sufficient to inflict punishment taking this hadith as evidence.

351. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ is referring to the verse, “And after they have been taken in wedlock, if they commit illegal sexual intercourse, their punishment is half that for free (unmarried) women.” (4:25). The punishment referred to in this verse is 50 lashes.
Imrân bin Husain (RAA) narrated, ‘A woman from Juhainah came to the Prophet while she was pregnant due to committing adultery, and said, ‘O Messenger of Allâh! I have done something for which a prescribed punishment is to be inflicted, so please inflict it on me. The Messenger of Allâh called her guardian and said, “Be good to her, and when she delivers bring her back to me.” Her guardian brought her back when she had delivered and the Messenger of Allâh gave his commands and her clothes were tied around her and then the Prophet gave his commands and she was stoned to death. The Messenger of Allâh offered funeral prayer for her, and thereupon ‘Umar said, ‘O Messenger of Allâh! You offer funeral prayer for her even though she committed adultery?’ The Messenger of Allâh replied, “She has offered such a repentance (for her sin) that if it was divided between seventy of the inhabitants of Madînah, it would be sufficient for them. Have you found such repentance better than sacrificing her life for the sake of Allâh, the Almighty?” Related by Muslim.

1252. Jâbir bin ‘Abdullah (RAA) narrated, The Messenger of Allâh stoned a man from Aslam to death, a Jewish man and 1253. The story of stoning the two Jews is mentioned in Al-Bukhārī and Muslim on the authority of Ibn ʿUmar.

1254. Saʿīd bin ʿAbd bin ʿAbdād (RAA) narrated, ‘A small weak man was staying in our tribe, and he committed adultery with one of their slave-women. Saʿīd mentioned this to the Messenger of Allāh, and thereupon he said, “Flog him (according to) the prescribed penalty.” The people then said, ‘O Messenger of Allāh! He is too weak to bear it.’ The Messenger of Allāh then said, “Get a stalk of the raceme of a palm tree with a hundred twigs and strike him just once.” So, they did. Related 358- Two Jewish people (a man and a woman) were brought to the Prophet as they committed adultery and they were both married. The Messenger of Allāh asked them about the legal penalty for such a crime in their Book (the Torah). They told him that their Rabbis have innovated a punishment of blackening the faces with charcoal. ʿAbdullāh bin ʿAlī said, ‘O Messenger of Allāh! Tell them to bring the Torah.’ When they brought the Torah, one of them found the verse of stoning to death with his hand and starting reading the preceding verse and what followed. Ibn ʿAlī then said to the Jews, ‘Lift up your hand.’ The verse was there under his hand and thereupon the Messenger of Allāh ordered that the two sinners be stoned to death.

1255. Ibn `Abbâs (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “Whoever you find doing as the people of Lot did (i.e. homosexuality), kill the one who does it and the one to whom it is done, and if you find anyone having sexual intercourse with an animal, kill him and kill the animal.”

1257. Ibn `Abbâs (RAA) narrated, The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ

1259. At-Tirmidhī and Al-Hākim transmitted on the authority of ʿĀ'ishah (RAA) with the wording, 'Allāh's Messenger ﷺ said, "Avert the infliction of the prescribed punishment on Muslims as much as you can." It is also a weak hadith.

1260. Al-Baihaqī transmitted on the authority of ʿAlī (RAA) that he said, 'Avert the prescribed punishments by rejecting doubtful evidence.'

1261. Ibn ʿUmar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "Avoid these filthy practices which Allāh, the Almighty has prohibited. He who commits any of these, should conceal with Allāh’s Most High Veil (i.e. should not speak about it), and should turn to Allâh, the Most High in repentance, for if anyone uncovers his hidden sins (to us), we shall inflict on him the punishment prescribed by Allâh, the Almighty.” Related by Al-Hâkim and in Al-Muwatta’ but traced to its narrator Zaid bin Aslam as Hadith Mursal.

Chapter II: Penalty for Qadhf (Accusing a Person of Adultery without Proof)

1262. ‘A’ishah (RAA) narrated, ‘When my vindication was revealed,361 the Prophet ﷺ mounted the pulpit and mentioned what happened and recited the verses of the Qur’an (which had been revealed). When he came down from the pulpit he ordered that two men and a woman362 should be given the prescribed flogging (for this false accusation of ‘A’ishah (RAA) which is eighty lashes).’ Related by Ahmad and the four Imâms. Al-Bukhârî referred to it.

1263. Anas bin Mâlik (RAA) narrated, ‘The first Li’ân that took place in Islâm was when Hilâl bin Umayyah accused his wife of having committed adultery with Shuraik bin Sahmâ.’ Thereupon the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said to him, “Either you produce evidence (for your claim) or you will receive punishment 1264. Al-Bukhârî related a similar hadith on the authority of Ibn ‘Abbâs (RAA).

1265. ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Amîr bin Rabî’ah narrated, “I witnessed the time of Abû Bakr, ‘Umar and ‘Uthmân (RAA), and those who came after them. I never saw them flogging a slave for Qâdîh (false accusation of adultery) except forty lashes.” Related by Mâlik, and Ath-Thawrî in his book al-Jâmî’.

1266. Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “He who accuses his slave of committing adultery (without proof) will be punished with the prescribed penalty on the Day of Resurrection unless it is (true) as he said.” Agreed upon.

باب حد السرقة

Chapter III: Penalty for Theft

1267 - عن عائشة فلمّا قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "لا تقطع نذير سارق إلا في ربع دينار فصاعداً." متفق عليه، واللفظ لمسلم.

363. This is evidence that the punishment of a male or a female slave for this crime is half of that prescribed for a free person, which would be 80 lashes.

1267. 'A'ishah (RAA) narrated that Allâh's Messenger ﷺ said, "A thief's hand should not be cut off except for a quarter of a Dinâr or more." Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim.

The version of Al-Bukhârî reads, "The hand of a thief is to be cut off for a quarter of a Dinâr or more."

In a version by Ahmad, "Cut off a thief's hand for a quarter of a Dinâr, and do not cut it off for what is less than that."

1268. Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ cut off the hand of a thief for stealing a shield that was worth three Dirhams. Agreed upon.

1269. Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, "May Allâh curse the thief who steals an egg for which his hand is cut off, or steals a rope for which his hand is to be cut off." Agreed upon.

364. A thief's right hand is to be cut off if he is caught stealing a quarter of a Dinâr (almost 1.5 gm of gold) or goods worth that much at the time of the theft.

365. The consensus of the scholars is that stealing an egg or a rope does not call for someone's hand to be cut off. The exaggeration in the hadith is meant to be a factor that urges anyone who thinks of stealing, to think twice, and see how mean this act is, as he would loose his precious right hand for something as worthless as an egg.
1270. 'A'ishah (RAA) narrated, 'Allâh's Messenger ﷺ said (to Usâmah bin Zaid), "Are you interceding with regards to one of Allâh's prescribed penalties? Then he got up and addressed the people saying, "O people! What destroyed the nations before you, was that when a noble person committed theft, they used to leave him (without punishment), but if a weak person among them committed theft, they would inflict the legal punishment on him." Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim.

Muslim has another version on the authority of 'A'ishah (RAA) who said, 'A woman used to borrow (people's) belongings and deny having taken them, so the Prophet ﷺ ordered that her hand be cut off.'

366. A lady known as Fâtîmah bint Aswâd al-Makhzûmiyyah who came from a prominent family committed an act of theft. When the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ commanded that her hand was to be cut off, people started to intercede to exempt her from punishment, and among them was Usâmah bin Zaid, the son of his former servant Zaid bin Thâbit. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ became very angry and said the statement mentioned in the hadîth. The owner of the stolen goods however can intercede for the thief, for his hand not to be cut off as long as the case has not yet been taken to the judge. Once it has been brought to court, no one can seek pardon for the thief.
1271. Jābir (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “There is no cutting of the hand for the treacherous, for snatching (like the one who snatches and runs away), or for forcible seizure (looting or robbery).” Related by Ahmad and the four Imāms. At-Tirmidhī and Ibn Hībān graded it as Sahih.

1273. Abū Umaiyah al-Makhzūmī (RAA) narrated, ‘A thief who has made a confession was brought to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, but no goods were found with him. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said to him, “I do not think you have stolen!” The man replied, ‘Yes I have.’ The Prophet ﷺ repeated it to him twice or thrice, so he gave his commands concerning him, and his hand was cut off. He was then brought to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ who said to him, “Ask for the forgiveness of Allāh and turn to Him in repentance.” The man then said, ‘I ask Allāh’s forgiveness and turn to Him in repentance.’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ then said three times, “O Allāh! forgive him.” Related by Abū Dawūd, Ahmad and An-Nasā’i with a trustworthy chain of narrators, and it is Abū Dawūd’s version.
1274. Al-Hākim transmitted the same hadith on the authority of Abū Hurairah (RAA) giving similar meaning. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Take him away and cut off his hand and cauterize him.” Al-Bazzār transmitted the same hadith but commented that its chain of narrators is not sound.

1275. ʿAbdur Rahmān bin ʿAuf (RAA) narrated, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “A thief is not to be fined if the prescribed punishment has been inflicted on him.” Related by An-Nasāʾī who said that its chain of narrators is disconnected.

1276. ʿAbdullāh bin ʿAmro bin al-ʿĀs (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was asked about dates which are still hanging on the palm tree, he then said, ‘If a needy person eats some dates, but without taking a supply away in his garment, he is not to be blamed, but if anyone takes away any of it, he is to be fined and punished. And if anyone takes away any of it (the dates) after it has been put in the place where it is going to be dried, and it amounts to the price of a shield, he must have his hand cut off." Related by Abū Dawūd and An-Nasā'ī. Al-Ḥākim graded it as Sahih.

1277. ِSa'wān bin Umayyah (RAA) narrated, 'When the Messenger of Allāh ☦️ commanded that the thief who had stolen his cloak (i.e. Sa'wān's) should have his hand cut off, Sa'wān wanted to intercede, for the thief's hand not to be removed. Thereupon the Messenger of Allāh ☦️ said to him,"Why didn't you do so before bringing him to me?" Related by Ahmad, the four Imāms, and Al-Ḥākim graded it as Sahih.

ṣa‘īd - وَعَنْ حَبِيبٍ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَّفَّذَ الْمَلِكَ لَمَّا أَمَرَ بِقُطْعِ الْيَدِ سَرَقَ رَدَّاهُ فَقَطَعَ فِيهِ - «مَا كَانَ ذَلِكَ بَلَّ أَنْ تَنْبِيِّهِ بِهِ» أَخْرَجَهُ أَبُو دَاوُدَ وَالْإِمَامَيْنَ وَالْحَكِيمُ.

1278. ِJābir (RAA) narrated, 'A thief was brought to the Prophet ☦️ and he said to them, "Kill him." The people said, 'He has just stolen O Messenger of Allāh!" He then said, "Cut off his hand." He was brought to him the second time and the Messenger of Allāh ☦️ also said,"Kill him." They said the same and the Messenger of Allāh ☦️ said to them, 'Cut off his hand." The same man was brought a third and a fourth time and same was said."367 When they brought him for the fifth time, the Messenger of Allāh ☦️ said, "Kill him." Related by Abū Dawūd and An-Nasā'ī who regarded it as Munkar (a type of a weak hadith).

Chapter IV: Penalty for Drinking and the Nature of Intoxicants

1279. An-Nasāʾī also reported a similar hadith on the authority of Al-Ḥārith bin Ḥāṭib. Ash-Shāfīʿī mentioned that the killing in the fifth time (of stealing) is abrogated.

1280. Anas bin Mālik (RAA) narrated, ‘A man who had drunk wine was brought to the Prophet ﷺ and he commanded that the man should be beaten (lashed). The man was given about forty lashes with two palm branches. Anas added, Abū Bakr (RAA) did the same, but when ʿUmar (RAA) became the Caliph, he consulted the people and ʿAbdūr Rāḥmān bin ʿAuf said, ‘The mildest punishment for drinking is eighty (lashes).’ So, ʿUmar (RAA) gave his commands accordingly. Agreed upon.

1281. Muslim transmitted on the authority of ʿAlī (RAA) concerning the story of al-Walīd bin ʿUqbah\(^{368}\) that the Messenger of \(^{368}\) He was the brother of ʿUthmān bin ʿAffān and he became a Muslim on the day of the Conquest of Makkah. He was appointed by ʿUthmān to Allah inflicted forty lashes, Abu Bakr (RAA) forty lashes and Ubayy (RAA) eighty. All of them are in accordance with the Sunnah of the Prophet ﷺ but this one (the eighty lashes) is preferable to me. In this hadith also a man witnessed that he had seen him vomiting wine. Uthman (RAA) said, 'He would not have vomited it, unless that he had drunk it.'

1282. Mu‘awiya (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said regarding the one who drinks alcohol, 'If he drinks (for the first time) flog him, then if he drinks for the second time flog him, then if he drinks for the third time flog him then if he drinks for the fourth time you should kill him.' Related by Ahmad and the wording is his. It is also transmitted by the four Imams; At-Tirmidhi mentioned what indicates that it is abrogated, but Abü Dawūd reported it clearly on the authority of Az-Zuhari.

1283. Abu Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "When one of you is flogging (while inflicting a prescribed punishment) he should avoid the face." Agreed upon.

govern al-Kūfah and was later ordered to retire by him for drinking alcohol.

369. It is preferable for him due to the daring attitude of the drunkards and not that what Umar (RAA) did was dearer to him than what the Messenger of Allah ﷺ did.
1284. Ibn 'Abbás (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "Prescribed punishments are not to be inflicted in mosques." Related by At-Tirmidhi and Al-Hākim.

1286. 'Umar (RAA) narrated, 'When the prohibition of Khamr (alcoholic drinks) was revealed, it used to be made from: grapes, dates, honey, wheat and barley. Khamr is what shields one’s mind’ Agreed upon.

1287. Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "Every intoxicant is Khamr, and every intoxicant is prohibited.” Related by Muslim.

1288. Jābir (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "If a large quantity of any beverage intoxicates, then a small amount of it is prohibited.” Related by Ahmad and the four Imāms. Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahīh.
1289. Ibn `Abbás (RAA) narrated, ‘Raisins used to be soaked for the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ in a water skin, and he would drink it that day, the next day and the following day. When it was the evening of the third day, he would drink it and give some to others. If anything was left from it, he would spill it.’ Related by Muslim.

1290. Umm Salamah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Allāh did not make your cure in what He made Haram (unlawful) to you.” Related by Al-Baihaqī and graded as Sahih by Ibn Hibbān.

1291. Wā‘il Al-Hadrami narrated that Tāriq bin Suwaid asked the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ about Khamr which he made only to be used as a medicine. The Prophet ﷺ replied, “It is not a medicine, it is a disease.” Related by Muslim and Abū Dawūd.

370. Imam Muslim transmitted a hadith on the authority of Abū Hurairah that a man came to the Prophet ﷺ asking about a man who is trying to take away his money, the Prophet ﷺ said to him, “Do not give it to him.” He then asked again, ‘What if he fights me?’ The Prophet ﷺ said to him, “Fight him.” The man asked again, ‘What if he kills me?’ The Prophet ﷺ said to him, “You are then (considered) a martyr.” The man asked, ‘What if I kill him?’ The Prophet ﷺ said to him, “He is then

371. Plural of Fitnah which means affliction, hardship trials etc.

1299. Anas (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah (SAW) said, “Fight the disbelievers (polytheists) with your property, yourselves and your tongues.” Related by Ahmad, An-Nasâ’î and Al-Hâkim graded it as Sahih.

1300. ‘A’ishah (RAA) narrated, ‘I said: ‘O Messenger of Allah! Is Jihād prescribed (also) for women?’ Allah’s Messenger (SAW) said, “Yes, a Jihād which is without fighting, it is Hajj and Umrah.” Related by Ibn Mâjah.
1301. ‘Abdullah bin Umar (RAA) narrated ‘A man came to the Messenger of Allah asking his permission to go out for Jihād. The Messenger of Allah asked him, “Are your parents alive?” He replied, ‘Yes.’ The Messenger of Allah then said to him, “Then your Jihād would be with them (i.e. in looking after them and being at their service.).” Agreed upon.

1302. Ahmad and Abū Dawūd transmitted a similar hadith on the authority of Abū Sa‘īd, and they added the extra statement, “Go back and ask for their permission. If they permit you to go, then go for Jihād otherwise, be good to them (look after them).”

1303. Jarir (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, “Any Muslim who stays among the polytheists, does not belong to me.” Related by the three Imāms with a sound chain of narrators. Imām Al-Bukhārī considered it as Mursal (i.e. the companion is absent from the chain of narrators.)

1304. Ibn `Abbās (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh

1305. ‘Abū Mūsā Al-Ash’ārī (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “The one who fights for Allāh’s word to become Superior, is striving in Allāh’s Cause.” Agreed upon.

1306. ‘Abdullāh bin As-Sā’di narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Emigration (to fight the enemy) will continue as long as an enemy is fought.” Related by An-Nasā’ī, and Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahīh.

1307. Nāfi’ (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ made an attack on Bani al-Muṣṭaliq when they were unaware.374 He killed the men who were fighting and took the women and children as captives.’ ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar told me about it. Agreed upon.

373- The specific Hīrah (migration) from Makkah to Madīnah is not compulsory anymore after the conquest of Makkah, but still Jihād remains and one could emigrate from his home for its sake. Also emigration with a good intention such as escaping from the land of the disbelievers, travelling to gain knowledge, escaping from Fitnah etc.

374- As they were preparing to fight the Prophet ﷺ.
1308. Sulaimān bin Buraidah narrated on the authority of his father on the authority of ‘Ā’ishah (RAA), ‘Whenever Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ appointed a commander over an army or a Sariyah, he would instruct him to fear Allāh in his own behavior and consider the welfare of the Muslims who were with him. He then used to say “Go out for Jihād in Allāh’s name, in the Cause of Allāh, and fight those who disbelieve in Allāh. Go out for Jihād and do not indulge in Ghulūl, or be treacherous or mutilate (dead bodies) or kill a child. When you meet your enemy, or the polytheists, invite them to three courses of action, and accept whichever of them they are willing to agree to, and withhold from doing anything else: Call them to Islâm, and if they agree accept it from them. Then invite them to migrate from their land to the land of the Emigrants (i.e. al-Madînah),377 if they refuse, then tell them they will be like the Muslim desert Arabs, 378 thus they will have no right in the Ghanîmah379 or Fai380 unless they participate in Jihâd with the Muslims. If they refuse (to accept Islâm) order them to pay the Jizyah381 and if they agree, accept it from them. If they refuse, seek Allâh, the Most High’s help against them and fight them. When you besiege a fortress, and its people wish you to grant them the protection of Allâh and His Prophet ﷺ, grant them neither but grant them your protection, for it is less serious (a lesser guilt) to break your guarantee of protection than to break that of Allâh’s. And if they offer to capitulate under the condition that they are subjected to the judgment of Allâh, do not grant them this, but judge according to your own command, for you do not know whether or not you will be able to carry out Allâh, the Most High’s Judgment regarding them.” Related by Muslim.

377- Migration from Makkah to Madînah used to be compulsory before the conquest of Makkah, as it was the land of Islâm up until that time.
378- They are subjected to all the other commands of Allâh like other Muslims, i.e. performing prayer, paying Zakâh, paying Diyâh etc., except that they do not get a share in war booty.
379- Ghanîmah refers to the spoils of war that Muslims gain after fighting the disbelievers and defeating them. One fifth of the war booty is taken away and the rest is distributed among the ones who fought. This fifth is spent on the orphans, poor, needy, in the cause of Allâh etc.
380- This term refers to the war-booty which is acquired from the disbelievers without fighting them. No fifth is to be taken away and it is spent on the poor, the orphans etc....
381- Poll tax money paid by non-Muslim citizens who are staying in a Muslim land, in return for their protection, services provided etc.
1309. Ka'b bin Mālik (RAA) narrated that whenever the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ intended to go out on a battle, he would pretend to head in a different destination. Agreed upon.

1310. Ma'qil bin An-Nu'mān bin Muqarrin (RAA) narrated, ‘I witnessed (battles with) Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and if he did not start fighting at the beginning of the day, he delayed the fighting till the sun had passed the meridian, and the wind blew382 and victory descended from Allāh.’ Related by Ahmad and the three Imāms. Al-Hākim graded it as Sahih.

1311. As-Sa'b bin Jath-thāmah (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was asked about the polytheists whose land was attacked at night with the probability that some of their women 382- If the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ did not start the fighting at the break of day, he would defer it to the Dhuhr prayer time to meet the blessing of Allāh which descended on the believers during the prayer time. As for the wind, scholars say that Muslims were granted victory at the battle of the Trench (al-Ahzāb) by the blowing of the wind, by the will of Allāh. Therefore, it is believed to be one of the factors which brings about victory, and the wind usually blows after the sun had passed the meridian.

and offspring were killed or hurt.’ He said، "They are from among them.' Agreed upon.

1312. 'A'ishah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to a man who followed him on the day of the Battle of Badr, "Go back I will not seek help from a Mushrik (polytheist)." Reported by Muslim.

1313. Ibn Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ saw a woman who was killed in one of his expeditions, so he disapproved the killing of women and children. Agreed upon.

383- It is not meant that women and children are killed intentionally, but if they were killed by accident then the Messenger of Allah ﷺ means they are not to be blamed.

384- This man who followed the Prophet ﷺ was a brave and strong man, but the Messenger of Allah wanted him to embrace Islam first as he could see that the man had a strong desire to become a Muslim. In another version of the hadith it says that when he became a Muslim the Messenger of Allah ﷺ gave him permission to fight with them. Some scholars say that this hadith is evidence that asking the assistance of a non-Muslim is not allowed in war, but other narrations prove that the Prophet sought the help of Safwán bin Umayyah on the Day of Hunain when he was still a polytheist, and he also asked the assistance of some other polytheists at the same battle hoping to bring their hearts closer to Islam, as he gave them a share of the war booty. That is why some scholars adopt the opinion that it was first prohibited to seek the help of polytheists during a war, but later on it was allowed (when the power of Islam became stronger). Ash-Shafî‘i is of the opinion that if the polytheist has a good opinion concerning the tactics of war etc, it is allowed to seek his assistance, otherwise it is disliked.
1314. Samurah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “Kill the mature men\(^{385}\) of the polytheists but spare their children.” Related by Abû Dawûd and At-Tirmidhî graded it as Sahih.

1315. ‘Alî (RAA) narrated that they (the Muslims and the polytheists) engaged in duel combat on the Day of Badr. Related by Al-Bukhârî and Abû Dawûd reported it as part of a long hadith.

1316. Abû Aiyûb (RAA) narrated that this verse was revealed concerning us (al-Ansâr).’ He was referring to the verse, “And do not throw yourselves into destruction,’ (2:195). Abû Aiyûb said that to answer those who disapproved of the action of those who attacked the Romans till they were amidst their army.\(^{386}\) Related by the three Imâms. At-Tirmidhî, Ibn Hibbân and Al-Hâkim graded it as Sahih.

385- He means the grown up and strong men who are able to fight.

386- When the Muslims confronted the Romans at Constantinople, a Muslim fighter attacked the lines of the Romans until he was in their midst, and then returned. People then cried, ‘He is throwing himself into destruction.’ Abû Aiyûb then told them that they are misinterpreting the verse which was revealed concerning the Angâr, when Allâh granted them victory they said to themselves secretly our property was lost, so why don’t we stay here to take care of our property and regain what we have lost (and leave Jihâd in the Cause of Allâh). Allâh, the Almighty then revealed this verse to show them that the real destruction occurs by staying back in their dwellings and not spending their wealth in the Cause of Allâh.
1317. Ibn 'Umar narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ burnt the palm trees of Banû an-Nadir\(^{387}\) and cut them down. Agreed upon.

1318. 'Ubâdah bin as-Sâmît (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, "Do not be dishonest (and treacherous) about the war booty (i.e. steal from it before it is divided legally), as Ghûlûl will be like fire (for the ones who got involved in it) and a cause of disgrace to those who are guilty of it in this world and in the Hereafter." Related by Ahmad, and An-Nasâ'î, and Ibn Hibbân graded it as Sahîh.

1319. 'Auf bin Mâlik (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ judged that the belongings taken from the (non-Muslim enemy) killed soldier in a war, are to be given to the one who killed him.' Related by Abû Dawûd. Muslim reported it as part of a long hadith.

\(^{387}\) This incident took place during the siege of Banû an-Nadir in Madinah.
Abdul Rahman bin Auf (RAA) narrated regarding the story of the killing of Abu Jahl. They both hastened to him with their swords till they killed him. Afterwards, they went to the Prophet and informed him (of what they had done). The Messenger of Allah asked them, "Which of you killed him? Have you wiped your swords?" They said: 'No.' The Prophet then looked at the swords and said, "Both of you killed him." He then ordained that the belongings (weapons, shields etc.) of Abu Jahl should go to Muadh bin Amro bin al-Jamuh. Agreed upon.

Makhul (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah set up the ballista while attacking the people of at-Ta'if.' Related by Abu Dawud with a trustworthy chain of narrators, but it is hadith Mursal.

Anas (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah entered Makkah with a helmet on his head, and when he took it off, a man came to him and said, Ibn Khattal is hanging on to the

390. Ibn Khattâl accepted Islâm at first and then the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ sent him along with a man from the Ansâr to collect Zakât. Ibn Khattâl then apostatized and murdered his Ansârî companion and fled to Makkah with the Zakât money. He also had two slave women who used to sing slanderous songs about the Prophet ﷺ. After the conquest of Makkah Ibn Khattâl tried to take refuge in the premises of the Ka'bah by hanging onto its curtains, but the Prophet ﷺ ordered his companions to kill him along with his slave women.

391. The three men were Tu'aimah bin 'Adi, An-Nâdîr bin al-Hârîth and 'Uqbah bin Abî Mu'âqil who threw the entrails of a she-camel on his back while he was performing his prayer by the Ka'bah and they all used to harm the Prophet ﷺ badly when he was still in Makkah.
1326. Jubair bin Muṭ‘im (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) said concerning the prisoners of war taken at Badr, “If al-Muṭ‘am bin ‘Adī had been alive and spoken to me about those filthy ones (as they were polytheists), I would have freed them for him.”’

1327. Abū Sa‘īd al-Khudrī (RAA) narrated, ‘On the Day (the battle) of Auṭās, we took women captives who had husbands. The Companions felt uneasy to have any sexual relation with them. Then Allāh, the Most High revealed the verse, “And women already married (are prohibited for you) except for those whom you possess.” (4:24).

\textsuperscript{1329} Ibn ’Umar (RAA) narrated, ‘On the Day of Khaibar, the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ allotted two shares for a horse, and one share (from the war booty) for the fighter.’\textsuperscript{395} Agreed upon and the wording is from Al-Bukhâri’.

\textsuperscript{1330} Abû Dawûd also reported, ‘He allotted three shares for a man and his horse, two for his horse and one for him.’

\textsuperscript{1331} Ma’n bin Yazid narrated, ‘I heard the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ say, “Additional booties (extra to the allotted share) are to be distributed only after the fifth\textsuperscript{396} has been kept aside.”’ Related by Ahmad and Abû Dawûd. At-Tahâwi graded it as Sahîh.

\textsuperscript{395} Which means that the rider gets one share, plus two shares which are allotted for his horse as evidenced by the following hadith. As for the fighter who is not riding, he gets one share.
\textsuperscript{396} The fifth which is taken away is to be spent on the poor, the orphans etc.
Habîb bin Maslamah (RAA) narrated, ‘I witnessed the Messenger of Allah ﷺ give a quarter (of the war spoils) as an additional booty (to a Sariyah) when they gained booty on their way out to the fight. He also gave a third (of the war spoils) as an additional booty when they gained it on their way back.’ Related by Abû Dawûd, Ibn al-Gârûd, Ibn Hibbân and Al-Hâkim graded it as Sahih.

Ibn ‘Umar (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to give some (members) of the Sariyah he sent out (i.e. some of the soldiers), additional booties especially for them, apart from the shares which are given to the whole army.’ Agreed upon.

Ibn ‘Umar (RAA) narrated, ‘On our expeditions, we used to get honey and grapes (as spoils) and eat them while on our military expeditions, without bringing them to the Prophet ﷺ (or whoever is in charge of distributing the spoils).’ Related by Al-Bukhârî. Abû Dawûd narrated, ‘The fifth was not taken from them.’ Ibn Hibbân graded it as Sahih.

397- The Messenger of Allah ﷺ gave them more if the booty is gained on the way back, as the enemy is more on the alert and the fight would be more fierce.

398- This was given as an additional reward for something special they did.

399- He means that they did not need to take the permission of those who are in charge of distributing the war booty as they are allowed to take the food which is usually eaten either for themselves or for their animals.
1335. ‘Abdullāh bin Abī Aufā (RAA) narrated, ‘On the Day of Khaibar, we got some food (as spoils). The man would come and take as much as he needed and then go away.’ Related by Abū Dawūd. Ibn al-Gārūd and Al-Hākim graded it as Sahīh.

1336. Ru’ai’ī bin Thābit (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “He who believes in Allāh and the Hereafter must not ride on an animal belonging to the booty of the Muslims and put it back when he has emaciated it, or wear a garment belonging to the booty of the Muslims and put it back when it is worn.” Related by Abū Dawūd and Ad-Dārimi.

1337. Abū ‘Ubaidah al-Jarrāh (RAA) narrated, ‘I heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ say, “Muslims must respect the protection granted (to a non-Muslim) by other Muslims.” Related by Ibn Abī Shaibah and Al-Hāmid with a weakness in its chain of narrators.

400: This hadith (and the following ones) provide evidence that a Muslim may give a covenant of protection to a non-Muslim (give him asylum) whether this Muslim is a man or a woman, old or young, rich or poor and it becomes an obligation on all Muslims to respect it.

1339. Al-Bukhári and Muslim transmitted on the authority of 'Ali (RAA), 'The protection granted by one Muslim is like one given by them all, and this right is extended to the most humble of them.' Ibn Mâjah narrated with a different chain of narrators, 'And the most eminent gives protection on their behalf.'

1340. Al-Bukhári and Muslim transmitted in the hadith of Umm Hâni', "We have given protection to whom you have granted (protection)." 401

1341. 'Umar (RAA) narrated, 'I heard the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ say, "I will certainly expel the Jews and the Christians from the Arabian Peninsula so as to leave only Muslims in it." 402 Reported by Muslim.

401: Umm Hâni' was the daughter of Abû Tâlib and the sister of 'Alî bin Abî Tâlib (RAA). She became a Muslim on the conquest of Makkah. The hadith refers to two men of her family to whom she gave protection on the conquest of Makkah and her brother 'Alî did not want to accept it, but the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ accepted her protection.

402: Scholars say that polytheists and those adopting other religions can travel by this area to pass through, except for Makkah and Madinah and the sanctuary around each of them. What is really meant here is that they should not get the nationality of this land, in modern standards, rather they may stay temporarily for work or trade. In another had-1342. ‘Umar (RAA) narrated, ”The wealth of Banū an-Nadīr (one of the Jewish tribes) was part of what Allāh bestowed on His Messenger ﷺ, and which the Muslims had not ridden on horses or camels to get (i.e. they did not have to fight); so they belonged specially to the Prophet ﷺ who would give his family their sustenance for a year, then applied what remained for horses and weapons and equipment in the Path of Allāh, Who is Great and Glorious.” Agreed upon.

1343. Mu‘ādh bin Jabal (RAA) narrated, ”We went on an expedition to Khaibar along with the Prophet ﷺ and we got some sheep (as spoils). Then Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ divided some of them among us and divided the rest with the other war booty.” Related by Abū Dawūd on the authority of reasonably reliable men.

1344. Abū Rāfī’ (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, ”I do not break a covenant or imprison messengers.” Related by Abū Dawūd and An-Nasā’ī. Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahih.

Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated, "Whichever town you take peacefully (they surrendered without fighting), and stay therein, you have a share in it (in whatever is obtained from it); and whichever town disobeys Allāh and His Messenger, a fifth of (its booty) goes to Allāh and His Messenger and what remains is yours.” Related by Muslim.

Al-Miswar bin Makhramah and Marwân narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allâh went out in the year of al-Hudaibiyah (reconciliation) – the narrator narrated a long hadith which contained, ‘this is what Muhammad bin ʿAbdullâh has reconciled with Suhail bin ʿAmro, to stop fighting for 10 years during which time people will live safely, and refrain from fighting one another...’ Related by Abû Dawûd. It is part of a long hadith narrated by Al-Bukhârî.

1352. Muslim transmitted part of this hadith on the authority of Anas bin Mâlik (RAA) which says, ‘In case any of you comes to us we shall not send him back to you (i.e. one of the Muslims who goes back to Quraysh), and in case any of us came to you, you should send him back to us (any of the people of Quraysh who goes to the Prophet they will send him back to Makkah).’ The Companions asked the Prophet, ‘O Messenger of Allâh! Agreed upon.

When you set off your dog, mention Allah's Name (say Bismillah), and if it catches anything for you and you come up to it while it is still alive slaughter it; if you come up to it when the dog has killed it but not eaten any of it, eat it. If you find another dog with yours and the game has been killed, do not eat, for you do not know which of them killed the animal. When you shoot your arrow, mention Allah's Name and if the game goes out of sight for a day and you find it without any marks except for that of your arrow, eat if you wish, but if you find it drowned in water do not eat it." Agreed upon, and the wording is from Muslim.

1373. 'Adi bin Hātim (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah narrated, When you shoot your arrow, mention Allah's Name (say Bismillah), and if the game goes out of sight for a day and you find it without any marks except for that of your arrow, eat if you wish, but if you find it drowned in water do not eat it." Agreed upon, and the wording is from Muslim.

1374. 'Adi (RAA) narrated, 'I asked the Messenger of Allah narrated, 'If the game is killed with its sharp edge (the iron piece) eat it; but if it strikes with the middle part of the shaft (i.e. it is not penetrated with the sharp part) and the game is killed (due to being hit with it), it is considered a Mauquīdah, so do not eat it." Related by Al-Bukhārī.

410. It is a featherless arrow without a sharp edge, but it hits the game with its broad side. Some say that the Mi'rād is a thick bar of wood with a piece of iron fixed to its edge and it could be without this piece of iron which is closer to its description.

411. The Mauquīdah is the animal killed by a violent blow with a stone or a stick and it is prohibited to eat it. This hadith clearly specifies that if the game is wounded with a sharp object and bleeds to death, then it is

414. If someone is to be executed (for any crime he committed), he should be killed in such a manner that he faces the least possible suffering and that he passes away as quickly as possible.

415. When someone is slaughtering an animal he should not move it around violently, neither draw it with force, nor slaughter it in the presence of another animal that may be watching it.

416. When the cow or the camel is slaughtered and a fetus is found inside, the fetus is lawful to eat if one wishes. That only applies if it was found dead, but if it was still alive, it must be slaughtered.
said, "A Muslim's name is sufficient for him, so if he forgets to mention Allâh's Name when he slaughters an animal, he should mention Allâh's Name, then eat it." Related by Ad-Dâraquqî and there is a weak narrator in its chain. Also there is Muhammad bin Yazîd bin Sinân in its chain who is truthful but had a weak memory.

1385. 'Abdul Razzaq transmitted it with a sound chain of narrators on the authority of Ibn 'Abbâs but it is not connected up to the Prophet's.

1386. Abû Dawûd narrated a similar hadith that reads, "The slaughtering of any Muslim is Halâl (lawful) whether or not he mentioned Allâh's name over it." Its narrators are reliable.

Chapter III: Sacrifices on ‘Idul Ad-hâ

1387. Anas bin Mâlik (RAA) narrated, The Messenger of Allâh used to sacrifice two two-horned rams, mention Allâh's name

417. Most scholars are of the opinion that pronouncing the Takbîr and Bismillâh is a Sunnah except for Abû Hanîfah. There is also a consensus among the scholars that if a Muslim deliberately does not mention Allâh's name while slaughtering then the animal becomes unlawful to eat, but if he forgets then it is permissible to eat it and it is enough in this case to mention Allâh's name before eating it.
and say the Takbīr (Allāh Akbar or Allāh is the Most Great), and place his foot on their sides.' In another version, 'He slaughtered them with his own hands.' Another version has, 'Two fat rams,' and another has, 'two precious rams.' Agreed upon. In a version by Muslim, 'and would say Bismillāh and Allāh Akbar.'

1388. Muslim has also reported on the authority of 'A'ishah (RAA), "Allāh's Messenger ordered a horned ram with black legs, a black belly and black around its eyes, and it was brought for him to sacrifice and he said to 'A'ishah (RAA), "'A'ishah, get the knife." Then he said, "Sharpen it with a stone." When she had done so he took it, then taking it (the ram) he placed it on the ground and slaughtered it. He then said, "Bismillāh (In the name of Allāh), O Allāh, accept it from Muhammad, Muḥammad's family and from Muḥammad's Ummah (followers)." Then he sacrificed it.'

1389. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that Allāh's Messenger ḍ said, "He who can afford it but did not offer a sacrifice must not come near our place of prayer." Related by Ahmad and Ibn Mājah. Al-Hākim graded it as Sahih. Other Imāms said that it is Mawqūf (i.e. it is not connected to the Prophet ḍ.)

418. Offering a sacrifice is not obligatory, but it is a confirmed Sunnah which was always practiced by the Prophet ḍ.
1390. Jundub bin Sufiān (RAA) narrated, ‘I witnessed (the prayer of) ʿIdul Ad-hā with the Messenger of Allāh ُسُūلُ اللَّهِ ﷺ and when he finished his prayer with the people, he looked at a sheep which had been sacrificed, so he said, “Anyone who has sacrificed before the prayer must sacrifice another goat instead (of the one which he slaughtered before the prayer) and if anyone has not sacrificed he should do so in Allāh’s name.”’

Agreed upon.

1391. Al-Barā’ bin ʿĀzib (RAA) narrated Allāh’s Messenger ُسُūلُ اللَّهِ ﷺ stood among us and said, “There are four types of sacrificial animals, which are not permitted: A one-eyed animal which has obviously lost the sight of one eye, a sick animal which is obviously sick, a lame animal which obviously limps, and an old animal which has no marrow.” Related by Ahmad and the four Imāms. At-Tirmidhī and Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahīh.

1392. Jābir (RAA) narrated that Allāh’s Messenger ُسُūلُ اللَّهِ ﷺ said,

419. This hadith is evidence that if an animal is slaughtered before the ‘eid prayer, then it is not considered a sacrifice and will not get the reward as such, it is rather considered as a charity to be given to the poor. The proper sacrifice must be slaughtered after the prayer, which is why the Messenger of Allāh ُسُūلُ اللَّهِ ﷺ told them to sacrifice another one.
"Sacrifice only a full-grown animal unless it is difficult for you, in which case you should sacrifice a (six to ten month old) sheep." Reported by Muslim.

Chapter IV: 'Aqiqah

1396. Ibn `Abbás (RAA) narrated, 'The messenger of Allāh ﷺ slaughtered a ram for both al-Hasan and al-Husain (at their birth).' Related by Abū Dawūd, Ibn Khuzaimah, Ibn al-Gārūd and ‘Abdul Haqq graded it as Sahīh, but Abū Hātim said that it is most probably Mursal.

1397. Ibn Hibbān transmitted a similar hadith on the authority of Anas.

1398. 'A'ishah (RAA) narrated, 'Allāh's Messenger ﷺ commanded them to slaughter two sheep equal (in age) for a boy and one for a girl at their birth.' Related by At-Tirmidhī and graded it as Sahīh.

421. This term is used for the animal which is slaughtered for the sake of a new-born baby whether male or female. The Sunnah is that the animal is to be slaughtered on the 7th day of the baby's birth, and also it is an act of the Sunnah of the Prophet ﷺ to slaughter one sheep for the female and two for the male.

422. They are the grandsons of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, and the sons of 'Ali bin Abī Talib and Fāṭimah the Prophet's daughter. Al-Husain is one year younger than al-Hasan.

423. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ is drawing a similarity between an article, which is pawned and a child who is lying in a state of being pledged. If his parents do not do this ‘Aqiqah for him, he will not be able to intercede for them with Allāh on the Day of Judgment, if he dies in his childhood before reaching the age of puberty; i.e. they will not benefit from his intercession to their welfare.
1401. Ibn Umar (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ caught up with 'Umar bin al-Khattâb (RAA) when he was with a group of camel-riders and 'Umar was swearing by his father, so Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ called them and said, “Verily, Allâh forbids you to swear by your fathers, so whoever has to take an oath, he must swear by Allâh or keep silent.” Agreed upon.'

1404. Muslim transmitted, “An oath is to be interpreted according to the intention of the claimant (whether the judge or the defendant’s rival demanding an oath concerning a particular matter).”

1405. ‘Abdur Rahman bin Samurah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, “If you take an oath to do something and later find something else which is better than that one, make an expiation for (the dissolution of) your oath and then do what you find to be better.” Agreed upon.

In the version of Al-Bukhari, “Do what you find to be better and make expiation for your oath.”

1406. Ibn Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, “If anyone says: ‘If Allah wills’ when swearing an 424 This hadith is relevant to the intention of the claimant (whether he is a judge or otherwise). The claimant asks the defendant to administer an oath on a certain matter, which he claims to be truthful about. So, in this case the defendant makes an oath with his intention being related to this particular matter, which his rival claimed that he is guilty of. This is supported by the following hadith.

1407. Ibn ‘Umar (RAA) narrated, ‘When the Messenger of Allâh (ﷺ) took an oath, he used to say, “No, by Him Who turns the hearts,” (i.e. who controls the states of one’s heart).’ Related by Al-Bukhârî.

1409. ‘Â’ishah (RAA) narrated regarding the verse, “Allâh will not punish you for what is unintentional in your oaths” (5:89). 'It was revealed about such phrases as: 'No, by Allâh,' and 'Yes, by Allâh.' Related by Al-Bukhârî and Abû Dawûd.

1410. Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated that Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, "Allâh has ninety-nine names. He who retains them in his memory will enter Paradise." Agreed upon. At-Tirmidhî and Ibn Hibbân mentioned the ninety nine names, but it is the narrators who mentioned them and not the Prophet ﷺ.

1411. Usâmah bin Zaid (RAA) narrated that Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, "If one is done a favor and he expresses (his gratitude) to his benefactor by saying, 'May Allâh give you a good reward' (Jazâk Allâh Khairan) he has fully expressed his appreciation.'Related by At-Tirmidhî and Ibn Hibbân graded it as Sahîh.

426. There are also other names which are attributed to Allâh.
427. What is meant is not just memorizing them, but comprehending their meanings and implications, observing them in one's behavior and acting accordingly etc.
forbade making vows (Nadhr)\(^{428}\) and said, "It will not bring (you) any good but it is only a means by which some of the wealth of the miserly is taken out." Agreed upon.

1413. Uqba bin ‘Amir (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "The expiation for a vow (Nadhr) is the same as for an oath." Related by Muslim. At-Tirmidhi has in his version, "If he did not specify it."

1414. Abū Dawūd transmitted on the authority of Ibn ‘Abbās (RAA), ‘Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, "If anyone makes a vow but does not fulfill it, its expiation is the same as that for an oath; if anyone makes a vow to do an act of disobedience, its expiation is the same as that of an oath, if anyone makes a vow which he is unable to fulfill, its expiation is the same as that of an oath." Its chain of narrators is Sahih, but the scholars of hadīth said that it is not connected to the Prophet ﷺ but it is only the narration of Ibn ‘Abbās.

\(^{428}\) Making obligatory on oneself an act of worship which was not originally made obligatory by Allāh such as taking a vow to fast extra days or pray extra supererogatory prayers or pay charity when so and so happens (if any sick person recovers, if my absent comes back etc.).

1418. Ahmad and the four Imāms also reported that he said, “Allāh, the Most High will not do anything with the afflictions your sister imposes on herself, command her to put on her Hijāb429 (scarf) and to ride, and to fast three days.”

429. It is mentioned in another narration that she made a vow to walk to the Ka'bah while taking her hijāb off, and that is why the Prophet (SAW) ordered her to wear her hijāb and to make expiation as this is an act of disobedience.
1419. Ibn ’Abbas (RAA) narrated, ‘Sa’d bin ‘Ubadah asked Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ for a ruling regarding a vow made by his mother who had died before fulfilling it, and he replied ﷺ, “Fulfill it on her behalf.” Agreed upon.

1420. Thâbit bin ad-Dahhâk (RAA) narrated, ‘During the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ a man made a vow to slaughter camels at Bawânah and he came to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ and asked him. Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ asked, “Were there any idols worshipped at that place (in the time of Jâhiliyah)?” He said, ‘No.’ The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ asked again, “Was any Jâhiliyah festival celebrated there?” He replied, ‘No.’ The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ then said to the man, “Fulfill your vow, for there is no fulfillment of a vow to do an act of disobedience to Allâh, neither to break the ties of kinship, nor to do something which a human being does not possess (or has no control over).” Related by Abû Dawûd and At-Tabarâni and it is his version; it is narrated with a sound chain of narrators.

The one who will go to Paradise is the judge who knew what is right and gives judgment accordingly; but a judge who knows what is right and does not give judgment accordingly; and acts unjustly in his judgment will go to Hell, and a judge who does not know what is right and judges people while ignorant (of the case) will go to Hell." Related by the four Imâms and Al-Hâkim graded it as Sahîh.

1426. Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, "He who has been appointed a judge has been slaughtered without a knife." Related by Ahmad and the four Imâms. Ibn Khuzaimah and Ibn Hibbân graded it as Sahîh.

Agreed upon.

1429. Abi Bakrah (RAA) narrated, 'I heard the Messenger of Allah say, "No judge may make a judgment between two people when he is angry." Agreed upon.

431. It will be a source of pleasure and power in this world, but as it is a great responsibility, it will be a source of grief and regret on the Day of Resurrection.
1430. ʿAli (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “When two men present a case before you, do not decide in favor of the first till you hear what the other has to say. Then you will know how to judge.” ʿAli said, ‘Thereafter, I judged according to that.’ Related by Ahmad, Abū Dawūd and At-Tirmidhī who graded it as Ḥasan. Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahīh.

Therefore, whatever I rule for anyone, which by right belongs to his brother, I am only giving him a portion of Hell.” Agreed upon.

1438. Abu Mariam al-Azdi (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “If anyone is appointed by Allah to be in a position of authority over any of the matters concerning the Muslims, but then turns away from attending to their needs and poverty, Allah will turn away from dealing with his needs.” Related by Abu Dawud and At-Tirmidhi.

Chapter III: Claims and Evidence

1451. Ibn `Abbâs (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “If people were given what they asked for when they brought a case forward, some would claim the lives and property of others, but an oath must be taken by the defendants.” Agreed upon.

1452. Al-Baihaqi narrated with a sound chain of narrators,

435. This means that either the person giving his testimony is absolutely certain about the case or he should abstain from producing his testimony.

modesty to another person in the afternoon (or after the 'Asr prayer) and swore to him by Allâh that he had bought it at such and such a price and he (the buyer) believed him yet that was not the case, and a man who pledged allegiance to the Imâm but for the sake of worldly matters (i.e. not for Allâh's sake), if the Imâm bestowed on him something out of worldly riches he adheres to his allegiance, and if he did not give him anything, he did not fulfill the allegiance." Agreed upon.

1459. Jâbir (RAA) narrated, 'Two men disputed about a she-camel and each of them produced some proof that it was his animal, and that it was born at his place.' Allâh's Messenger ﷺ ruled it for the one who had it in his possession.' Related by Ad-Dâraquutni with a weak chain of narrators.

1460. Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ restored the oath to be sworn by the claimant (and not the defendant).' Related by Ad-Dâraquutni with a weak chain of narrators.

1461. 'A'ishah (RAA) narrated, 'One day, Allâh's Messenger ﷺ came to me looking happy while his face was glistening and said,
“Did you not see that Mujazziz Al-Mudlijī (a physiognomist) He looked at Zaid bin Hārithah and Usāmah bin Zaid, and then said, “These feet are related to one another.”

436 Zaid bin Hārithah the freed slave of the Prophet had a white complexion whereas Usāmah his son was rather dark. Usāmah’s mother Umm Aiman was also dark, but people started to talk about Usāmah’s lineage because he was dark while his father was white. Mujazziz Al-Mudlijī saw them lying down with their faces covered with linen, while their feet were bare. He then commented upon looking at their feet with the words mentioned in the hadith which pleased the Prophet.

1465. Abū Dharr (RAA) narrated, I asked the Messenger of Allāh Ḥランス "Which action is the most excellent?" He replied, "Faith in Allāh and Jihād in His Cause." I then asked, "Which slaves are the most excellent (for the purpose of emancipating them)?" and he replied, "Those whose prices are the highest and are the most valuable to their owners." Agreed upon.

1466. Ibn ‘Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh Ḥランス said, "Anyone who emancipates his share in a slave and has enough money to pay the full price for him, a fair price for the slave should be fixed. Allah said, "A son cannot ever repay his parents what he owes them, unless he finds them in slavery, then buys them and emancipates them." Related by Muslim.

1469. Samurah bin Jundub (RAA) narrated, "Whoever obtains possession of a relative, who is next of kin, that person becomes free." Related by Ahmad and the four Imams. Some scholars are of the opinion that it is Mawqūf (not connected to the Prophet).

1470. Imrān bin Husain (RAA) narrated, 'A man who had no other property emancipated six of his slaves at the time of his death. Allah's Messenger sent for them, and after dividing them into three groups, he cast lots among them, set two of them free and kept four in slavery, and spoke very harshly to the man (who emancipated them)." Related by Muslim.

437- Meaning all that he did for him, bringing him up, keeping him, supporting him, caring for him etc.

438- This hadith is evidence that only one third of a dead man's property could be given in his will, to those who are not of his legal heirs.
1471. Safinah (RAA) narrated, 'I was a slave of Umm Salamah and she said, 'I shall emancipate you, but on the condition that you serve Allâh's Messenger as long as you live.' Related by Ahmad, Abû Dawûd, An-Nasâ'î and Al-Hâkim.

1472. 'A'ishah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh(saw) said, "Wâlâ' is (legally) for the manumitter." Agreed upon. It is part of a long Hadith (refer to hadith no. 811).

Related by Ash-Shâfi'i. Ibn Hibbân and Al-Hâkim graded it as Sahîh. It is also related by Al-Bukhâri and Muslim with different wording.

Chapter II: Issues related to al-Mudabbar⁴⁴⁰

al-Mukâtib⁴⁴¹ and Umm al-Walad⁴⁴²

1474. Jábîr bin `Abdullâh (RAA) narrated that a man from the Angâr declared that his slave lad would be free after his death (would be Mudabbar), yet he had no other property. When the Prophet ﷺ heard of that he said, "Who will buy him from me?" And Nu‘aim bin `Abdullâh bought him for eight hundred Dirhams. Agreed upon.

In a narration by Al-Bukhârî: 'The man became needy,' (so the Prophet ﷺ took the slave and said...).

A version by An-Nasa’î says, ‘The man had a debt, so the Prophet ﷺ sold the slave for eight hundred Dirhams and gave him the money and said, “Pay off your debt.”

1475. ‘Amro bin Shu‘âib narrated on the authority of his fath-

⁴⁴⁰: A slave who is told by his master that he will be free after his (the master's) death.

⁴⁴¹: A slave, who makes an agreement with his master to pay him a certain amount of money in return for gaining his freedom.

⁴⁴²: This literary means the mother of a child. She is the slave woman, who gives birth to her master’s children, who would be born free.
er, on the authority of his grandfather (RAA), that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “A slave who entered into an agreement to buy his freedom is still a slave as long as a Dirham of the agreed price remains to be paid.” Related by Abu Dawûd with a good chain of narrators. The full hadith is related by Ahmad and the three Imâms. Al-Hâkim graded it to be Sahih.

1476. Umm Salamah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “When a slave of one of your women has made an agreement to pay for his freedom (i.e. he is a Mukâtib) and can pay the full price, she must veil herself from him.” Related by Ahmad and the four Imâms. At-Tirmidhi graded it as Sahih.

1477. Ibn `Abbâs (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “The Diyah (Blood money) of a slave who had made an agreement to buy his freedom (Mukâtib) and had been killed, is paid at the rate paid for a free man (as a Diyah) as much as he has paid of the amount agreed upon, and at the rate paid for a slave as the remainder is concerned.” Related by Ahmad, Abu Dawûd and An-Nasâ’î.

443. This refers to al-Mukâtib who remains under the same rulings, which are applicable to a slave until he pays the full amount. Agreed upon.

444. This hadith seems to be contradictory to the hadith of `Amro bin Shu’âib (1461) that a slave is still a slave as long as a Dirham of the agreed price remains to be paid. But most scholars are of the opinion that a Mukâtib is still a slave regarding legal punishments and blood money as long as he still owes his owner one Dirham. Some scholars still believe 1478. Amro bin al-Hārith, the brother of Juwairiyah the mother of Believers (the wife of the Prophet ﷺ) narrated, 'When Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ died, he did not leave a Dīnār or a Dirham, a slave or a slave-woman, or anything but his white she-mule, his weapons and a piece of land which he appointed as Sadaqah.' Related by Al-Bukhārī.

1480. Sahl bin Hunaif (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "He who assists a Mujāhid for Allāh’s sake, a debtor who is in distress (being unable to pay his debt) or a slave who had made an agreement to buy his freedom, Allāh will shade him, with His Shade, on the Day when there will be no shade but His.” Related by Ahmad and Al-Hākim graded it as Sahih.

that that this is not the case, taking this hadith as their evidence, but some scholars said that it is abrogated and the first hadith is the more established one.

1481. Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, "A Muslim has six duties towards other Muslims: When you meet him, you should salute him; when he invites you, accept his invitation; when he asks for your advice, give it to him; when he sneezes and praises Allah, say 'May Allah have mercy on you;' when he is ill, visit him; and when he dies follow his funeral." Related by Muslim.

1482. Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, "Look at those who are lower than you (financially) but do not look at those who are higher than you, lest you belittle the favors Allah conferred upon you." Agreed upon.
An-Nawwâs bin Samʿân (RAA) narrated, 'I asked the Messenger of Allāh صلی الله علیه و سلّم about virtue and sin and he replied, "The essence of virtue is (manifested in) good morals (Akhīlaq) whereas sinful conduct445  is that which turns in your heart (making you feel uncomfortable) and you dislike that it would be disclosed to other people." Related by Muslim.

Ibn Masʿūd (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh صلی الله علیه و سلّم said, "When three of you get together in company, two of you must not talk privately while isolating the third, so as not to make him feel sad (that he is left out) till you mingle with other people (i.e. you are joined by others)." Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim.

Ibn ʿUmar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh صلی الله علیه و سلّم said, "A man should not ask another man to get up from his place in order to take his seat. But you should make room for each other and spread out." Agreed upon.

445- A sin could be that action, which should a person commit it, he would be subjected to punishment according to Islamic Shariʿah. A sin in this hadith refers to that action, which a person does not feel comfortable about doing, even though it is not explicitly prohibited by the Shariʿah, it is not definitely lawful or acceptable and one fears that Allāh will punish him for doing it, even if people cannot see him. It is better in this case to avoid it.
1486. Ibn 'Abbás (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, "When one of you eats, he must not wipe his hand till he licks it, or gives it to someone else to lick (such as a wife, husband, etc)." Agreed upon.

1488. 'Ali (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, "When a group of people passes by, it is sufficient if one of them gives a salutation, and it is sufficient for those who are sitting that one of them replies." Related by Ahmad and Al-Baihaqi.

446. The reason for this is explained in another hadith as the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, "You never know which portion of your food is blessed (has Barakah)." It is not meant to be obligatory as most scholars say, rather it is just preferable or recommended for the intended good.

447. Greeting with Salâm or responding to Salâm (the Muslim greeting), is a collective duty, thus if one greets or answers the greeting then the obligation or duty is met on behalf of the rest.
1489. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Do not initiate the saluting of Jews and Christians (when you meet them), and if you meet any of them on the road, force him to go to the narrowest part of the road (i.e. do not give way for them to pass, but keep going)."448 Related by Muslim.

1490. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "When one of you sneezes, he should say, 'Alhamdu-lillah (Praise is to Allah) and his (Muslim) brother should say to him, 'Yarhamuha Allah (May Allah have mercy on you). When he says this to him (the last phrase), he should reply, 'Yahdikum Allah (May Allah guide you) and grant you well being." Related by Al-Bukhārī.

1491. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "None of you should drink while standing."449 Related by Muslim.

448– When the Jews used to meet the Prophet ﷺ in Madīnah, they used to say to him 'as-Sâm 'Alaykum', instead of saying 'As-Salāmu 'Alaykum'. The word as-Sâm means death in Arabic, so the Jews instead of answering back the salutation of the Muslims, which is peace be upon you, they used to wish the Prophet ﷺ death.

449– It is not meant to be prohibited to drink water while standing, rather it is disliked as it is narrated by Ibн 'Abbās that the Prophet ﷺ drank from the well of Zamzam while he was standing.
1492. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “When one of you puts on his shoes, he should put on the right one first and when he takes them off, he should take off the left one first, so that the right one should be the first to be put on and the last to be taken off.”\textsuperscript{450} Agreed upon.

1493. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “None of you should walk with one shoe, but should either wear them both or take them both off.” Agreed upon.

1494. Ibn Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Allāh will not look on the Day of Judgment at him who lets his garment drag on the ground out of pride and arrogance.” Agreed upon.

1508. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “If anyone relieves a Muslim believer from one of the hardships of this worldly life, Allāh will relieve him of one of the hardships of the Day of Resurrection. If anyone makes it easy for the one who is indebted to him (while finding it difficult to repay), Allāh will make it easy for him in this worldly life and in the Hereafter, and if anyone conceals the faults of a Muslim, Allāh will conceal his faults in this world and in the Hereafter. 453. He could relieve him of part of the debt, the whole debt or give him more time to repay it.
454. Especially those who ask out of dire necessity.
Chapter III: Zuhd (Abstinence) and Piety

1511. An-Nu'man bin Bashir (RAA) narrated, 'I heard Allah's Messenger ﷺ saying, (Nu'man pointed with his two fingers to his ears) 'Both lawful (Halāl) and unlawful things (Harām) are evident but in between them there are doubtful things and most people have no knowledge about them. So he, who saves himself from these doubtful things, saves his religion and his honor (i.e. keeps them blameless). And he who indulge in these doubtful things is like a shepherd who pastures (his animals) near the Himā (private pasture) of someone else and at any moment he is liable to get in it. (O people!) Beware! Every king has a Himā and the Himā of Allah on the earth is what He declared unlawful (Harām). Beware! In the body there is a piece of flesh if it becomes sound and healthy, the whole body becomes sound and healthy but if it gets spoilt, the whole body gets spoilt and that is the heart." Agreed upon.

455. Doubtful here means that it is not clear whether they are definitely Halāl or Harām.
1512. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Cursed is he, who is the slave of the Dinār, the slave of the Dirham, and the slave of the cloak bordered with silk. 1513. Ibn ‘Umar (RAA) narrated, ‘Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ took hold of my shoulders and said, “Be in this world as though you were a stranger or a passerby.” Ibn ‘Umar used to say, “If you are alive in the evening, do not expect to be alive till the morning and if you are alive in the morning do not expect to be alive till the evening, and take from your health for your sickness, and from your life for your death.”' Related by Al-Bukhārī.

456- He means that you should make good use of the time when you are healthy as there will be a time when you are sick and you will not be able to do much and the same goes for the time when you are alive, to benefit you when you are dead.

457- The hadith is referring to imitating the disbelievers and those, who are disobedient in their actions, which go against the laws of Islām, and not simply imitating them, but actually loving these acts.
